Hymns in { 94 As with gladness - Kocher, 1838
 Procession { 95 Brightest and best - Harding, 1862

Introit. On a throne exalted I beheld, and lo, a man sitting, whom a legion of angels worship, singing together: behold, his rule and governance endureth to all ages.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Schubert in G

Gradual. Blessed be the Lord, even the God of Israel: which only doeth wondrous things. V. The mountains also shall bring peace: and the little hills righteousness unto the people.

Alleluia. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Alleluia.

Hymn 93 Earth has many a noble city - Gotha, 1715

Credo - - - Schubert in G

Offertory. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song: be ye sure that the Lord he is God.

Anthem - - - William Crotch

Lo, star-led chiefs Assyrian odors bring, and bending Magi seek their infant King! Marked ye, where, hovering o'er his head, the dove's white wings celestial glory shed.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Schubert in G

Communio. Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing; And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

Gloria in Excelsis - - - Schubert in G

Antiphon. I Am the Living Bread, which came down from Heaven. If any man eat of this Bread, he shall live forever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Credo - - - Henschel in D

Offertory. O be joyful in God, all ye lands; sing praises unto the honour of his Name: O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God; and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

Motet - - - S. Scheidt, 1650

O Little One sweet, O Little One mild,
Thy Father's purpose thou hast fulfilled;
Thou cam'st from heaven to mortal ken,
Equal to be with us poor men,
O Little One sweet, O Little One mild.
O Little One sweet, O Little One mild,
With joy thou hast the whole world filled;
Thou camest here from heaven's domain,
To bring men comfort in their pain,
O Little One sweet, O Little One mild.
O Little One sweet, O Little One mild,
In thee Love's beauties are all distilled;
Then light in us thy love's bright flame,
That we may give thee back the same,
O Little One sweet, O Little One mild.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Henschel in D

Communio. There came a voice from heaven, saying: Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Gloria in Excelsis - - - Henschel in D

Antiphon. I Am the Living Bread, which came down from Heaven. If any man eat of this Bread, he shall live forever.

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, 1938.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth His Glory; and His disciples believed on Him." The word for miracles in this text means "sign." The sign was a manifestation of the Divine Glory of the Son of God. It was also a sign of the compassion of the Son of Man. The Divinity is manifested through the Humanity. We see the union of the Divine and the Human in one Person in the public life of Our Lord as we see it in the infancy. In His public words and works we see the Divinity manifesting itself through the Humanity in One Lord Jesus Christ.

Remembering this we look for and find miracles, from the Virgin Birth to the Resurrection. Miracles do not surprise us. The absence of miracles would be inexplicable. What else could be expected from Him who is God-Man? We expect from the Son of God signs and powers and wonders for which no force nor combination of forces known to man can account. We expect from the Son of Man the satisfying revelation of the love of God, brought intimately near to us and affecting the intimate affairs of simple human life, as we experience them in the lives that we live and the deaths that we die. It is this revelation of Divine Love which is the motive for every one of Our Lord's miracles. Each miracle is a victory of love. It is the love that conquers all things. It is the power which makes all things work together for good to those who love God.

Look back over your life and think. How many events and sequences of events can you account for by any other means than by the intervention of God's love and power? Who is there who is not compelled to say, "I too have had my miracles."

The miracle today reveals God's love for homes and families. As we almost hear Our Lord's voice saying, "Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast," we may look ahead three years and hear almost the last words He spoke when He provided for His own home. "Woman, behold thy Son." "Son, behold thy mother."

"Fill the water pots with water, draw out now." Draw what? Reason answers water. Faith answers wine. God does not destroy the natural. He lifts the natural up into the supernatural, and being lifted up the natural is transformed. It remains what it was and becomes that which it was not. This is the supreme miracle of change promised by the first miracle.

A little child is brought to the Font, taken into the arms of the Minister of the Sacrament of Baptism, is baptized, and given back to the arms of the God-mother, the same child, but now regenerate, born again, a member of Christ, a child of God, and an inheritor of the Kingdom of Heaven.

A child on the threshold of life's awakening is brought to the Bishop to be Confirmed. Apostolic hands are laid upon the head. The seven-fold gifts of the Holy Ghost are bestowed. The child returns to the nave, the same child, but now filled with the strength of the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

A penitent kneels confessing sins, the absolution and the grace of the Sacrament of Penance are received, the person returns to the nave to give thanks, the same person, but cleansed from all sin by the Blood of Jesus Christ.

A communicant kneels at the Communion rail, trusting not in personal righteousness, but in God's manifold and great mercies. The Blessed Sacrament is received. The person returns to the nave to give thanks, the same person, but now with a body made clean by His Body, a soul washed through His Most Precious Blood, incorporate in the mystical Body of Christ.

All the while this person is going on living through all the experiences, each one of which makes a chapter in this particular person's book of life. The years bring changes, very gradual, but changes. This miracle of change is not a swift one. It doth not yet appear. Then, a few last things, a passing from probation to purgation, then the perfecting, then the command, "draw out now." The miracle is complete. The soul is changed.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY, 1938.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Gospel for today carries us into the midst of Our Lord's works and miracles which are the signs of His power and the evidences of His mercy. He is cleansing a leper and healing a man sick of the palsy and grievously tormented. The leper is separated from friends. The man sick of the palsy has a devoted friend. Both are beyond human power to give relief.

The leper can pray. The friend can intercede. Both are assured in their minds of the power of Our Lord. Both lack assurance of the mercy and love of Our Lord. The leper prays, "Lord, if thou wilt." The centurion prays, "Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed." The leper and the centurion made acts of faith in the power of Our Lord. They both hesitated before trusting themselves to His mercy and love. It was not faithlessness exactly; it was the haunting sense of personal unworthiness that held them back.

Our Lord discerned the secrets of their hearts. He recognized their faith. He discerned their humility. He knew what was in their hearts. He cleansed the leper. He healed the centurion's servant. He is the friend of the friendless and the hope of the humble, always and forever.

There is a study in prayer contained in this Gospel, well worth study and remembrance. It leads us straight to the root of the matter. It explains the one difficulty in prayer known at first hand to all of us at one time or another.

Take the leper as the example of a person oppressed by the sense of loneliness in prayer. Who has not experienced it in some degree. The leper's loneliness is far beyond anything one can imagine. The leper was absolutely alone, separated from everyone he loved and depended upon, and worse than separated; he was avoided even by those who were aching to help him and were not allowed to approach him.

His lot is changed today. Men have been moved and guided and enabled to help him. He owes it to the love of God manifested in the miracle recorded in the Gospel for the day, that after centuries he is a patient in a hospital and not an outcast in a desert place. The human mind has been dull to understand and the human heart slow to transmit the Divine love and wisdom and power which flowed so freely through the mind and will and heart of the Incarnate Son of God.

The times have changed, but it is Divine love that has brought about the change. My point is this. The power of the prayer of a lonely person is beyond measure and reckoning. It goes out and on and aids the confraternity of the lonely everywhere. We have only to change the pronoun from the singular to the plural, from I to we, and our prayer ceases to be lonely so far as human companionship is to be considered.

Take the centurion as the example of a person oppressed by the sense of unworthiness in prayer. Surely we know what this means. We know what it means to pray out of a contrite as well as a broken heart. "I do not deserve this favor, how can I ask for it without presumptuousness?" We must not mistake a remorseful, proud heart for a contrite and humble one. True contrition is always accompanied by faith; true humility always inspires hope.

We must banish the thought of trust in our own righteousness for the efficacy of our prayers. "A broken and a contrite heart thou wilt not despise," should be our ejaculation. The centurion teaches us the lesson. He knows and confesses his unworthiness. He has faith in the love and mercy of Our Lord. He relies solely on that. He is not disappointed. So we, whatever may be our sense of unworthiness, and we ought never to be without it, address our prayers through the merits and mediation of Our Lord. Our Lord knows the sorrows, and the capacity for suffering, of the unworthy. His ears are open unto their prayers. Humility and faith are pleasing to Him. The least worthy of us may appeal to Him with confidence so long as the confidence is not in ourselves but in Him. He will hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto Him.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

J. Vernon

Offertory. The right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence; the right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass; I shall not die but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

Motet

Tschaikowsky

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord: praise it, O ye servants of the Lord. Alleluia.

O praise Him. Praised be the Lord out of Zion! Praised be the Lord, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Alleluia.

O commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. Alleluia.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Darke in F

Communio. They all wondered at the gracious words: which proceeded out of his mouth.

Gloria in Excelsis

Anthem (Evening Cantata)

Percy W. Whitlock

Round me falls the night;
Saviour, be my Light:
Through the hours in darkness shrouded
Let me see thy face unclouded;
Let thy glory shine
In this heart of mine

In thine arms I rest me,
Foes who would molest me
Cannot reach me here.
O may my soul on thee repose
And may sweet sleep my eyelids close.

Earthly work is done,
Earthly sounds are none;
Rest in sleep and silence seeking;
Let me hear thee softly speaking;
In my spirit's ear
Whisper, I am near.

Blessed heavenly Light,
Shining through earth's night;
Voice, that oft of love hast told me;
Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me:
Thou thy watch wilt keep,
Saviour, o'er my sleep.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only that makest me dwell in safety. Amen.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Gospel for today gives to us a parable; the parable of the Tares. Saint Matthew's Gospel gives us seven of Our Lord's parables: the Sower, the Tares, the Mustard Seed, the Leaven, the Hidden Treasure, the Pearl, the Net.

A parable is a narrative based upon a fact in the natural world, designed to illustrate and impress a spiritual lesson. The commentators tell us that Our Lord did not begin to make use of parables until opposition to His teaching began. The parables were used for a double purpose; to reveal doctrine to those who were receptive and to conceal it from those who were unreceptive. "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

Tares are weeds that look so much like wheat that they cannot be distinguished from wheat until the time of ripening when they are discovered to be fruitless.

The wheat represents true religion. The tares represent false religion. Our Lord is the sower of the seeds of true religion. The devil is the sower of the seeds of false religion. The lesson of the parable is that every manifestation of religion must be subjected to the closest scrutiny and tested by its results in character. "By their fruits ye shall know them." We cannot judge ourselves by appearances but only by results.

The Epistle for today gives a list of tests of true religion. These tests may be applied to each one of our devotional practices. Each practice may be dear to us by inclination, desire and habit. This is all as it should be providing that we are seeking to cultivate something more than pleasurable habits of devotion. We must be sincere in our attachments to habits of prayer, of the use of the Sacraments, of worship. The test of our sincerity will be made by self-examination. The questions to be asked in self-examination are: "What is the result of my devotional practices? Is the result a heart of compassion, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering, forbearance, a disposition to forgive? Am I growing in charity? Unless I have set my mind, my will, my heart, with all my strength to the cultivation of charity, persevering through failures, I may be a nominal Christian, but I am not a real one. There are more tares than wheat in me.

The Church is a kind mother of penitents. She is always that. We love to see her in the majesty and beauty which is her right as the Bride of Christ. We love to see her as the King's daughter all glorious within; vested in her clothing of wrought gold. We love the splendor of her sanctuary, in which her King is enthroned. We love the stately ceremonies of her Liturgy. But often in the midst of some festal procession; with crucifix, censers, torches, banners and vestures of cloth of gold, our minds turn with gratitude to the humble refuge which she has provided for her penitents.

We are thrilled by the Hosannas and Alleluias, but we love best and most lastingly the language of penitence which she has taught us for intimate use when she has laid aside her magnificence, and has come to us as a gentle mother, in simple attire to her not very good, and often very bad, children, to annoint and cheer soiled faces with the abundance of the grace bestowed ever since the first Pentecost.

The Hosannas are piercing. The Alleluias are glorious. But the language that makes us feel most at home is penitential. "We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we, from time to time, most grievously have committed." We trust her absolutions. We give thanks for the Spiritual Food with which we are fed at her Altars. We are consoled by the confidence of a certain faith and the comfort of a reasonable, religious and holy hope, that at harvest time there may be found in us wheat to be gathered into God's barn.

Hymn 4 Christ, Whose Glory fills the Skies

Werner's Choralbuch, 1815

Introit. The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me: and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis)

Everett Tilcomb

Gradual. The Lord will be a refuge in the time of trouble; and they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not always be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. V. O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint. V. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it? V. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

Anthem (Hymn of Praise)

Mendelssohn

The sorrows of death had closed all around me, and hell's dark terrors had got hold upon me, with trouble and deep heaviness. But, said the Lord, Come, arise from the dead, and awake, thou that sleepest, I bring thee salvation.

We called through the darkness, Watchman, will the night soon pass? The Watchman only said: Though the morning will come, the night will come also; Ask ye, enquire ye, return again, ask; Watchman, will the night soon pass?

The night is departing, the day is approaching. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us gird on the armour of light. The day is approaching, the night is departing.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

Today is the Third Sunday before Lent. The Church bids us to prepare ourselves for due observance of the great penitential season. Lent is a penitential season. The emphasis throughout the Forty Days is on repentance. There is a definite requirement for "such a measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion."

But the acts and exercises of devotion are penitential. We are to use every known and prescribed means for the cultivation of true repentance. Prayer, a regulated measure of abstinence, alms giving, are means to an end. The end is the change of mind, and the surrender of the will, which is the substance of repentance. It is not necessary and generally inadvisable that this change should be accompanied by extraordinary emotional activity. The Church enjoins self-discipline, self-control as the better way. This means discipline and control of the emotions in order that there may be no distractions nor disturbances likely to interfere with the interior quietness so necessary for a sound judgment and a steady will.

This is the meaning and purpose of repentance. We must remind ourselves at this point, if we need to be reminded, that repentance is a gift of God. We must obtain it from God. The sorrow of repentance is Godly sorrow. It comes from God. It leads back to God. It leaves the person who has received and followed it in the possession and power of the mind of Christ. It establishes the persevering penitent under the absolute ownership and the uncontrolled power of God. It develops faith.

Remorse, or biting natural sorrow, while it may serve for its moment, is a morbid, and if persisted in, a deadly, thing. It is not Godly. It leads directly away, and as far as possible from God. It leaves its victims imprisoned in walls of its own making. It develops despair. There is no need of enlarging upon it. Its tragedies are of daily occurrence.

Repentance is the only refuge from remorse. But are either necessary? The only thing left as a third choice is indifference. But indifference will not do. It does not satisfy. It does not last. Always there is the certainty of a rude awakening. It is bound to come. When it does come the choice must be made between repentance and remorse. Repentance will mean life. Remorse will mean death.

Lent brings us the good news of repentance and life. It ushers in the spring-time of souls. It lets in the light and heat and power of the love of God upon the soul. It bathes the heart in the Godly sorrow that quickens repentance, reveals the reality of forgiveness and illumines the former night with the light of the dawn of a new day. It was well named "dear Feast of Lent." So it is for repentant sinners the world over.

Lent opens and closes doors and sets the sinner free for the great adventure of penitence. It leads first of all to the desert where the Saviour submitted Himself to be tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin. In His victory the battling penitent sees the pledge of his own. "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that you are able: but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

For the first four weeks the practises of self-discipline train the Christian to enter upon the rigors of the Passion. The lesson of the flesh subdued to the spirit, which was the lesson of the Desert, will have seasoned the soul for the lesson of the Passion. For one week, Passion Week, the Christian will meditate as best he can upon the Saviour's sufferings as each day brings him nearer to Holy Week. Before that week arrives, he will do well to look squarely at his own sufferings and to let the mind that was in Christ Jesus be in him. Whatever his cross may be, he will take it up and follow on. The Passion of Our Lord will teach him how to triumph over pain. Pain remains. But what of that? If one knows how to conquer it.

Then Lent will have prepared the Christian for the climax of the Cross. He will climb Calvary, embrace the Cross, unite himself with the Lamb of God who taketh away the sins of the world, who taketh away his own sins.

Then he will wait for the third day. On that day he will see his last enemy, death, destroyed.

Affectionately in Our Lord.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

On this Sunday, the second before Lent, the Gospel for the day gives to us the parable of the sower for preparatory instruction and meditation. Our Lord is the sower who goes out to sow His seed, the word of God, concerning the mystery of redemption. Our hearts are the ground upon which the seed falls. The natural qualities of the soils illustrate the varieties of human hearts upon which the seeds of the teaching of Lent will seek root; and at the same time offer explanations of failure or success in bearing fruit.

The lesson of the parable is that we are responsible for laborious and careful preparation of our hearts before we enter Lent. The Church will serve as Our Lord's agency for the sowing. The seed will be the teaching which will be the same for all. He that hath ears to hear will hear. The Church will teach. If we fail to hear, the responsibility will be ours. The Church never fails.

It is well to have this clearly understood by those within and by those outside the Church. It will save the timid who ought to know better, and the doubting who have never known, from the suspicion or the accusation that the Church fails to reach the modern person. The Church never fails. The Church has never failed. The Church has reached the primitive, the mediaeval and the modern person.

Whenever a primitive or a mediaeval or a modern person has failed to reach the Church, the failure is their own failure. The Church never fails. In every age her seed has borne fruit. It is bearing fruit today. Thousands beyond count will be reached by the Church in this Lent of 1938. Thousands beyond count will fail to reach the Church. The fault will be their own.

This does not mean that the Church is unmindful or unconcerned. On the contrary, the Church is observant, and understanding, and patient. The Church carefully guards the faithful and persistently seeks the faithless. The Church knows the faithless better than the faithless know themselves; better than the worldly wise know them. The Church long, long ago diagnosed their spiritual condition. Through age-long practise the Church acquired the technique of dealing with all sorts and conditions of men.

In the beginning the Church was given perfect understanding of all things. Nothing is new to the Church. Nothing surprises the Church. The Church has known every possible variety of human beings. The Church has full knowledge of the limitation and frailty and inconsistency of human nature. The Church knows all the temptations and the sins and the passions and the regrets of those whom she seeks to save. The Church knows the longings and the aspirations and the potential good in each and every human being. The Church not only sees each as he is; the Church sees each as he is capable of becoming.

The Church is more solicitous for the one that repents than for the righteous (2) who need (?) no repentance. The Church has a laboratory and a clinic for every kind of spiritual sickness and moral disease. The Church has the inexhaustible store of the seed of the Word of God. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but that Word shall not pass away.

We are all of us, Christians and non-Christians, on trial every Lent as the Cross shines forth in mystic ray. No one of us will be given a test beyond our capacity. But each of us will be given a test accurately measured within our capacity. That test will be the standard of an honest and good heart. Some undoubtedly will go farther than others, but all of us can submit ourselves and can pray, "Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart; prove me and examine my thoughts. Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me; and lead me in the way of everlasting."

Whatever we are, Christian or non-Christian, human honesty allows no exemptions from this test. The honest, humble and brave man who submits himself to it, whatever wickedness he may find in himself, may in confidence address to God the prayer, "Lead me in the way everlasting."

Lent presents a course of self-testing which can hardly be rejected. If it is accepted in good faith and intention, the spiritual ground will be good. To each and every man will be given an honest and good heart to lay at the foot of the Cross as a tribute to the Crucified Saviour.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

On this Sunday next before Lent, the Collect teaches us to pray for the most excellent gift of Charity, the very bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before God.

The Epistle gives a catalogue of splendid gifts, tongues of men and angels, gifts of prophecy, understanding of mysteries and all knowledge; faith, philanthropy, and even submission to martyrdom; only to end by saying that without charity the possessor of any one or all of these outward signs is nothing, and profits nothing, unless Charity is the inward reality within the outward sign. We have the parable of the tares and the wheat over again.

Saint Paul lists the qualities in Charity. "Charity suffereth long, and is kind;
Charity envieth not; Charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up; doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil; rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things." Saint Paul declares that prophecy shall fail, tongues shall cease, knowledge shall vanish away. Faith, Hope, Charity are the abiding virtues: But the greatest of these is Charity.

Charity is more than a natural benevolence. It is a spiritual gift. Since it is not to be found in our natural selves, we are to seek it in God. So the Collect teaches us to pray, "Send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of Charity."

Charity was one of the virtues given to us in Baptism. It was strengthened and confirmed in us in Confirmation. It is nourished and increased in Holy Communion. It is exercised and developed by habitual acts.

The exercise of Charity, by which we seek stability in this virtue, meets active resistance and constant opposition in our natural selves. Therefore we are constrained to self-discipline in order that we bring the rebellious natural instincts into subjection to supernatural law. Self-discipline is never purposelessly negative. It is always directed toward a definite end. It rejects the lower in order that it may attain the higher. It restrains the less worthy in order that it may release the more worthy. It imposes a service in order that it may win a freedom.

This is the distinctive characteristic of Christian asceticism. It leads one to lose his life in order to find it. Its principle applies to every department of life.
Every attainment worth having is won at the cost of self-denial, self-discipline, self-sacrifice.

Growth in Charity then is the purpose of the "measure of abstinence as is more especially suited to extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion," prescribed by the Church for Lent. Whatever the individual rule, determined by the Church's general requirement, may be, the cultivation of devotion is the motive.
Devotion means the giving of self to God and to those for whose well-being we are responsible. That self-giving is the love that fulfils the law of Charity.

Lent will lead us on to the Hill of the supreme self-giving of Our Lord, who made there (by His one oblation of Himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world.

Lent devotion will not make us self-centred. On the contrary it will take us out of ourselves. It will arouse us to contrition. It will stir us to look unto Jesus the Author and finisher of our faith. It will move us to make use of all the means of grace to be found in the Church.

The extraordinary acts and exercises of devotion will serve to raise the standard of the ordinary acts and exercises throughout the rest of the year.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 123 Forty days and forty nights Martin Herbst: 1676

Introit. He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him; I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

Kyrie Eleison (Deus Genitor Alme) Mode IV

Gradual. He shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.
V. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Tract. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night.

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Credo I Mode IV, 6th century

Offertory. He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Hymn 126 Christian! dost thou see them John B. Dykes, 1868

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Modes V and VIII

Communio. Whoso drinketh of the water that I shall give him, saith the Lord: it shall be in him a well of water springing up into life eternal.

Ave Verum (English Hymnal, 311) Proper Melody, Rouen version

Hail, true Body, born of Mary,
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth;
Thou who truly hangedst weary
On the Cross for sons of earth;

Thou whose sacred side was riven,
Whence the Water flowed and Blood,
O may'st thou, dear Lord, be given
At death's hour to be my food:

O most kind! O gracious One!
O sweetest Jesu, holy Mary's Son! Amen.

Antiphon. O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Fugue in F minor Bach

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 119, (vss. 1-32) Tones III-4, VII-7

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Orlando Gibbons in A flat

Motet (for two choirs) Johann Cristoph Bach, 1642-1703

I wrestle and pray, till blessed by Thee.

Thou art my God, Almighty Lord
I know by thy unchanging word,
Thine is a Father's heart;
Yet I though dust for comfort flee,
And find it while I cleave to Thee.

O Jesu, Son of God, I raise
My voice to Thee in hymns of praise,
For thy redeeming grace;
Increase my faith, and strengthen me,
That I may pray and cleave to Thee.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mode VIII, faux bourdon by V. Horia

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Collect for the first Sunday in Lent teaches us that it was for our sakes that Our Lord fasted forty days and forty nights. For our sakes Our Lord offered His sinless Body for discipline so severe as to exhaust natural strength. For our sakes Our Lord offered Himself for temptation so intense that when it was ended angels were sent to minister to Him.

What we cannot do by ourselves in nature He has made possible for us to do in grace. He has made it possible for us to subdue the flesh to the spirit that we may obey godly motions in righteousness, and true holiness, to His honour and glory. The meaning of this is explained in the Eighth Chapter of Saint Paul's Epistle to the Romans. The final encouragement for us is given in the twelfth verse. "Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh."

What seemed to be a hard counsel of discipline leads out into a declaration of independence. "If ye through the spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear, but ye have received the spirit of adoption whereby we cry, Abba, Father. For as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sons of God." This is the victory won for us by Our Lord in the desert.

His victory won for us must be won in us. His victory was for us men and for our salvation. He has given us the power to work out our own salvation with fear and trembling. With fear and trembling when we remember our weakness. In quietness and confidence when we remember His power. "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that which ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

Saint James introduces the idea of joy in temptation. "My brethren, count it all joy when you fall in with, come across, divers temptations, trials; knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire wanting nothing."

In the beginning of Lent we see how Our Lord prepared for the battle of life by a three-fold victory over temptation. In the power of that victory He went out to His public ministry. In the joy of that victory He worked.

In the last two weeks of Lent we shall see how He "for the joy that was set before Him endured the Cross, despising the shame." From the desert to Calvary the joy of victory was set before Him, all the way. He knew what being sorrowful unto death meant. He knew what agonies of prayer meant. He knew the pressure that can wring from the heart the cry, "My God, why hast thou forsaken me." But back of even that cry, was the sense of victory which would at the last find expression in the calm, confident affirmation, "It is finished."

This is the temper and tone which is the true expression of the Christian's attitude toward temptation. The Christian is not surprised, or shocked, or dismayed by the spiritual and moral disorders which he finds in the world. He knows that they are not new. He knows that they have all been encountered and conquered by Christians in other ages. He knows that what Christians have done in every age, he must do in his own. He knows the varieties of counsels of despair which wordlings have set forth in other ages, as they are setting them forth in his own.

They do not seem to him to be new, and brilliant and daring; but old and stupid and sordid. He knows that there is only one philosophy of life that will last. That philosophy is the Christian philosophy. He knows that there is only one way of life. That way is the Christian Way.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Epistle for this Second Sunday in Lent gives us two assurances. The first is that God hath called us, and this means every one of us, unto holiness. The second is that God hath given unto us His Holy Spirit.

What does the word holiness mean? It means the state of being consecrated to God, that is set apart for God, dedicated to God. "Ye are not your own," says Saint Paul, "ye are bought with a price." From the moment of Baptism we ceased to be our own. We were delivered over to the absolute ownership of Him who bought us at the price of His own blood. Our lives were given over to the uncontrolled power of our Owner. The sign of the Cross on our foreheads is the token of our Lord's ownership of our souls and bodies.

To be holy is to be wholly for God. "It doth not yet appear what we shall be." All that appears to us is our imperfection. But our imperfections do not terminate God's ownership. We are His in spite of them.

We shall not always be imperfect. "We know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him." Who will make us like Him? The Holy Spirit. "God, hath given unto us His Holy Spirit." We may remind ourselves of the question and answer in the Office of Instruction. What do we mean when we say in the Creed that we believe the Church is Holy? We mean that the Church is Holy because the Holy Spirit dwells in the Church, and sanctifies—makes holy—its members.

After Baptism we were brought to the Bishop to be Confirmed by Him. The Bishop prayed for us. "Almighty and everliving God, who hast vouchsafed to regenerate these thy servants by Water and the Holy Ghost, and hast given unto them forgiveness of all their sins; strengthen them, we beseech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghost, the Comforter (the Strengthener) and daily increase in them thy manifold gifts of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness; and fill them, O Lord, with the spirit of thy holy fear, now and ever." Then laid he his hands upon us, and we received the Holy Ghost.

These gifts of the Holy Ghost, assisted by the grace given to us in Holy Communion, in which we receive the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ, are to daily increase in us more and more, that they may yield in us the fruits of the spirit; love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance. In the continual practise of penitence the Holy Spirit gives us sufficient light to discern whatever in us is hindering the development of the gifts, and in absolution God of His great mercy removes the hindrances of the sins which by our frailty we have committed, which we humbly confess, with a firm purpose of forsaking, with a steadfast faith in God's promises, and in the power which He has left in His Church, by giving power and commandment to His Ministers, to declare and pronounce to His people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins. This power to pronounce Absolution is also the gift of the Holy Ghost.

At Ordination the Bishop shall lay hands severally upon the Head of every one that receiveth the Order of Priesthood, the Receivers humbly kneeling, and the Bishop saying, "Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands. Whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven, and whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained. And be thou a faithful Dispenser of the Word of God, and of His holy Sacraments; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

Once more we may turn to the Offices of Instruction, to recall a question and answer concerning the Holy Ghost. "What do you chiefly learn in these Articles of your Belief? Thirdly (I learn to believe) in God the Holy Ghost, who sanctifieth me, and all the people of God."

God hath called us unto holiness, and hath given unto us His Holy Spirit.

Hymn 124 Lord, when we bend before thy throne

Christopher Tye, 1553

Introit. Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord, for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, and in misery.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Messa Davidica)

Lorenzo Perosi

Gradual. Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. V. Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hands of their masters. V. And as the eyes of a maiden: unto the hand of her mistress. V. Even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God: until he have mercy upon us. V. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: have mercy upon us.

Hymn 393 Lord Jesus, think on me

Samuel Howard, 1762

Credo I

Mode IV, 6th century

Offertory. The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb; moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Hymn 232 How Sweet the Name of Jesus sounds

A. R. Reinagle, 1836

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Perosi

Communio. The sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee.

Adoro te (English Hymnal, 331) Proper melody, Solesmes version

Thee we adore, O hidden Saviour, thee,
Who in thy Sacrament art pleased to be;
Both flesh and spirit in thy presence fail,
Yet here thy Presence we devoutly hail.

O blest Memorial of our dying Lord,
Who living Bread to men doth here afford!

O may our souls for ever feed on thee,
And thou, O Christ, for ever precious be. Amen.

Antiphon. O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Chorale: Jesu, my beloved Saviour, by thy death thou dost me save,
Out of darkness and destruction, from the terror of the grave,
By thy might the victory gaineth, and thy truth to us revealeth,
In thy Holy, Blessed Word: Be thou still our help, O Lord.

Aria-Duetto: We hasten with feeble, but diligent, footsteps, O Jesu, O Master, for help unto thee! Thou tenderly seekest the sick and the erring.
Ah, hear us! We lift up our voices, for succour we pray thee!
Vouchsafe unto us the light of thy countenance.

Chorale: Lord, thy Word have I believed, let despair affright me not.
Grant that strength may be received, when to death my soul is brought;
In thy goodness all confiding, in thy mercy still abiding,
Lord, protect me by thy grace, till I meet thee, face to face.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Gospel for this Third Sunday in Lent teaches that an empty heart invites disaster. "Jesus was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake."

There is no record of what he said at the time. What he may have said later on would depend upon what things he had kept in his heart to ponder over. He must have heard what Our Lord said. "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house, whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first." If he surrendered his heart to Our Lord, then and there, he escaped the sevenfold disaster of the empty heart.

The lesson for us is clear enough. It teaches the way of progress in the spiritual life. In the spiritual life there are three steps, purgation, illumination and union. These steps are called the Ways. To all is given the opportunity, the means, and the capacity for advance in some measure, greater or lesser, but sufficient for each.

The Purgative Way is the first degree. This way penitents know well. It is the way most of us know best. It is filled with unforgettable experiences. The awakening to the sense of sin. The inrush of sorrow. The desire for reparation, expiation and release. The humiliation of confession. The relief of absolution. The joy of the sense of forgiveness. The peace that passes understanding. All this fills the heart of the penitent. But the penitent does not stop there. He cannot. He must go on.

Temptations do not end with Absolution. It is a common experience that they return with sevenfold fury. The tempted penitent must plunge into the active campaign of the prayer life. A new chapter in life begins. In the prayer life the penitent begins to know himself as he never did before. Better than that he begins to know God as he never did before. Prayers which once were formal become vital. Prayers which once were languid become fervent. Faith which once was dim becomes illumined. The spiritual life which once was negligible becomes imperative.

The penitent finds himself at the early dawn of a new day, drinking in the light which is slowly but surely shining more and more and making his world, which once was dark, a place of light. This does not mean that there will be no more clouds. Clouds will return. Darkness will threaten. But if the penitent remembers the lessons of purgation he will have instant recourse to penance, and so keep his interior peace until the light returns. In the endurance of temporary darkness he will regain the lost light. But the penitent must not stop here. He cannot. He must go on.

He knows the way on. From the beginning of the Way of purgation he has learned and experienced the Sacramental life. He has found and kept the way of union with Our Lord. He has visited Him in the tribunal of mercy. He has learned that Our Lord has left power in His Church to forgive his sins because Our Lord has never left His Church.

After each absolution the penitent has gone straight to the Altar. "I will go unto the Altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness." "We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink His blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by His body, and our souls washed through His most precious blood, that we may evermore dwell in Him, and He in us." The penitent lives in Holy Communion.

The Saints know more and have made more of the three mystic ways than we. But this far we can go. It is enough for us. Our hearts are filled

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

This Fourth Sunday in Lent marks Mid-Lent. It is called Refreshment Sunday. The Gospel for the day records the miraculous feeding of the five thousand. This is the note of refreshment. The Epistle ends with, "So then brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free." Here we have the note of freedom. The Collect is a prayer for comfort. These are the encouragements sent to us, to inspire us with perseverance. Refreshment, freedom, comfort are welcome words for meditation.

Refreshment. A great multitude had followed Our Lord up into a mountain. Our Lord had taken His disciples with Him, seeking retirement and rest. But the multitude had followed Him because they saw His miracles which He did on them that were diseased. "When Jesus then lifted up His eyes and saw a great company come unto Him, He saith unto Philip, whence shall we buy bread that they may eat? And this He said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do." We know what He did. He fed them miraculously.

As we read the whole chapter, the Sixth of Saint John, we see that the miracle served as a preparation for the instruction on the living bread. "I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

Our minds turn from the scene on the mountain to the familiar scene of a modern church. We recall the picture of the Altar, and the people kneeling before it. We have our place in this company. Like the ancient multitude we moderns have our longings. But we know what the ancients did not know. We know about the super-substantial bread, the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of our Saviour Jesus Christ. We have found out for ourselves the miraculous refreshment which Our Lord gives in Holy Communion to all who travail and are heavy laden. As we remember the years since our first Communion, we may make a long list of refreshments for which we most heartily thank Our Lord.

Freedom. We know something about freedom also. We have fought our battles for freedom in many a fierce temptation. We have become well convinced that "we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

We have wondered often in a puzzled, confused, frightened state of mind, how and why the pressures brought upon us were so relentless. How much has been due to heredity? Is environment inescapable? Is temperament unconquerable? Must we really be bond servants? Is there anywhere an obtainable freedom, at some price, at any price? It may be that most of you, or many of you, have never been driven to this extremity. But believe me there are many, more perhaps that you know, who have been driven as far. To them, wherever they are, the Epistle for this day rings out the battle cry of freedom. "Brethren we are not the children of the bondwoman, but of the free." The glorious liberty of the children of God is ours. That liberty was bought upon a hill called Calvary.

Comfort. We have learned the meaning of this word. How long did it take to learn that comfort does not mean minimizing tribulations but the giving of strength to bear them? A long time perhaps. So long that we may say that it has taken a life time.

The tribulations referred to in the Collect are the tribulations of penitents. The penitent has begun to lament his sins worthily and to acknowledge his wretchedness, when he acknowledges that he deserves to be punished. He has begun to have the faith which is the complement of repentance, when he turns to God and prays for strength to make use of all tribulations as means of expiation and reparation.

It is at this point that he is mercifully relieved. With strength through grace he is enabled to suffer the loss of all things, that he may win Christ. He has become a joyful penitent. He has found refreshment, freedom and comfort.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

Hymn 338 (Part I) Now, my tongue, the mystery telling
Sarum Plainsong, Mode III

Introit. Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.

Ps. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Kyrie Eleison - - Emilio Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual. Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. V. It is the Lord that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt deliver me from the wicked man.

Tract. Many a time have they fought against me: from my youth up. V. May Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. V. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers ploughed upon my back. V. And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

Hymn 154 When I survey the wondrous Cross E. Miller, 1790

Credo III - - - Mode V, de Angelis

Offertory. I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart: O do well unto thy servant that I may live, and keep thy word: quicken thou me according to thy word, O Lord.

Hymn 138 When wounded sore the stricken soul Cologne, 1741

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Emilio Cavaliere

ST. MARK'S, PHILADELPHIA.

THE FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT. PASSION SUNDAY, 1938.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"By His own blood He entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

This is the proclamation of Passion Sunday. Our Saviour has obtained for us what we cannot obtain for ourselves. His Passion is the price paid for our eternal redemption. The price paid indicates the value of the gift. We begin today to consider the Passion and to meditate upon the meaning of redemption.

The Passion reveals the significance and the destructiveness of sin. Sin is disobedience to the laws of God ordained by Him for man's preservation, protection and development. This disobedience results in alienation, darkness and death. It inflicts wounds which cause the loss of spiritual discernment; unregulated animal appetites: distaste for moral goodness: moral weakness which enslaves, enfeebles and perverts the will: incapacitates the soul for right relations with God and man; prevents the soul from attaining the virtues by which it might accomplish the purpose for which it was created: deprives the soul of the capacity for enjoying life in this world and the next: imprisons the soul so securely that it cannot of its own strength escape: plunges the soul into final despair: leaves it in loneliness, a prey to pains of sense and pains of loss.

So terrible is the misery caused by sin, so helpless is man in his enthrallment, so great is the love of God for man, that God came down from heaven to save man from his lost condition and to restore him to his lost heritage. "God so loved the world, that He gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." "This is a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and He is the Propitiation for our sins."

"For us men, and for our salvation, the only-begotten Son of God came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man: And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate: He suffered and was buried; and the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven." By His suffering and death upon the Cross for our redemption, He made there (by His one oblation of Himself once offered) a full, perfect and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world.

By the merits and death of Jesus Christ, and through faith in His blood, we may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of His passion. So has the ghastly tragedy of man's sin been averted by the glorious triumph of the Cross and Passion.

The Christian religion is the religion of redemption. The Christian Gospel brings the good news to sinners. The Christian penitential discipline offers the service which is perfect freedom. The Christian Sacraments convey the medicine which cures the disease which is beyond human power to cure. The doors of the Church are the only doors in the world upon which is found the inscription,
"him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." The Church is the home of penitents.

To each penitent Our Lord gives the way for bringing forth the works of repentance mete for each. To each penitent He gives the relieving grace which makes expiation and reparation possible and acceptable. To each penitent He gives the yoke which is easy, and the burden which is light. Each penitent knows and sorrows for his sins. Each penitent knows and is trustful in the Passion of the Saviour. Each penitent steadfastly believes in the greatest mystery in the world—the forgiveness of sins.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

Hymns in { 143 All glory, laud and honor Teschner, c. 1613
Procession { 145 Ride on! ride on in majesty Hamburg, 1690

Introit. O Lord, remove not thy succour afar from me: have respect to my defence, and hear me: deliver me from the mouth of the lion: yea, from the horns of the unicorn hast thou regarded my cry.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me: and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) - Everett Tilcomb

Gradual. Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. V. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone: my treadings had well-nigh slipped. V. And why, I was grieved at the wicked: I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract. My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? And art so far from my health: and from the words of my complaint?

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest

And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

Our fathers hoped in thee, and were holpen: they put their trust in thee and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm, and no man: a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying:

He trusted in God, that he would deliver him: let him deliver him if he will have him.

They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast also heard me from among the horns of the unicorn.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob.

They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness.

Unto people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

Credo III - - - Mode V, de Angelis

Offertory. Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man: neither found I any to comfort me; they gave me gall to eat, and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in { 172 Jesus Christ is risen today Lyra Davidica, 1708
Procession { 178 At the Lamb's high feast we sing Hintze, 1678

Introit. I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia: thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in E minor) - Anton Bruckner

Gradual. This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will be joyful and glad in it. V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth forever, Alleluia. Christ our Passover: is sacrificed for us.

Sequence. Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth: Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father.

Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: the Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring?

'The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection: bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting.

Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.'

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.

Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

Credo - - - Anton Bruckner

Offertory. The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

Hymn 173 The strife is o'er - adapted from Palestrina

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Anton Bruckner

Communio. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluia: therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis - - Anton Bruckner

Antiphon. To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name. Alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Toccata in F (Symphony V) - Widor

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - West in G

Hymn 171 The Day of Resurrection Berthold Tours, 1875

Motet - - - Makarov

An Angel said to Mary, full of grace: Hail, O Virgin most pure, rejoice, Thy Son is risen from the tomb on the third day as He said, and all the dead are risen through Him.

All peoples of the earth, rejoice; new Jerusalem, receive the light, for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee: chant songs of joy, O Sion. And thou, O Mary, most pure mother of God, rejoice in the resurrection of thy Son.

Praise our Redeemer, our Lord. Amen.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The facts of Easter are that on the third day after the burial of Our Lord, He rose from the dead. The sealed stone which had secured the tomb was taken away. The body was not there.

Very early in the morning Mary Magdalene, and Mary the Mother of James, and Salome brought sweet spices, that they might anoint Him. But He was not there. The women ran to tell Saint Peter and Saint John and said, they have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid Him. Saint Peter and Saint John ran together to the sepulchre. Saint John outran Saint Peter, and came first to the sepulchre. He stooped down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in. Saint Peter followed, and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linen clothes lying, and the napkin that was about His head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

Then Saint John, who came first to the sepulchre, went in, and he saw, and believed. The Body was not there. The two disciples returned to their home.

Mary Magdalene remained. Our Lord appeared to her, and called her by name. She knew Him and cried, Rabboni, my Master.

Early in the afternoon two disciples were walking to a village called Emmaus. Our Lord accosted them and walked and talked with them. When they drew near to the village, they constrained Him to remain for supper. While they were at supper, He took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him.

That same afternoon Our Lord appeared to Saint Peter. That evening the eleven were gathered together, and them that were with them, and Our Lord came and stood in the midst of them, and said unto them, Peace be unto you. The disciples were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And He said unto them, Why are ye troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

And when he had thus spoken, He showed them His hands and His feet. The disciples were overcome with joy and wonder. Then Our Lord said, Have ye any meat? And they gave Him a piece of broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And He took it and did eat before them.

This is the record of the first Easter Day. This is the record which has been read on every Easter Day ever since. This is the record which is read today from the Altars of the Church.

The reading of the record is solemnly impressive. But there is more than the reading of a record of Resurrection on Easter Day. There is the joy of the multitude. Easter joy runs like an electric current around the world. The joy needs to be explained. To find the explanation one must follow the crowd to the Altars of the Church. Since very early in the morning multitudes have eagerly hastened to kneel at the altars which gird the world like a jewelled cincture, and meekly kneeling on their knees, with outstretched arms, they have received a sacred Gift.

What is the Gift? Ask any one of the servants of those Altars, What did you say to each of those kneeling people, when you gave them something? The answer will be, The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. The Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Ask, By whose authority do you do this? The answer will be, The Lord who this day rose from the dead said, Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

Ask, Do you believe that He will raise up their bodies and yours at the last day? The answer will be, Yes.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

Hymn 175 Christ the Lord is risen today arr. by Wilkes, 1861

Introit. As new-born babes, alleluia: desire ye the sincere milk of the world, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our helper: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Dvorak in D

Alleluia. And after eight days, when the doors were shut: stood Jesus in the midst of his disciples, and said, Peace be unto you. Alleluia. The Angel of the Lord descended from heaven: and came and rolled away the stone, and sat upon it. Alleluia.

Credo - - - Dvorak in D

Offertory. The earth trembled, and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

Anthem - Melchior Vulpius, 1609; arr. by Ley

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor's triumph won:
O let the song of praise be sung,
Hallelujah!

Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed,
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst,
Hallelujah!

On the third morn He rose again,
Glorious in majesty to reign:
O let us swell the joyful strain,
Hallelujah!

Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to Thee,
Hallelujah! Amen.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 220) Jeremiah Clark, 1670-1707

The Saint who first found grace to pen
The Life which was the Life of men,
And shed abroad the Gospel's ray,
His fame we celebrate today.

O holy mind, for wisdom fit
Wherein that Life of lives stood writ,
May we through minds of like accord
Show forth the pattern of our Lord.

Lo, drawn by Pentecostal fire,
His heart conceived its great desire,
When pure of mine, inspired, he heard
And with his hand set forth the Word.

And so may all whose minds are dark
Be led to truth by good Saint Mark,
And after this our earthly strife
Stand written in the Book of Life.

Then, clearly writ the Godhead shone
Serene and fair to look upon;
And through that record still comes power
To lighten souls in death's dark hour.

Praise God who made the world so fair,
And sent his Son our Saviour there,
And by his Holy Spirit wist
To teach the first Evangelist. Amen.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"Almighty Father, who hast given thine only Son to die for our sins, and to rise again for our justification."

What does this mean? What are we to have in mind when we say the Collect for this First Sunday after Easter? What does "Rise again for our justification" mean?

We chiefly are bound to praise God in Eastertide for the glorious Resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord, who by His death hath destroyed death, and by His rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life. The Collect today reminds us that we are also to praise God because Jesus Christ Our Lord is the Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world.

Our Saviour died for our sins. He rose again for our justification. The Resurrection of Our Lord demonstrates the triumph of His crucifixion. It demonstrates the completeness of His atonement. It establishes the faith by which we affirm our belief in the forgiveness of sin. He who died for our sins rose again for our justification.

The forgiveness of sins and the Resurrection of the Body are the fruits of Good Friday and Easter. We must keep this in mind. Forgiveness blots out the sins of the old life. The Resurrection bestows the power for the putting away of the leaven of malice and wickedness, and for the service of God in pure-ness of living and truth.

The risen life is the forgiven life. "Know ye not," wrote Saint Paul, "that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death?
Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into His death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we should walk in newness of life."

This newness of life is strikingly evident in the disciples on that first Easter
Day. The former things had passed away. All things were made new. Each had become a new creature in Christ Jesus. Each accepted the newness without question or hesitancy. No one looked back with troubled anxiety. There was neither mention by Our Lord, nor reference by the disciples, concerning the failures and weaknesses and sins of the past. All that had dropped away. They gladly perceived in themselves the fruit of redemption. They walked in newness of life in the power of the Resurrection. We shall see that the newness was permanent.

They went from strength to strength. And when the time came that Our Lord was parted from them, and carried up into heaven, they worshipped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy: and were continually in the temple praising God.

And so they continued. They witnessed, they worked, they suffered, they thankfully accepted martyrdom, rejoicing that they might lay down their lives for Him who loved them and gave His life for them. There had been weakness in the past, but out of that weakness they had been made strong. Because of the witness of the glorious company of the Apostles and the noble army of martyrs, the holy Church throughout the world acknowledges the Risen Lord today.

This is the meaning of the joy of Easter. It is a continuing joy. We must hold it and keep it steadfastly. The everlasting life is our possession. The sins of the past we must leave to the merits of the redeeming death of Our Lord on the Cross. The leaven of malice and wickedness of the present must be put away in the power of the risen life. The future must be met with quiet confidence in the knowledge that whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world; and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

In Lent we were engaged in deepening our penitence. In Eastertide we are engaged in deepening our faith. It is faith that makes penitence fruitful. By faith sorrow is turned into joy. Joy is the offering to be made in Eastertide.
The Risen Lord is the God of our joy and gladness. As it was for the first disciples so it must be for us in our lesser and more lowly vocations. Every vocation is a great and high vocation because it is the calling of God. We must keep our Eastertide by walking in newness of life.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Collect for the Second Sunday after Easter takes us to the heart of Eastertide devotion.

Each Season of the Christian Year lays special emphasis upon one truth of the Christian faith and upon one special intention of Christian devotion. The truth emphasized today is that God has given His only Son to be a sacrifice for sin, and also an ensample of godly life. The special devotional intention is a thankful reception of the inestimable benefit of Our Lord's sacrifice, and a daily endeavor to follow the blessed steps of His most holy life.

Eastertide is not a season for relaxation. It is the season for intensive practise of the faith and devotion which we have learned, beginning with the Manger; pausing for the present at the Station of the Resurrection, with the prospect of progress toward the Ascension, Pentecost and the Festival of the Most Holy Trinity. The Christian year offers a graded course in Christian Faith and Practise. There are no slack seasons in the course.

We have in mind today the words of the Catechism, "A lively faith in God's mercy through Christ, with a thankful remembrance of His death." We have in mind the Eucharistic petition that we may be "made one body with Him, that He may dwell in us, and we in Him."

We are naturally thinking of the disciples who followed the blessed steps of Our Lord through the forty days after the Resurrection. They saw Our Lord. They beheld His risen Body. They heard His words. Because they saw they believed. One of the things they heard Our Lord say was, "Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." This is the Easter beatitude which is ours. This is what we have in mind when we wish each other a blessed Easter.

The disciples, after all, only had forty days of visible companionship with Our Lord. He had told them that it was expedient for them that He go away; for if He went not away, the Comforter would not come unto them: but if He departed, He would send Him unto them. He told His disciples that when the Spirit of truth came, that He would guide them into all truth: for He would show them things to come. The disciples relied upon that promise so unreservedly, that when they watched Our Lord being parted from them, and carried up into Heaven, they were able to worship Him, with great joy, and to continue praising and blessing God.

After that those first disciples lived under precisely the same spiritual conditions as we. From the Ascension on they and all Christians have lived in union with the Risen Lord in faith through the power of the Holy Ghost. They and we have continued steadfastly in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

In the Creeds we continue in the Apostles' doctrine. In the Orders of Ministry in Christ's Church we continue in the Apostles' fellowship. In the Holy Communion we have continued in Breaking of Bread. In the Liturgy of the Church we have continued in the Prayers. In the seasonal Communion we are made one with Our Lord in His Mysteries. We are made one with Him in Bethlehem, in Nazareth, in Jerusalem, in the Passion, in the Death, in the Resurrection, in the Ascension, in His heavenly High Priesthood.

The Church gives the gift of this Holy Communion to each one of us individually, and makes for us all together a blessed Communion and fellowship divine. We are not divided, all one Body we, for all are one in Him, for all are His. We all are filled with the Risen Life of Our Lord. We all carry Him enshrined in our souls. It is no longer we who live, but Christ who liveth in us. We are no less with Him and in Him than were those first disciples.

The one, great devotion of the Forty Days of Easter is really the one, great devotion of the whole year; devotion to Christ the life of the soul. This is the meaning of the Christian Life. It means that Our Lord lives in us, and with us, and through us, in the daily life which each of us lives, wherever we live.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 339 Let all mortal flesh keep silence French Folksong

Introit. O be joyful in God, all ye lands, alleluia; sing praises unto the honour of his Name, alleluia: make his praise to be exceeding glorious, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Say unto God, O how wonderful art thou in thy works, O Lord: through the greatness of thy power. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Henschel in D

Alleluia. V. A little while, and ye shall not see me, saith the Lord Jesus: and again, a little while and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. Alleluia. V. But I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice: and your joy no man taketh from you. Alleluia.

Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care Louis Bourgeois, 1551

Credo Henschel in D

Offertory. Praise the Lord, O my soul; while I live will I praise the Lord: yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God, alleluia.

Anthem Samuel Sebastian Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you who are kept by the power of God; through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; Pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God; for all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth forever. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Henschel in D

Communion. A little while, and ye shall not see me, alleluia: and again, a little while and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Henschel in D

Antiphon. To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name. Alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude in B minor J. S. Bach

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 123, 124, 125 Tones II-1, VII-7, VIII-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Stanford in A

Hymn 464 The Church's One Foundation S. S. Wesley, 1864

Anthem (from 'The Mount of Olives') Beethoven

Hallelujah! Hallelujah unto God's Almighty Son. Praise the Lord, ye bright angelic choirs, in holy songs of joy.

Man, proclaim his grace and glory. Praise the Lord in songs of joy.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mode VIII, faux bourdon by Vittoria

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. Then said some of His disciples among themselves, what is this that He saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: And, Because I go to the Father?"

The disciples' question was soon to be answered. During the Great Forty Days they saw Him with bodily sight. After Pentecost they saw Him with spiritual sight. The spiritual sight was more perfect than the bodily sight. The new vision manifested then the many things which they could not bear before. The Holy Ghost would teach them all things, and bring all things to their remembrance, whatsoever He had said unto them.

The Holy Ghost would guide them into all truth. They would see the fulfilment of the promise, "I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you." The world would see Him no more; but they would see Him. He would love them, and would manifest Himself to them. He told them all this before it came to pass, that when it came to pass, they might believe.

It has all been told to us. We ourselves have seen it come to pass. We also believe. We also believe in Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever. We also know that He has not left us comfortless. We also know that He comes to us. We also know how He comes to us. We also have the strengthening knowledge that He never leaves us, nor forsakes. We also know that He is with us always. Our joy in His risen life is our life in Him. Because we have seen the Lord we also are glad at Easter. We also are His disciples.

The teaching of the Church, the sacramental ministry of the Church, the worship of the Church, become very simple when once we understand that everything that we hear, receive, and practise is provided to make and keep us disciples. In the Collect we pray, "Grant unto all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's Religion, that they may avoid those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ."

A disciple is a learner, a follower, a pupil. "Learn of me," Our Lord said, "for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Yes, we have to learn how to be meek. First we have to learn what the word means. A commentator on the word wrote, "The words are a prophecy that meekness will prove a greater power in the world than pride."

This was a revolutionary doctrine. Judaism meant pride of race and privilege; Rabbinism pride of learning; Roman imperialism, pride of power; Greek culture either pride of intellect or pride of external magnificence. All agreed that the meek man was a poor creature, and the wordly man thinks so still."

As a matter of fact only a very strong man can be meek. A weak man can only make an unconvincing counterfeit. Strength is obtained at a great price. The price is unsparing self-discipline. That requires strength to begin with. It requires strength to continue under humiliating failures. The deepening of humility, plus self-control, plus sympathy, is what is meant by meekness.

Our Lord is the example. Our Lord is the only Person who can teach us. Meekness is only one of the lessons we have to learn. But it is one of the first. I only mention it because Our Lord did and because it is the business of the disciple to learn lessons, and because we must all make Eastertide a purposeful season by deepening our discipleship.

I think that we, who make Lent resolutions, should make Eastertide resolutions. The first disciples became resolute disciples in that first Eastertide. So must we. Whatever our resolution may be, it will be directed toward definite discipleship.

THE FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER, 1938.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

The Collect for this Fourth Sunday after Easter is a prayer for stability. It is a Collect which is not only suitable for the season of Eastertide, but for any and all seasons. It is a Collect which teaches us how to pray for the very virtue which we recognize as a pressing necessity in the days in which we are living.

The complaint most frequently expressed concerning the present time is the prevailing instability. The conscious lack of stability is the cause of general uncertainty and anxiety. What is going to happen next? We hear the question asked on all sides. We hear it concerning affairs of Church and State. At times the tone indicates a state of mind not far from panic.

Panic is always an unreasoning state of excessive fear. Unless it is brought under control it spreads and becomes a general alarm which results in hasty action which may easily be disastrous. In time of instability the safe guides and leaders are the men and women who have discovered the secret of stability and the means by which it is kept.

Stability, like any other admirable quality, must be slowly and sometimes painfully acquired by self-discipline. It must be cultivated carefully. It may be, and is, allied with the cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, temperance and fortitude. But these virtues need to be increased by the theological virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity. The natural must be nourished by the supernatural. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."

The Collect for the day is a prayer for stability. It is addressed to the Father of lights, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. It teaches us how to pray, and what to ask. It teaches us the technique of the practise of stability.

We are taught first a lesson in penitence and humility. We are taught to recognize the fact that our natural wills and affections are unruly and beyond our natural power to control. Experience has taught us that over and over again. If experience has made us penitent and humble, there is every reason for hope for the acquirement of stability, and any other virtue for that matter. Once we have come to the point where we realize that only Almighty God can control our unruly wills and affections, then we begin to pray that God, who can rule them, will rule. This ruling demands from us a complete surrender of all our affections and all our wills. There must be no reservations.

We are bidden to pray first that we may be given the grace to love the thing that God commands, and to desire that which God promises. It is this love and desire which will afford evidence of conversion.

Here are the steps by which we reach the conversion. First, we must make our surrender in Holy Communion. "Here we offer and present ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto thee." The more agitated we are at the time, the more effective will be the surrender.

Second, we must practise the prayer of quiet. In times of interior storms, we must train ourselves to kneel, to be still, and silent, until the storm is overpast. It is possible. And it never fails to bring peace, if we persevere. Both practises must become fixed habits.

This is what will happen. We shall find that among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts will surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

Anthem

Philip James

I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient time,
And now, as then, thy mercies hold
Their hope of grace divine.

Thy voice was in the thunder,
The waters were afraid;
Yet in my day of trouble
I called on thee for aid!

I have remembered my song at night,
Communing with my heart,
And know thy love is still my right,
Nor ever will depart.

Who is so great a God as the Lord!
His law shall rule us aye.
He answers our each prayer outpoured,
Our guidance and our stay. Amen.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are Rogation Days, days of solemn supplication for fruitful seasons. Special prayers are prescribed for use on each of these days, and the Sunday preceding. The Church pauses to pray for a blessing upon the earth for our temporal necessities, before Ascension Day, when, having offered the Easter prayers, devotions are concentrated upon the Ascension of the Risen Lord into Heaven.

On Ascension Day the Church will resume prayers for our spiritual necessities, that we may in heart and mind thither ascend, and with Him, continually dwell. There is a very tender note in this pause. It is true to history also. The last thing Our Lord did before He was carried up into heaven was to lift up His hands and bless His disciples and the world.

On the Rogation Days the Church prays for the continuance of His blessing and that it may rest upon the face of the earth that the land may give increase for our physical sustenance. Our Lord was and is always mindful of our bodily needs. His Church never forgets that we are human. The Sacraments of the Church minister to our bodies as well as to our souls.

We know that Our Lord is our High Priest in heaven, who ever liveth to make intercession for us. There is need of remembrance that Our Lord ever liveth to make intercession for us on earth in His Church. The activities of the Church are many and her calls to serve are imperative. But whatever the activities are, the supreme work of the Church is to voice on earth the intercessions of the Head of the Church in heaven. His will for intercession must be done on earth as it is in heaven.

The Church, His house on earth, is the house of prayer. To those who are called to the ministry of the Church God gives diversities of gifts. There are differences of administrations, and diversities of operations. All these God divides to every man severally as He wills. Upon all alike and all together God lays the responsibility of the ministry of prayer. This ministry is a corporate ministry, because it is the ministry of the Church.

The Ministers in Christ's Church, whether they be Bishops, Priests or Deacons, are bound to exercise this ministry within the powers of their Order. They are bound to be diligent in their private prayers. Their private prayers are their preparation for the public office as intercessors in the corporate prayer life of the Church. In this they are functioning, not as individuals, but as representatives of the Church.

As representatives of the Church they are responsible for the regular maintenance of the Church's prayers, as the Church orders and sets forth. As intercessors for the people they are bound to provide for the people constant opportunity to avail themselves of the benefit and comfort of the Church's life of intercession.

The rule of public prayer is clearly prescribed in the Book of Common Prayer. The letter of the law may be questioned, but the spirit is beyond question. It cannot fail to be evident. "The Collect, Epistle and Gospel, appointed for the Sunday, shall serve all the week after, where it is not in this Book otherwise ordered."

What meaning can this rubric convey other than that it is the mind of the Church to provide for the continual and daily remembrance of the sacrifice of the death of Christ?

The Order for Daily, Morning and Evening Prayer indicates by the use of the word daily, that it is the mind of the Church to provide for the daily recitation of these Offices, in such place and manner as will make the recitation public, that is accessible to the people.

It is not required that the people attend on days which are not days of obligation. But the people are entitled to be able to rest assured that the Church prays for them without ceasing. They may always entrust names and needs to be remembered at the Altar, and they may be sure that their petitions will be daily presented to the Great High Priest.

Affectionately in Our Lord,

Notices

In an effort to help "Save the Cuts" which it will be necessary to make in the several fields due to the deficit of $47,000 in the pledges of the Dioceses to the National Council, the women of the parish are being asked to offer prayers on the Ember Days of June 8th, 10th and 11th, and to make some special sacrifice. The result of that sacrifice—the "Save the Cuts" Offering of each one of us—is to be presented at a Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary Service, held at St. Luke's Church, Germantown, Wednesday evening, June 22nd, at 8 P. M.

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or Sister Helen.

Hymn in Procession

W. H. Monk

Hail the day that sees Him rise,
To His throne above the skies;
Christ, the Lamb for sinners given,
Enters now the highest heaven.
Alleluia!

See! He lifts his hands above;
See! He shows the prints of love;
Hark! His gracious lips bestow
Blessings on His Church below.
Alleluia!

There for Him high triumph waits;
Lift your heads, eternal gates;
He hath conquered death and sin;
Take the King of Glory in.
Alleluia!

Still for us He intercedes,
His prevailing death He pleads,
Near Himself prepares our place,
He the first-fruits of our race.
Alleluia!

Lo! the heaven its Lord receives,
Yet He loves the earth He leaves;
Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.
Alleluia!

Lord, though parted from our sight
Far above the starry height,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Seeking Thee above the skies.
Alleluia!

Hymn 186 Lift up your heads

William Knapp, 1738

Introit. Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? alleluia: in like manner as ye have seen him going up into heaven, so shall he come again, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O clap your hands together, all ye people: O sing unto God with the voice of melody. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Quinti toni)

Hymn in Procession (English Hymnal, 158) Este's Psalter, 1592

When God of old came down from heaven, And as on Israel's awe-struck ear
In power and wrath he came; The voice exceeding loud,
Before his feet the clouds were riven, The trump, that Angels quake to hear,
Half darkness and half flame. Thrilled from the deep dark cloud;

But when he came the second time, So, when the Spirit of our God
He came in power and love; Came down his flock to find,
Softer than gale at morning prime A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
Hovered his holy Dove. A rushing mighty wind.

The fires that rushed on Sinai down It fills the Church of God; it fills
In sudden torrent dread, The sinful world around;
Now gently light, a glorious crown. Only in stubborn hearts and wills
On every sainted head. No place for it is found.

Come, Lord, come Wisdom, Love and Power,
Open our ears to hear;
Let us not miss the accepted hour;
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

Hymn 197 Spirit of mercy, truth and love Samuel Webbe, 1782

Introit. The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia: and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia,

Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Licinio Refice, 1931

Alleluia. O send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. Alleluia. V. The Holy Spirit, proceeding from the throne, came down in unseen majesty: as on this day, upon the Twelve, purifying their inmost hearts.

God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise. He stood and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, and the perpetual hills did bow.

And lighten with celestial fire;	The dullness of our blinded sight:
Thou the anointing Spirit art,	Anoint and cheer our soiled face,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.	With the abundance of thy grace;
Thy blessed unction from above	Keep far our foes; give peace at home;
Is comfort, life and fire of love!	Where thou art Guide, no ill can come!

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And thee of Both to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song;
Praise to the Father, and the Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One.

Office Hours

The Rector's Office Hours are daily, except Saturdays, from 10 to 11 A. M.
Sister Helen's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays and Saturdays, from 11.45 A. M. to 12.30 P. M.

Notices

On Monday and Tuesday of this week there will be a third Mass at 9.30 A. M.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days.

If you have not sent in your contribution to the Summer Appeal, we shall be very glad to receive it at your early convenience in order to help us plan accordingly.

The Evening Session of the Woman's Auxiliary will hold its last meeting of the Season on Monday Evening, June 6th, at 8 P. M. in the Parish Parlor.

In an effort to help "Save the Cuts" which it will be necessary to make in the several fields due to the deficit of $47,000 in the pledges of the Dioceses to the National Council, the women of the parish are asked to offer prayers on the Ember
Days of June 8th, 10th and 11th, and to make some special sacrifice. The result of that sacrifice—the "Save the Cuts" Offering of each one of us—is to be presented at a Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary Service, held at St. Luke's Church, Germantown, Wednesday evening, June 22nd, at 8 P. M.

The Convocation of South Philadelphia will have a Garden Party and Food Sale at Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Church, near Second and Swanson Streets, on Thursday, June 16th, from 3 to 9 P. M. An attractive array of cooked foods is being prepared and will be sold at very low prices. Admission is 10 cents and the proceeds are to be given to the Transfiguration Chapel.
Each Parish is asked for its hearty cooperation.

Envelopes for those who do not already have them will be found on the table at the door and can be left at the office of the Parochial Secretary.

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or Sister Helen.

ST. MARK'S, PHILADELPHIA.

WHITSUNDAY, 1938.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"When the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the spirit gave them utterance."

So the promise of our Lord was fulfilled. "I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may abide with you forever." The descent of the Holy Ghost at Pentecost is an historical fact recorded in the Scripture. The Church bears witness to the fulfillment of the second part of Our Lord's promise that the Holy Ghost abides in the Church and in Christians.

In the Creed we affirm "I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord, and giver of Life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son; Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified; Who spake by the Prophets."

In the Collect for the day we pray, "O God, who at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit:
Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort."

In the Preface, we give thanks "Through Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; giving them boldness with fervent zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the clear knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ."

At Baptism the Church prays, "Give thy Holy Spirit to this child, That he may be born again, sanctify him with the Holy Ghost." At Confirmation the Church prays, "Strengthen them, we beseech thee, O Lord, with the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, and daily increase in them thy manifold gifts of grace: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and ghostly strength, the spirit of knowledge and true godliness; and fill them, O Lord, with the spirit of thy holy fear, now and forever."

In the Ordaining of Priests the Bishop says at the laying on of Hands,
"Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands." In the Consecration of Bishops, the Bishops say, at the laying on of Hands, "Receive the Holy Ghost for the Office and Work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the Imposition of our hands; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

So Our Lord fulfils His promise that the Holy Ghost abides with us forever.
"Know ye not," says St. Paul, "that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Personal devotion to the Holy Ghost is the secret of the Christian's fidelity, serenity, stability and strength. Devotion is the consecration, dedication, giving up of oneself to unreserved obedience and service to God. Such devotion is defined and pledged in the Christian vow made at Baptism. "Wilt thou then obediently keep God's holy will and commandments, and walk in the same all the days of thy life?" To this question, the Christian answers, or his Godfathers and Godmothers answer for him, "I will by God's help."

In Holy Communion the Christian offers and presents to God, himself, his soul and body, to be a reasonable and living sacrifice. In prayer the Christian humbly beseeches the Heavenly Father that he may be assisted with grace to continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as God has prepared for him to walk in. The Collect for Whitsunday may profitably be made a daily prayer.

ST. MARK'S, PHILADELPHIA.

TRINITY SUNDAY, 1938.

MY DEAR PEOPLE:

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment."

We know God by loving Him. Love is the path which leads to the knowledge of God. This is the law of all relationships. As love continues the understanding deepens. When the love has matured the understanding becomes perfect. There never can be perfect understanding except through perfect love.

The Church prepares us for Trinity Sunday by beginning with Advent. The first lesson in the Mystery of the Holy Trinity is, "God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." The first lesson is the love of God the Father.

On Christmas Day we learned the second lesson. We were taught to praise God "because thou didst give Jesus Christ, thine only Son, to be born as at this time for us; Who by the operation of the Holy Ghost, was made very man, of the substance of the Virgin Mary His Mother; and that without spot of sin, to make us clean from all sin." At the Manger we praised Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

On Easter Day we learned the third lesson. We were taught to praise God "for the glorious Resurrection of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord: for He is the very Paschal Lamb, which was offered for us, and hath taken away the sin of the world; Who by His death hath destroyed death, and by His rising to life again hath restored to us everlasting life."

On Ascension Day we learned the fourth lesson. We were taught to praise God "through thy most dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord; Who after His most glorious Resurrection, manifestly appeared to all His Apostles, and in their sight ascended up into heaven, to prepare a place for us; that where He is, thither we might also ascend, and reign with Him in glory."

On Whitsunday we learned the fifth lesson. We were taught to praise God "Through Jesus Christ our Lord; according to whose most true promise, the Holy Ghost came down as at this time from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them, and to lead them into all truth; giving them boldness with fervent zeal constantly to preach the Gospel unto all nations; whereby we have been brought out of darkness and error into the clear light and true knowledge of thee, and of thy Son Jesus Christ."

We were taught to live with God in these seasons by prayer, penitential preparation, self-discipline, and by feeding upon the Eucharistic Food, in our hearts, by faith with thanksgiving. We wrote our spiritual history. We measured our spiritual progress. It was all so intensely real. As our love grew our knowledge grew. We were helped to see the hand of God shaping our lives. By personal experience we learned the love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost.

On Trinity Sunday we learn the sixth lesson. We praise God with all our mind as well as with all our heart "who with thine only begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, art one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in unity of substance. For that which we believe of thy glory, O Father, the same we believe of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, without any difference of inequality."

A master theologian has written, "it is more important to love the Blessed Trinity than to understand it." If we love now, the understanding will come with the Beatific Vision.

Hymn 328 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts - Mode I

Introit. He fed them also with the finest wheat flour, alleluia: and with honey from the rock hath he satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our helper; make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual. The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thy hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia. My Flesh is meat indeed, and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

Sequence - - - Mechlin Vespérale, Mode IV

Laud, O Syon, thy salvation, Laud with hymns of exultation Christ, thy King and Shepherd true. Bring him all the praise thou knowest, He is more than thou bestowest, Never canst thou reach his due.	Here beneath these signs are hidden Priceless things, to sense forbidden; Signs, not things, are all we see; Blood is poured, and Flesh is broken, Yet in either wondrous token Christ entire we know to be.

Full and clear ring out thy chanting, Joy, nor sweetest grace be wanting, From thy heart let praises burst; For today the Feast is holden When the institution olden Of that supper was rehearsed.	Whoso of this Food partaketh, Rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh, Christ is whole to all that taste; Thousands are, as one, receivers, One, as thousands of believers, Eats of him who cannot waste.

Credo - - - Harold Darke in F

Offertory. The priests of the Lord do offer the offerings of the Lord, made by fire and the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the Name of their God, alleluia.

Motet - - - Bortniansky

How great in Sion thou art praised, no mortal tongue, O Lord, can tell. Above the sky thy Throne is raised, all of earth's creatures laud thee well. O Lord, thy greatness everywhere reigneth, all things thy heavenly might ordaineth.

The lamb of gold upon thine Altar showeth to us thine effigy. We sing to thee with lyre and psalter, Incense and myrrh we bring to thee. Borne in the clouds from censers burning, riseth to thee our heart's deep yearning.

The sun's bright rays to us thou leadest, thy love is like a father's love. The hungry ones with manna feedest, callest us to thy realms above. The sinner fears thy visitation, but to the blessed comes salvation.

O God, unto thy heavenly dwelling send we our voices e'er anew. Our hearts' deep yearning ever telling, flow forth our tears like morning dew. An Altar in our hearts we raise thee, ever, O Lord, we sing and praise thee.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Darke in F

Communio. As often as ye do eat of this bread, and drink this cup: ye do show the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore, whosoever shall eat of this Bread, and drink of this Cup of the Lord unworthily: shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis - - - Darke in F

Antiphon. O how sweet is thy spirit, O Lord, who that thou mightest shew forth thy sweetness unto thy children, feedest them with the most sweet Bread from Heaven.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 89 To the Name of our salvation Caspar Ett, 1840

Introit. The Lord was my refuge and my upholder; and he brought me forth into a place of liberty: he delivered me because he delighted in me.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord my strength: the Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) Everett Titcomb

Gradual. When I was in trouble I called upon the Lord: and he heard me. V. Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

Alleluia. God is a righteous Judge, strong and patient: and God is provoked every day. Alleluia.

Hymn 232 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds
A. R. Reinagle, 1836

Credo III - - - - Mode V

Offertory. Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

Motet - - - - Palestrina
Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, even so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Titcomb

Communio. I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord Most Highest.

Gloria in Excelsis - - - - Titcomb

Antiphon. O how sweet is thy spirit, O Lord, who that thou mightest shew forth thy sweetness unto thy children, feedest them with the most sweet Bread from Heaven.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude in G - - - - Bach

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 10 - - - - Tone VIII 2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII with faux bourdons by Healey Willan

Hymn 316 Jesus, the very thought of thee J. B. Dykes, 1866

Motet - - - - Everett Titcomb

My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer, saith the Lord: in it every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mode VIII, faux bourdon by Vittoria

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three:
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness

Organ—Antiphon: 'He remembering his mercy' Dupre

Father Hopkin will be on duty in August.

The Clergy House telephone number is Pennypacker 5195.

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy.

~~WEDNESDAY~~
Tuesday will be Saint Peter's Day. There will be a third Mass at 9.30 A. M.

At the Presentation Service of the "Save the Cuts" Envelopes on Wednesday Evening, June 22nd, the total Offering amounted to approximately $2,000.00, St. Mark's Parish having contributed $261.00 of this amount.

The Foreign Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese has again asked St. Mark's to join in the effort to obtain a "Mile of Pennies." 200 Envelopes for this purpose are with the parish secretaries. These envelopes can be placed in the offertory or left at 1625 Locust Street. The proceeds will help the parish with its missionary quota.

The Supply Department of the Woman's Auxiliary closed its season with some bills for "readymade articles" still unpaid. Over 150 pairs of blankets were sent to missions, 90 pairs going to All Saints School for Boys, Bontoc, P. I. The cost of sending one blanket is $3.50, and we will be very grateful for any contributions to cover this item. Checks should be drawn to the "Supply Department" and sent to 202 S. 19th Street.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 425 For the beauty of the earth Gounod, 1872

Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

Be merciful unto me, O Lord, for I will call daily upon thee: for thou, Lord, art good and gracious; and of great mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

Ps. Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and hear me: for I am poor and in misery. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. V. When the Lord shall build up Syon: and when his glory shall appear.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VI

V. Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in the Lord: he is their helper, and defender.

Hymn 257 Sing, my soul, His wondrous Love Dykes, 1862

Credo - - - - - Harold Darke in F

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Look down, O Lord, to help me; let them be ashamed and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it: look down, O Lord, to help me.

Anthem - - - - - Johannes Brahms

How lovely is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. O blest are they that dwell within thy house; they praise thy Name evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Darke in F

Communio - - - - - Tone I

O Lord, I will make mention of thy righteousness only; thou, God, hast taught me from my youth up until now: forsake me not, O God, in my old age, when I am gray-headed.

Gloria in Excelsis - - - - - Darke in F

Antiphon - - - - - Tone V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude in E flat - - - - - J. S. Bach

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 12, 13, 14 - Tones IV-9, III-4, VII-4

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (English Hymnal, 241) - Joachim Neander, 1640-80

Thee, O Christ, the Father's splendour,
Life and virtue of the heart,
In the presence of the Angels
Sing we now with tuneful art,
Meetly in alternate chorus
Bearing our responsive part.

By whose watchful care repelling—
King of everlasting grace—
Every ghostly adversary,
All things evil, all things base,
Grant us of thine only goodness
In thy Paradise a place.

Thus we praise with veneration
All the armies of the sky;
Chiefly him, the warrior Primate,
Of celestial chivalry,
Michael, who in princely virtue
Cast Abaddon from on high.

Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever Three, and ever One,
Consubstantial, co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

Anthem (150th Psalm) - - - - - Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness.
Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.
Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet: Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments. Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals. Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath Praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

Devotions

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven Goss, 1869

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Righteous art thou, O Lord, and true is thy judgment: O deal well with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

Blessed is the people whose God is the Lord; and blessed are the folk that he hath chosen to him to be his inheritance. V. By the Word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VI

V. The right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass: the right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence.

Hymn 463 One sole Baptismal sign Goss, 1853

Credo IV - - - - - Mode I

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

I, Daniel, prayed unto the Lord my God, and said: Hear, O our God, the prayer of thy servant. Cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary: and behold, O God, this thy people, who are called by thy Name.

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy Praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin, is Lord, but thou, O Son of God! Thy Word is now our sovereign law. Therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the perfect day on us for evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Titcomb

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it: all ye that are round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared. He shall refrain the spirit of princes: and is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

Gloria in Excelsis - - - - - Titcomb

Antiphon - - - - - Tone V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 47, 48 - - - Tones VII-6, I-7

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (English Hymnal, 51) - Angers Church Melody

O blest Creator of the Light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright,
And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all;
Lest, sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife,
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve, and named them day:
Night comes with all its darkling fears;
The light from chaos first of all;
But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain;
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.
Regard thy people's prayers and tears.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - George C. Martin

Hail, gladdening Light, of his pure glory poured
Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,
Holist of Holies, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine,
We hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung,
With undefiled tongue, Son of our God, Give of Life, Alone!
Therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own.

Hymn 264 Ye holy Angels bright - Darwall, 1770

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Give peace, O Lord, to them that wait for thee, and let thy propheta be found faithful: regard the prayers of thy servant, and of thy people Israel.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Lovelock in A minor

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VI

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty.

Hymn 465 We love the place, O God Jenner, 1861

Credo - - - - - Lovelock

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Moses consecrated an altar unto the Lord, offering burnt offerings upon it, and sacrificing peace offerings: and he made an evening sacrifice for a sweet-smelling savour unto the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel.

Anthem - - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you who are kept by the power of God; through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God; for all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Lovelock

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Bring presents, and come into his courts: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - Lovelock

Antiphon

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 82, 83 - - - - - Tones VIII-2, VII-1.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourbons by J. S. Bach

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) - - - - - Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day,
Thou drivest darksome night away!
We know thee as the Light of Light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us tonight from danger free;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay:
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake;
Be thy right hand upheld above
Thy servants resting in thy love.

All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Josef Haydn

Distracted with care and anguish,
When hearts despairing languish,
Madly they seek for comfort
Where it doth ne'er abide.

For us no rest remaineth,
If earth our love retaineth,
And heaven we cast aside.

Relief he only gaineth
And peace at last attaineth,
Whom God vouchsafes to guide.

Hymn 328 Jesus, Thou Joy of loving hearts Mode I

Introit - - - - Tone III

I am the salvation of the people, saith the Lord: in whatsoever tribulation they shall cry unto me, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.

Ps. Hear my law, O my people: incline your ears unto the words of my mouth. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancto Albano) - Healey Willan

Gradual - - - - Tone V

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight: O Lord, as the incense. V. And let the lifting up of my hands: be an evening sacrifice.

Alleluia - - - - Tone VI

V. They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Syon: he who dwelleth in Jerusalem may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever.

Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care Louis Bourgeois, 1551

Credo - - - - Willan

Offertory - - - - Tone II

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me, O Lord: thou shalt stretch forth thy right hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

Anthem - - - - Tschaikowsky

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord; praise it, all ye servants of the Lord. Alleluia.

O praise Him. Praised be the Lord out of Zion! Praised be the Lord, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Alleluia.

O commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. Alleluia.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Willan

Communio - - - - Tone I

Thou hast charged that we shall diligently keep thy commandments: O that my ways were made so direct; that I might keep thy statutes.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - Willan

Antiphon - - - - Tone V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourbons by J. S. Bach

Hymn (English Hymnal, 390) - Gotha, 1715

Firmly I believe and truly,
God is Three, and God is One;
And I next acknowledge duly
Manhood taken by the Son.

Simply to that grace and wholly
Light and life and strength belong,
And I love supremely, solely,
Him the Holy, Him the Strong.

And I trust and hope most fully
In that Manhood crucified;
And each thought and deed unruly
Do to death, as he has died.

And I hold in veneration
For the love of him alone,
Holy Church as his creation,
And her teachings as his own.

Adoration ay be given,
With and through the angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Anthem - - - - Mendelssohn

I waited for the Lord, He inclined unto me. He heard my complaint; O blest are they that hope and trust in the Lord.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 253 The God of Abraham praise Hebrew Melody, 1770

Introit - - - - - Tone II

All that thou hast done to us, O Lord, thou hast done in true judgment for we have sinned and not obeyed thy commandments; but give glory to thy Name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa da Quinti toni) - - - Di Lasso

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thy hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VI

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing, and give praise with the best member that I have.

Hymn 190 (verses 1 and 5) - - - George J. Elvey, 1868

Crown Him with many crowns, The Lamb upon his throne; Hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns All music but its own: Awake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee, And hail Him as thy matchless King Through all eternity.	Crown Him the Lord of heaven, Enthroned in worlds above; Crown Him the King, to whom is given The wondrous Name of Love. Crown Him with many crowns, As thrones before Him fall: Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns, For He is King of all. Amen.
--	---

Credo - - - - - Di Lasso

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

By the waters of Babylon, we sat down and wept: when we remembered thee, O Syon.

Anthem - - - - - Beethoven

Hallelujah! Hallelujah unto God's Almighty Son. Praise the Lord, ye bright angelic choirs, in holy songs of joy.

Man, proclaim his grace and glory. Praise the Lord in songs of joy.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Di Lasso

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Remember thy word unto thy servant, O Lord, wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust: the same is my comfort in my affliction.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Di Lasso

Antiphon - - - - - Tone V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Piece Heroique - - - Cesar Franck

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 147 - - - - - VIII-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - Walmisley in D minor

Hymn - - - - - Grenoble Church Melody

See now the Christ, in triumph high, Unfurl his standard to the sky! Ye nations, fall before his feet; The King of Kings with homage greet.	That civic state how trebly blest Where Christ bears rule, by man con- fessed; The edicts of high heaven run; And upon earth God's will be done.

The kingdoms that he claims as Lord He hath not willed by fear or sword To quell; but on the Cross raise high He would on love alone rely.	May this thy light, for which we pine, Sweet King of love, upon us shine; And all the earth, in holy peace, From thy glad praises never cease. Amen.
---	--

Anthem - - - - - Philip James

I have considered the days of old, The years of ancient time, And now, as then, thy mercies hold Their hope of grace divine.	Thy voice was in the thunder, The waters were afraid; Yet in my day of trouble I called on thee for aid!
---	---

I have remembered my song at night, Communing with my heart, And know thy love is still my right, Nor ever will depart.	Who is so great a God as the Lord! His law shall rule us aye: He answers our each prayer outpoured, Our guidance and our stay. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in { 295 For All the Saints
Procession { 299 Let saints on earth

Vaughan Williams
Day's Psalm

Introit - - - - - Tone
Let us all rejoice in the Lord, and celebrate this Festival in honour of the Saints: over whose Solemn Feast the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in honor of St. Clara) Licinio Refice, 193

Gradual - - - - - Tone

O fear the Lord, all ye Saints of his: for they that fear him lack nothing. V. But they that seek the Lord: shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

V. The Saints shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reign for ever.

Sequence - - - - - Mode 1

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Notes of praise for triumphs won.

As the Church today rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.

In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,
Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
As to God we lift our cry.

Ever praising, ever praying,
Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.

Credo - - - - - Refice Anthem

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

O God, wonderful art thou in thy holy places; even the God of Israel, he will give strength and power unto his people: blessed be God, alleluia.

Motet - - - - - Percy Whitlock

Glorious in heaven are the souls of all Saints, who walked in the way of Christ the Lord Jesus: They loved him and followed his footsteps; and as they died for the Saviour, losing life for his sake, they reign with him for ever. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Refice

Communion - - - - - Tone I

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God: and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Refice

Antiphon - - - - - Tone V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Choral (Suite 48 for All Saints) - - - - - Tournemire

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 84 - - - - - Tone III-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - - - Walmisley in D minor

Hymn 508 - - - - - Caspar Ett, 1840

Blessed City, heavenly Salem,
Vision dear of peace and love,
Who of living stones art builded
In the height of heaven above,
And, with angel-hosts encircled
As a bride doth earthward move.

Bright thy gates of pearl are shining,
They are open evermore;
And by virtue of his merits
Thither faithful souls do soar,
Who, for Christ's dear Name, in this world
Pain and tribulation bore.

From celestial realms descending,
Bridal glory round thee shed,
Meet for him whose love espoused thee,
To thy Lord shalt thou be led;
All thy streets and all thy bulwarks
Of pure gold are fashioned.

Many a blow and biting sculpture
Polished well those stones elect,
In their places now compacted
By the heavenly Architect,
Who therewith hath willed forever
That his palace should be decked.

Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever three, and ever One,
Consubstantial, Co-eternal,
While unending ages run. Amen.

Refice Anthem - - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God; through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God; for all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Solos: Walter Mann, Treble; Chas. F. Kauffeld, Bass

Notices

The Congregations of St. Michael's and St. Mary's Chapels of St. Mark's Parish have been invited to attend Evensong on Monday day, at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Frank Williamson, Jr., Vicar of St. Michael's Chapel, will preach the Sermon. It is hoped that every member of St. Mark's will be present at this Corporate Service.

There will be a meeting of St. Mark's Altar Society in the Parish Parlor on Thursday morning, November 10th, directly after the 9.30 Mass.

On Friday, Armistice Day, special intentions for peace will be offered at all the Masses, and special prayers for peace will be said at the Midday Intercessions.

The Offering on Thanksgiving Day will be for the Episcopal Hospital. The following quotation from a letter by the Board of Managers will sufficiently emphasize the importance of the Offering:

"During the past year on account of new laws passed, the cost of operating the Hospital has risen. During the same period our Dispensary has been called upon to do much more work and most of it charitable. This makes very necessary the largest possible Thanksgiving Day Offering."

At the presentation of the United Thank Offering, on Thursday, St. Mark's Parish contributed $195.00; St. Mary's Chapel, $50.00 and St. Michael's Chapel, Yeadon, $23.25. A few new names were added to the parish list, which is encouraging, but a more decided increase is hoped for.

The American Red Cross, in asking for your support of its Annual Membership Roll Call, which takes place this year between November 11 and 25, would like to call your attention to some of its work during the past year: Assisted 93,000 persons following 102 disasters in the U. S. this year. Public health nurses made 1,000,000 visits to sick. Made 518,000 garments. 4,500,000 surgical dressings, printed 352,000 pages of braille for blind readers. Assisted 300,000 service and ex-service men and their families. Operate 2,265 highway first aid stations.

Masses for the Dead will be said every Saturday in November at 7.00 and 7.45 A. M., and on all Saturdays throughout the year at 7.00 and 7.45 A. M. Vespers of the Dead will be said every Saturday afternoon in November at 5.20, after Evensong.

Individual instruction for Confirmation may be arranged for by special appointment. Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy.

Hymn 356 Fairest Lord Jesus - Silesian Folkson

Introit - - - - - Tone I

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss; O Lord, wilt thou may abide it? for there is mercy with thee, O God of Israel.

Ps. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Schubert in

Gradual - - - - - Tone

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is: brethren, to dwell together in unity. V. It is like the precious ointment upon the head: that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

V. He healeth those that are broken in heart; and bindeth up their wounds.

Hymn 235 O Love that casts out fear Henry Smart, 1881

Credo - - - - - Schubert in

Offertory - - - - - Tone I

Remember me, O Lord, King of all power: and put a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in thy sight.

Anthem (Saint Patrick's Prayer) arranged by Charles Burk

I bind unto myself this day	Christ is safety, Christ in danger,
The glory of the Trinity,	Christ beside each friend and stranger,
I humbly praise the awful Name,	Christ consoling all that love me,
The Three in One, the One in Three.	Christ be with me this day.

Christ be near me, Christ within me,	I bind unto myself this day
Christ be ever before me,	The stable earth, the deep salt sea,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,	The sweet pale moon, the sun's bright ray
Christ be with me this day.	The whirling winds, the lightning free.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Schubert in

Communio - - - - - Tone

I say unto you, there is joy among the Angels of God: over one sinner that repenteth.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Schubert in

Antiphon

Hymn 11 O Trinity of blessed light - Mode VIII

Anthem (Evening Cantata) - - - - - Percy Whitlock

Round me falls the night;	In thine arms I rest me,
Saviour, be my Light;	Foes who would molest me
Through the hours in darkness shrouded	Cannot reach me here.
Let me see thy face unclouded;	O may my soul on thee repose
Let thy glory shine	And may sweet sleep
In this heart of mine.	My eyelids close.

Earthly work is done,	Blessed, heavenly Light,
Earthly sounds are none;	Shining through earth's night;
Rest in sleep and silence seeking;	Voice, that oft of love hast told me;
Let me hear thee softly speaking;	Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me
In my spirit's ear	Thou thy watch wilt keep,
Whisper, I am near.	Saviour, o'er my sleep.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only that makest me dwell in safety. Amen.

Hymn 4 Christ, whose glory fills the skies

Werner's Choralbuch, 1813

Introit - - - - - Tone V

I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil: ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you; and will bring your captivity from all places.

Ps, Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in D) - - - George Henschel

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate us. V. We make our boast in God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VI

He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

Hymn 105 Thy kingdom come, O God! Hayne, 1863

Credo - - - - - Henschel

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Aria-Duetto: Cantata No. 78 - - - J. S. Bach

We hasten with feeble, but diligent footsteps, O Jesu, O Master, for help unto thee! Thou tenderly seekest the sick and the erring. Ah, hear us! We lift up our voices; for succour we pray thee! Vouchsafe unto us the light of thy countenance.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Henschel

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Hymn 445 O God, our help in ages past William Croft, 1708

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth: So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all nations.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 53 Hosanna to the living Lord! Dykes, 1865

Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee.
O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord; and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - Emilio Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual - - - - - Tone I

All they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord: shew me thy ways, O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

Hymn 55 Come, thou long-expected Jesus Gotha, 1715

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee.
O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Hymn 66 O come, O come, Emmanuel Mode I

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Cavaliere

Communio - - - - - Tone I

The Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

Motet - - - - - Ahle-Bach

Jesu, joyaunce of my heart,	Nought is lovelier than thou,
Blessed Jesu;	Dearest Jesu;
Bliss unto my soul thou art,	None is friendlier than thou,
Holy Jesu;	Gentlest Jesu;
Sure defence from Satan's dart,	Nor is any sweet as thou,
Sweetest Jesu;	Sweetest Jesu;
Jesu, sweetest Jesu.	Jesu, Sweetest Jesu.

Antiphon - - - - - Mode I

I am the Living Bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations; For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us; and the truth of the Lord
endureth for ever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and VI, with faux bourdons
by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 1) - - - Mode IV

Creator of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light,
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.

At whose dread name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow;
And things celestial thee shall own,
And things terrestrial, Lord, alone.

Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
Hast found the medicine, full of grace
To save and heal a ruined race.

O thou whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From every insult of the foe.

Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the Bride;
As drew the world to evening-tide;
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine:

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Laud, honour, might and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

Motet - - - - - Healey Willan

Lo, in the time appointed the Lord will come; the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands:
for the Lord God shall come into his everlasting kingdom: and upon the throne of David shall he reign for ever. Alleluia.

Devotions

Hymn 57 Lo, He comes with clouds descending

Cantus Diversi, 1751

Introit

Tone VII

O people of Sion, behold, the Lord is nigh at hand to redeem the nations and in the gladness of your heart the Lord will cause his glorious voice to be heard.

Ps. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that ledest Joseph like a sheep. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevisissima)

Claudio Casciolini

Gradual

Tone V

Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty. V. Gather thy saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

Alleluia

Tone VIII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.

Hymn 59 Lord, Thy Word abideth

Ave Hierarchia, 1567

Credo I

Mode IV

Offertory

Tone III

Wilt not thou turn again, O God, and quicken us; that thy people may rejoice in thee: shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

Hymn 58 O Word of God Incarnate

Meiningen, 1693

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Casciolini

Communio

Tone II

Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high: and behold the joy that cometh unto thee from thy God.

Motet

Bohm Bruder. 1694, harm. by Bach

Once He came in blessing;
All our ills redressing,
Came in likeness lowly,
Son of God most holy:
Bore the Cross to save us,
Hope and freedom gave us.

Still He comes within us,
Still his voice would win us,
From the sins that hurt us

Would to truth convert us,
From our foolish errors
Ere He comes in terrors.

Thus if thou hast known Him,
Not ashamed to own Him,
Nor dost love Him coldly,
But will trust Him boldly;
He will now receive thee,
Heal thee, and forgive thee.

Antiphon

Mode I

I am the Living Bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations; For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us; and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn 62

Wake, awake, for night is flying

Nicolai, 1599

Anthem

Wolfgang Mozart

Day of vengeance, day of burning,
Seer's and Sybil's word confirming,
Heaven and earth to ashes turning.

When the Judge supreme is seated,
All's disclosed that's now secreted,
Every wrong's redress completed.

Oh, how great the tribulation
When the Judge shall take his station,
Judging strictly man's probation.

Trembling at his indignation,
Where shall I make supplication!
Scarce the righteous find salvation.

Hark! the Angel trumpet sounding,
Through sepulchral realms rebounding,
See the dead the throne surrounding.

King tremendous, Judge all-seeing,
Yet by mercy sinners freeing,
Save me, great and holy Being.

Death and nature view affrighted,
Dust and spirit reunited,
Man arisen to judgment cited.

Day of mourning, day of weeping,
When from ashes rise the sleeping,
Guilty man to hear his sentence.

Then is shown the Book containing Written deeds the world arrainging,
Open guilt, and guilty feigning.

God of mercy, spare, repentance
Holy Jesu, hear, O hear our prayer,
Let the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary be at rest. Amen.

Hymn 70 The King shall come when morning dawns
William Jones, 1789

Motet - - - - - Johannes Brahms

A White Dove flew from heaven
Down to the waiting earth,
It was the Lord's fair Angel
Who prophesied Christ's birth.
'Hail, Mary Maid,'
Its message sweet and clear,
'Most blest art thou of women
And unto God most dear.'
Lord have mercy upon us!

The promised Babe
Is Christ, eternal Lord,
By all the hosts angelic,
From age to age adored.
Lord have mercy upon us!

And when our lives are ending,
The shadows closing fast,
Our hearts to thee for solace
Will turn, Lord, at the last,
From deep distress
Our prayer to thee shall rise,
In mercy, Lord, receive us,
In thy Blest Paradise.
Lord have mercy upon us!

The gates of heaven shall open,
The Lord of love shall come,
Jesus, our blest Redeemer,
To make with men his home;

Hymn 99 Hail to the Lord's Anointed Havergal, 1859

Introit Tone VII
All the earth shall worship thee, O God, and sing of thee: they shall sing praise to thy Name, O Most Highest.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name; make his praise to be glorious. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Henschel in D

Gradual Tone V
The Lord sent his Word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction. V. O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

Alleluia Tone VI
V. Praise the Lord, all ye Angels of his: praise Him, all his host.

Hymn 312 God of Mercy Henry Smart, 1866

Credo Henschel in D

Offertory Tone II
O be joyful in God, all ye lands; sing praises unto the honour of his Name: O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God; and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

Anthem Johannes Brahms
How lovely is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. O blest are they that dwell within thy house; they praise thy Name evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Henschel in D

Communio Tone I
There came a voice from heaven, saying: Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Henschel in D

Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven John Goss, 1869

Anthem (Sixth Chandos Anthem)

Handel

Solo: God's tender mercy knows no bounds,
His truth shall ne'er decay,
Then let the willing nations round
Their grateful tribute pay.

Chorus: Ye boundless realms of joy
Exalt your Maker's fame,
His praise your song employ
Above the starry frame

Your voices raise, ye Cherubim
And Seraphim, to sing his Praise,
Alleluia!

Hymn 116 Oft in danger, oft in woe Henry J. Gauntlett, 1852

Introit Tone I

Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awaken, and cast us not away for ever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise and save us, O Lord our helper and our deliverer.

Ps. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancti Josephi) Flor Peeters

Gradual Tone III

Let the nations know that thou, whose Name is Jehovah: art only the Most Highest over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.

Tract Tone VIII

Thou hast moved the land, O Lord, and divided it: heal the sores thereof for it shaketh. That they may triumph because of the truth: that thy beloved may be delivered.

Hymn 118 My soul, be on thy guard Cantica Laudis, 1850

Credo III Mode V

Offertory Tone IV

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words. Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord: thou that art the Saviour of them that put their trust in thee.

Anthem Benedetto Marcello

Give ear unto me, Lord, I beseech thee; for I have walked in thy commandments. Let me be judged with righteous judgment; O let my sentence come from thy presence.

O hold thou me up, guide me in the path of thy commandments; I am thy servant, teach me thy statutes; hold up my goings in all thy paths, so that my footsteps may not be moved.

Hymn 115 Soldiers of the Cross, arise! Pierre de Corbeil, d. 1222

Anthem Coleridge-Taylor

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept when we remembered thee, O Sion.

As for our harps, we hanged them up upon the trees that are therein; for they that led us away captive required of us a song, and melody in our heaviness. Sing us one of the songs of Sion; how shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?

If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning; if I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; yea, if I prefer not Jerusalem in my mirth. Remember the children of Edom, O Lord, in the day of Jerusalem; how they said, Down with it, even to the ground.

O daughter of Babylon, wasted with misery, yea, happy shall he be that rewardeth thee, as thou hast served us. Blessed shall he be that taketh thy children, and throweth them against the stones.

Hymn 4 Christ, Whose Glory fills the skies

Werner's Choralbuch, 1815

Introit

Tone V

The sorrows of death came about me, the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis)

Everett Titcomb

Gradual

Tone III

Thou art a refuge in due time of trouble; they that know thee will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, never failest them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract

Tone VIII

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

St. Mark's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Hospital has sent out the following notice:

We try each year to do something for the benefit of the Children's Ward. This year they are badly in need of cribs for large children ten or eleven years old who are sometimes almost as tall as an adult. These beds would be used for heart cases and would be equipped so that the head and feet could be raised by means of a crank without disturbing the patient.

If anyone who is interested will send a donation, no matter how small, it will be most gratefully received by Mrs. John A. Brown, Jr., Chairman, 224 W. Rittenhouse Square.

On Saturday, February 25th, the Lenten Retreat for Teachers and Professional Women will be held at St. Margaret's Mission House, 2028 DeLancey Street, from 3 to 8 o'clock. The Rev. Walter C. Klein, S.T.D., will be the Conductor.

On Wednesday, March 1, the Rev. J. C. Mockridge, D.D., will conduct a Retreat for the Associates of St. Margaret's. Others are also welcome. Mass is at 8 o'clock; the last Meditation at 3.15.

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or to Sister Helen.

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper parish hall at 9.30 on Sundays.

Hymn 123 Forty days and forty nights Martin Herbst, 1676

Introit Tone VIII

He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him and bring him to honour; with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual Tone II

God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. V. They shall bear thee in their hands; lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract Tone VIII

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night.

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Credo I Mode IV

Offertory Tone VIII

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Hymn 126 Christian! dost thou see them Dykes, 1868

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Mass XVII, Mode V

Communion Tone III

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Jacques Clement, 16th century

Motet

We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee: for by thy Holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

Mode I

Antiphon

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 65) Rouen Church Melody

The fast, as taught by holy lore,
We keep in solemn course once more:
The fast to all men known, and bound
In forty days of yearly round.

In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all,
And weep before the Judge's feet
And his avenging wrath entreat.

The laws and seers that were of old
In divers ways this Lent foretold,
Which Christ, all seasons' King and guide
In after ages sanctified.

Forgive the sin that we have wrought
Increase the good that we have sought,
That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please thee here and evermore.

More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take,
Our sleep and mirth,—and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.

We pray thee, Holy Trinity,
One God, unchanging Unity,
That we from this our abstinence
May reap the fruits of penitence.

Amen.

Anthem Johann Christoph Bach, 1642-1703

I wrestle and pray, till blessed by Thee.
Thou art my God, Almighty Lord,
I know by thy unchanging word,
Thine is a Father's heart;
Yet I though dust for comfort flee,
And find it while I cleave to thee.

O Jesu, Son of God, I raise
My voice to thee in hymns of praise,
For thy redeeming grace;
Increase my faith, and strengthen me,
That I may pray and cleave to thee.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 134 Lord, who throughout these forty days
Day's Psalter, 1562

Introit Tone IV

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord; and thy loving kindnesses toward us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevissima) Claudio Casciolini

Gradual Tone V

The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O Lord, bring thou me out of my troubles. V. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

Tract Tone II

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that alway keep judgment: and do righteousness. Remember us, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit us with thy salvation.

Hymn 237 When all thy mercies, O my God Tallis, 1567

Credo I Mode IV

Offertory Tone II

My delight shall be in thy commandments, which I have loved exceedingly: my hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved.

Hymn 127 Jesus, Lord of life and glory Hopkins, 1862

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Casciolini

Communio Tone V

Consider my meditation; O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer, O Lord.

Tantum Ergo Vittoria

The words of Hymn 338, Part II

Antiphon Mode I

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Fantasia in C major Cesar Franck

Solemn Quensong

Psalm 27 Tone VII-3

Magnificat Tone VIII, faux-bourbons by Oreste Ravanello

Nunc Dimittis Tone I, faux-bourdon by Ciro di Grassi

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day; Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
Thou drivest darksome night away! To bid the powers of darkness fly;
We know thee as the Light of light, Keep us from sin, and guide for good Illuminating mortal sight. Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee, Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
Keep us tonight from danger free; While in this mortal flesh we stay:
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest, 'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
So be our sleep in quiet blest. Be present with us to the end.

And while the eyes soft slumber take, Blest Three in One and One in Three,
Still be the heart to thee awake; Almighty God, we pray to thee
Be thy right hand upheld above That thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless Thy servants resting in thy love. Our fast with fruits of righteousness.
Amen.

Anthem (Evening Cantata) Percy Whitlock

Round me falls the night; In thine arms I rest me,
Saviour, be my Light; Foes who would molest me
Through the hours in darkness shrouded Cannot reach me here.
Let me see thy face unclouded; O may my soul on thee repose
Let thy glory shine And may sweet sleep
In this heart of mine. My eyelids close.

Earthly work is done, Blessed, heavenly Light,
Earthly sounds are none; Shining through earth's night;
Rest in sleep and silence seeking; Voice that oft of love hast told me;
Let me hear thee softly speaking; Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me
In my spirit's ear Thou, thy watch wilt keep Whisper, I am near. Saviour, o'er my sleep.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only that makest me dwell in safely. Amen.

Solo: Teddy Palaio

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Sarum Plainsong, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below, For evermore, blest One in Three:
Our foes press on from every side, O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow. In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness

Organ—Berceuse Vierne

Hymn 247 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us Dulce Carmen, 1782

Introit - - - - - Tone VII

Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, afflicted and in misery.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee; O let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Messa Davidica) - - - Lorenzo Perosi

Gradual - - - - - Tone III

Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters. And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of their mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: have mercy upon us.

Hymn 270 We walk by faith Nicolas Hermann, 1485-1561

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; his judgments also are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb: moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Hymn 128 Christian, seek not yet repose William H. Monk, 1868

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Perosi

Communio - - - - - Tone I

The sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee.

Motet (Ave Verum) - - - - - Edward Elgar

Jesu, Word of God Incarnate,	Cleanse us, by the blood and water
Of the Virgin Mary born,	Streaming from thy pierced Side;
On the Cross thy Sacred Body	Feed us with thy Body broken,
For us men with nails was torn.	Now, and in death's agony.
O Jesu, hear us, Son of Mary.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 67) Thomas Campion, 1575-1619

Now is the healing time decreed For sins of heart, of word or deed, When we in humble fear record The wrong that we have done the Lord;	Therefore with fasting and with prayer, Our secret sorrow we declare; With all good striving seek his face, And lowly hearted plead for grace.
--	---

Who alway merciful and good, Has borne so long our wayward mood, Nor cut us off unsparingly In our so great iniquity.	Cleanse us, O Lord, from every stain, Help us the meed of praise to gain, Till with the Angels linked in love Joyful we tread thy courts above.
--	--

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Mendelssohn

I waited for the Lord, He inclined unto me; he heard my complaint: O blest are they that hope and trust in the Lord.

Hymn 328 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts

Mode I

Introit

Tone V

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that delight in her: exult and sing for joy with her, all ye that in sadness mourn for her; that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolation.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancti Josephi)

Flor Peeters

Gradual

Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Tract

Tone VIII

They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Syon: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. The hills stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.

Hymn 160 We sing the praise of Him who died

Leipzig, 1625

Credo I

Mode IV

Offertory

Tone II

O praise the Lord, for he is gracious; O sing praises unto his Name, for he is lovely: whatsoever he pleased, that did he in heaven and in earth.

Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself: for thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord; to give thanks unto thy Name, O Lord.

Motet (English Hymnal, 323)

Munster Gesangbuch, 1677

O most merciful! O most bountiful!

God the Father Almighty!

By the Redeemer's sweet Intercession

Hear us, help us when we cry. Amen.

Antiphon

Mode I

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name.

Hymn 338 (Part I) Now, my tongue, the mystery telling
Sarum Plainsong, Mode III

Introit
Tone IV

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man, for thou, O Lord, art my God, and my strong salvation.

Ps. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Kyrie Eleison
Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual
Tone III

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. V. It is thou, Lord, that deliverest me from my cruel enemies, and settest me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

Tract
Tone VIII

Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up, may Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers ploughed upon my back, and made long furrows: but the righteous Lord have hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

 Procession { 145 Ride on, Ride on, in Majesty Hamburg, 1690

Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

Be not thou far from me, O Lord; thou art my succour, haste thee to help me. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevis, No. 1) - - - Healey Willan

Gradual - - - - - Tone IV

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipt: and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint.

O my God, I cry in the daytime but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: a very scorn of men and the outcast of his people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn: thy shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying, He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him if he will have him.

They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob.

They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Hymn 158 O Sacred Head surrounded Hassler, 1601

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Healey Willan

Communion

Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it: thy will be done.

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in { 172 Jesus Christ is risen today Lyra Davidica, 1708
Procession { 178 At the Lamb's High Feast Jakob Hintze, 1678

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia: thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in D) - - - George Henschel

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it. V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VII

Christ our Passover: is sacrificed for us.

Sequence - - - - - Mode I

Christians to the Paschal Victim, offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous; the Prince of Life who died reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring: 'The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's Resurrection; bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.'

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen. Alleluia.

Credo - - - - - Henschel

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

Anthem - Melchior Vulpius, 1609, arranged by Henry Ley

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor's triumph won:
O let the song of praise be sung,
Alleluia.

Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed,
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst,
Alleluia.

On the third morn He rose again,
Glorious in majesty to reign;
O let us swell the joyful strain,
Alleluia.

Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee,
From death's dread string thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to thee,
Alleluia. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Henschel

Communio - - - - - Tone VI

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluia: therefore let us keep the Feast with the unleavened Bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Henschel

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Organ—Fantasia in G major - - - J. S. Bach

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 118 - - - - - Tone I-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - West in G

Hymn 173 The strife is o'er Palestrina, arranged by Monk

Anthem - - - - - Handel

Hallelujah! for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever: King of Kings, and Lord of Lords! Hallelujah!

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Sarum Plainsong, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven, alleluia
R. Containing in itself all sweetness alleluia.

Organ—Alleluia, Pascha Nostra - Everett Titcomb

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 179 He is Risen! Joachim Neander, 1680

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

As new-born babes, alleluia: desire ye the sincere milk of the word, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Quinti toni) - - - di Lasso

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VII

On the day of my Resurrection, saith the Lord: I will go before you into Galilee, alleluia. V. After eight days, when the doors were shut, Jesus stood in the midst of his disciples and said: Peace be unto you, alleluia.

Hymn 556 Joy dawned again on Easter Day
Michael Praetorius, 1609

Credo - - - - - di Lasso

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

The Angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and said unto the women: He whom ye seek is risen, as he said, alleluia.

Anthem - - - - - Makarov, 19th century

An Angel said to Mary, full of grace: Hail, O Virgin most pure, rejoice, thy Son is risen from the tomb on the third day as He said, and all the dead are risen through Him.

All peoples of the earth, rejoice; new Jerusalem, receive the light, for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee: chant songs of joy, O Zion. And thou, O Mary, most pure mother of God, rejoice in the resurrection of thy Son.

Praise our Redeemer, our Lord. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - di Lasso

Communio - - - - - Tone VI

Reach hither thy hand, and behold the prints of the nails, alleluia: and be not faithless but believing, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - di Lasso

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 84, 85 - - - - - Tones III-1, IV-5

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - West in G

Hymn - - - - - Beata Nobis Gaudia

In this our bright and Paschal Day,
The sun shines out with purer ray,
When Christ to earthly sight made plain,
The glad Apostles see again.

O Christ, the King, who lov'st to bless
Do thou our hearts and souls possess,
To thee our praise that we may pay,
To whom our laud is due for aye.

The wounds, the riven flesh he shows
In that his Flesh, with light that glows;
In loud accord, both far and nigh,
The Lord's arising testify.

We pray thee, King, with glory decked,
In this our Paschal joy, protect
From all that death would fain effect
Thy ransom'd flock, thine own elect.

To thee, who dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, thy people give;
All glory, as is ever meet
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Arnold Van Bruck (d. 1545)

Christ the Lord is risen, Hallelujah.
Christ has burst his prison, Hallelujah.
Hark, angelic voices cry, Hallelujah.
Singing evermore on high, Hallelujah.
And He who gave for us his life, Hallelujah.
He is our Paschal Lamb today, Hallelujah.
Therefore will we rejoice in him for aye, Hallelujah.

Devotions

Notices

St. Mark's Parish is fortunately able to make every year its expected contribution to the missionary work of the Church in the Diocese of Pennsylvania and throughout the world. Because many parishes and dioceses are not so fortunate, the National Council is facing the terrible necessity of cutting off many missionary salaries and otherwise curtailing necessary work.

To prevent this direful contingency, $300,000 must be pledged by April 25th. The Presiding Bishop is appealing to all parishes in the country to make an emergency contribution of one dollar from each parishioner, whether the parish has or has not met its Expectation.

It would be a heartening thing for the whole Church if the people of St. Mark's, after doing all that was expected of them, should at this critical moment each contribute one dollar for maintenance of the Church's Missions. It is hoped that every one of St. Mark's parishioners will respond at once to this appeal and send his or her envelope to the Accounting Warden not later than the 20th inst., or place in the offering on Sunday.

The Spring Presentation of the United Thank Offering will be held on Thursday, May 4th, at 10.30 A. M., in Holy Trinity Church. The Rev. E. Frank Salmon, Rector of Holy Trinity, will preach. Contributions may be sent before that date to Mrs. Alfred Hand, 1724 Pine Street.

The Evening Auxiliary is sponsoring the sale of the Forward Movement Booklets. Copies can be obtained at the office of the Secretary at a cost of five cents each.

Individual instruction for Confirmation may be arranged for by special appointment. Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy.

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper parish hall at 9.30 on Sundays.

Hymn 339 Let all mortal flesh keep silence French Folksong
Introit Tone IV

The loving-kindness of the Lord filleth the whole world, alleluia: by the word of God the heavens were stablished, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A) Rheinberger
Alleluia Tone V

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus: in the breaking of bread, alleluia: I am the Good Shepherd: and know my sheep, and am known of mine, alleluia.

Hymn 356 Fairest Lord Jesus Silesian Folksong
Credo Rheinberger

Offertory Tone II

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: and lift up my hands in thy Name, alleluia.

Anthem S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance uncorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you who are kept by the power of God; through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God; for all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth forever. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Rheinberger

Communion Tone II

I am the Good Shepherd, alleluia: and know my sheep and am known of mine, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Rheinberger

Antiphon Mode V

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 114, 115 Tonus Peregrinus

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Orlando Gibbons in A flat

Hymn (English Hymnal, 125) French Church Melody

The Lamb's high banquet we await
In snow-white robes of royal state;
And now, the Red Sea's channel past,
To Christ, our Prince, we sing at last.

O thou from whom hell's monarch flies,
O great, O very Sacrifice,
Thy captive people are set free,
And endless life restored in thee.

Upon the Altar of the Cross
His Body hath redeemed our loss;
And tasting of his roseate Blood
Our life is hid with him in God.

For Christ, arising from the dead,
From conquered hell victorious sped;
He thrusts the tyrant down to chains,
And Paradise for man regains.

That Paschal eve God's arm was bared;
The devastating Angel spared:
By strength of hand our hosts went free
From Pharaoh's ruthless tyranny.

Maker of all, to thee we pray,
Fulfil in us thy joy to-day:
When death assails, grant, Lord, that we
May share thy Paschal victory.

Now Christ our Paschal Lamb is slain,
The Lamb of God that knows no stain;
The true Oblation offered here,
Our own unleavened Bread sincere.

To thee who, dead, again dost live,
All glory, Lord, thy people give;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

Motet (Surrexit Pastor Bonus) Orlando di Lasso

The Shepherd has arisen, who willingly laid down his own life, that they, his sheep, might live; and his flock to ransom, to die was worthy deemed, alleluia.

Devotions

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 445 O God, our help in ages past William Croft, 1708

Introit Tone III

With a voice of singing, declare ye this, and let it be heard, alleluia: utter it even unto the ends of the earth; the Lord hath delivered his people, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A minor) William Lovelock

Alleluia Tone V

Christ is risen and hath shone upon us: whom he redeemed with his Blood, alleluia. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world; again I leave the world, and go to the Father. Alleluia.

Hymn 181 O Jesus, crowned with all renown Barnby, 1838-1906

Credo Lovelock

Offertory Tone II

O praise the Lord our God, ye people; and make the voice of his praise to be heard: who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip. Praised be the Lord, who hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me, alleluia.

Anthem Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy Praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, nor e'en to make the tomb thy resting place: so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin, is Lord, but thou, O Son of God! Thy Word is now our sovereign law. Therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the perfect day on us for evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Lovelock

Communio Tone II

O sing unto the Lord, alleluia: sing unto the Lord and praise his Name; be telling of his salvation from day to day, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Lovelock

Antiphon Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Organ—Prelude in C major Back

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 73 Tone VII-7

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III, with polyphony by Everett Titcomb

Hymn 182 To Thee, our God we fly Charles Steggall, 1858

Anthem George C. Martin

Hail, gladdening Light, of his pure glory poured
Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine,
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung,
With undefiled tongue, Son of our God, Giver of Life, Alone!
Therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own.

Teddy Palaio, Treble; Bruce Adams, Alto
John H. Merscher, Tenor; Charles F. Kauffeld, Bass

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Sarum Plainsong, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven, alleluia
R. Containing in itself all sweetness alleluia.

Organ—Andante (Trio-Sonata IV) J. S. Bach

Solemn High Mass

Hymn in Procession (English Hymnal, 158) Este's Psalter, 1592
When God of Old came down from heaven, And as on Israel's awe-struck ear

In power and wrath he came; The voice, exceeding loud,
Before his feet the clouds were riven, The trump, that Angels quake to hear,
Half darkness and half flame. Thrilled from the deep dark cloud.

But when he came the second time, So, when the Spirit of our God
He came in power and love; Came down his flock to find,
Softer than gale at morning prime A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
Hovered his holy Dove. A rushing mighty wind.

The fires that rushed on Sinai down It fills the Church of God; it fills
In sudden torrent dread; The sinful world around;
Now gently light, a glorious crown, Only in stubborn hearts and wills
On every sainted head. No place for it is found.

Come, Lord, come Wisdom, Love and Power,
Open our ears to hear:
Let us not miss the accepted hour;
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

Hymn 197 Spirit of mercy, truth and love Samuel Webbe, 1781

Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia: and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Quinti Toni) - Di Lasso

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

When thou lettest thy breath go forth they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth, alleluia. Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of thy faithful people: and kindle in them the fire of thy love.

Sequence Hymn 196 Come, thou Holy Spirit, come
Samuel Webbe, 1782

Credo - - - - - Di Lasso

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

Stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us: for thy temple's sake at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee, alleluia.

Motet Come Holy Ghost, our souls inspire - Palestrina
(The words of Hymn 455)

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Di Lasso

Communio - - - - - Tone VII

Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, alleluia: and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak the wonderful works of God, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - Di Lasso
Antiphon - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 104 - - - - - Tone III-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and III,
with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn 561 Joy because the circling year - Dresden, 1694

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captive, and recovering of sight to the blind; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth: so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all nations.

I bind unto myself this day	Christ in safety, Christ in danger,
The glory of the Trinity.	Christ beside each friend and stranger,
I humbly praise the awful Name,	Christ consoling all that love me,
The Three in One, the One in Three.	Christ be with me this day.

Christ be near me, Christ within me.	I bind unto myself this day
Christ be ever before me,	The stable earth, the deep salt sea,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,	The sweet pale moon, the sun's bright ray,
Christ be with me this day.	The whirling winds, the lightning free.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn (English Hymnal 175)

Aeterna Christi Munera

The eternal gifts of Christ the King,
The Apostles' glorious deeds, we sing;
And while due hymns of praise we pay,
Our thankful hearts cast grief away.

'Twas thus the yearning faith of Saints,
The unconquered hope that never faints,
The love of Christ that knows not shame,
The prince of this world overcame.

The Church in these her princes boasts,
These victor chiefs of warrior hosts;
The soldiers of the heavenly hall,
The lights that rose on earth for all.

In these the Father's glory shone;
In these the will of God the Son;
In these exults the Holy Ghost;
Through these rejoice the heavenly host.

Redeemer, hear us of thy love,
That, with this glorious band above,
Hereafter, of thine endless grace,
Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

Introit

Right dear, O God, are thy friends unto me, and held in highest honour; their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison

Orbis factor, Mode I

Gradual

Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words unto the ends of the world. V. The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

Alleluia

I have chosen you out of the world: that ye should go and bring fruit, and that your fruit should remain. Alleluia.

Hymn 281 The Son of Consolation!

Arthur S. Sullivan, 1867

Credo I

Mode IV, Sixth century

Offertory

Thou shalt make them princes in all lands: they shall remember thy Name,
O Lord, from one generation to another.

Anthem

Melody by N. Hermann, 1560, arr. by Ley

Lo, round the Throne, a glorious band
The Saints in countless myriads stand,
Of every tongue redeemed of God,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood,
Hallelujah!

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Mode IV, Mode VIII

Communio

Ye which have followed me shall sit upon twelve thrones: judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

Mode IV

Antiphon

Mode V

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 232 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds Reinagle, 1836

Introit

The Lord was my refuge and my upholder; and he brought me forth into a place of liberty: he delivered me because he delighted in me.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord my strength: the Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Lovelock in A minor

Gradual

When I was in trouble I called upon the Lord: and he heard me. V. Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

Alleluia

God is a righteous Judge, strong and patient: and God is provoked every day. Alleluia.

Hymn 312 God of mercy, God of Grace - Smart, 1866

Credo I Lovelock

Offertory

Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

Anthem Brahms

How lovely is thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. O blest are they that dwell within thy house; they praise thy Name evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Lovelock

Communio

I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord Most Highest.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - Lovelock

Antiphon Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet wherein Christ is received, the memory of His passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness

Organ—Herr, wie du willst - Georg Bohm

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven

Goss, 1869

Introit

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, O Lord; for I am desolate, and in tribulation: look thou on mine affliction, and my travail; and forgive me all mine iniquities, O my God.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul: my God, in thee have I trusted; let me never be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis)

Everett Titcomb

Gradual

O cast thy burden upon the Lord: and he shall nourish thee. V. When I cried unto the Lord, he heard my voice: from the battle that was against me.

Alleluia

I will love thee, O Lord my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Saviour. Alleluia.

Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care

Bourgeois, 1551

Credo I

Mode IV, Sixth century

Offertory

They that know thy Name will put their trust in thee; for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee: O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Syon; for he forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

Anthem

Henry Purcell

Rejoice in the Lord alway, and again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

Be careful for nothing; but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving; let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Bruce Adams, Alto; John H. Merscher, Tenor; Charles F. Kauffeld, Bass

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Titcomb

Communio

I have called upon thee, O God, for thou shalt hear me: incline thine ear unto me, and hearken unto my words.

Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven Goss, 1869

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Righteous art thou, O Lord, and true is thy judgment: O deal well with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Rheinberger in A

Gradual - - - - - Tone I

Blessed are the people whose God is the Lord: and blessed are the folk that he has chosen to him to be his inheritance. V. By the word of the Lord were the heavens made: and all the hosts of them by the breath of his mouth.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

Hear my prayer, O Lord: and let my crying come unto thee.

Hymn 463 One sole Baptismal sign - - - Goss, 1853

Credo - - - - - Rheinberger

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

Hear, O Lord, the prayer of the servant; cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary: and behold, O God, this thy people, who are called by thy Name.

Anthem - - - - - Johannes Brahms

How lovely is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth yea, fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. O blest are they that dwell within thy house; they praise thy Name, evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Rheinberger

Communio - - - - - Tone II

Promise unto the Lord your God, and keep it, all ye that are round about him: bring presents unto him that ought to be feared. He shall refrain the spirit of princes: and he is wonderful among the kings of the earth.

Jesus, my safety

Psalms 6, 7, 8 - - - Tones VIII-5, I-1, V-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourdon
by J. S. Bach

Hymn (English Hymnal, 241) - Joachim Neander, 1640-80

Thee, O Christ, the Father's splendour,	By whose watchful care repelling—
Life and virtue of the heart,	King of everlasting grace—
In the presence of the Angels	Every ghostly adversary,
Sing we now with tuneful art,	All things evil, all things base,
Meetly in alternate chorus	Grant us of thine only goodness
Bearing our responsive part.	In thy Paradise a place.

Thus we praise with veneration	Laud and honour to the Father,
All the armies of the sky;	Laud and honour to the Son,
Chiefly him, the warrior Primate,	Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Of celestial chivalry,	Ever Three and ever One;
Michael, who in princely virtue	Consubstantial, co-eternal,
Cast Abaddon from on high.	While unending ages run. Amen.

Motet - - - - - Palestrina

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks; even so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three;
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with Thee.

Notices

After October 1st the Sisters of St. Margaret will be glad to arrange for Retreats for groups of women and girls at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia. The Sisters welcome Retreats for Church School Teachers and Leaders, Members of the Women's Auxiliary, Girls' Friendly Society, Altar Guilds, Mission Study Groups and for Professional Women, Teachers, Nurses, Business Women or any others.

The Retreats may be for one or two days, or for half a day, or late afternoon and evening. The House affords accomodation for about 20 over-night guests.

Provision may also be made for those who would like to spend a few days in a quiet place for spiritual refreshment. Some may wish to visit in order to receive instruction in preparation for Confirmation or any other of the Sacraments.

Arrangements for Retreats should be made as far in advance as possible. Write or telephone the Sister-in-Charge for details. Telephone number, Victor 4612.

The Corporate Communion of the Woman's Auxiliary will be made Sunday, October 1st, at 8 A. M.

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held in the Parish Building on Thursday afternoon, October 5th, at 3 P.M. The Rector will make the address.

The Evening Session of the Woman's Auxiliary will hold its first Meeting of the season on Monday evening, October 9th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish Parlor. The Speaker will be the Rev. F. T. Osborn from Southern Brazil.

Contributions for the Fall Presentation of the United Thank Offering may be sent to Mrs. Alfred Hand, 1724 Pine Street.

The Evening Auxiliary is sponsoring the sale of Forward Movement Booklets. Copies can be obtained at the rear of the church. The price is five cents per copy.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 264 Ye holy Angels bright John Darwall, 1770

Introit Tone I

Give peace, O Lord, to them that wait for thee, and let thy prophets be found faithful: regard the prayers of thy servant, and of thy people Israel.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Lovelock in A minor

Gradual Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Alleluia Tone V

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty.

Hymn 235 O Love that casts out fear Henry Smart, 1881

Credo Lovelock

Offertory Tone V

Moses consecrated an Altar unto the Lord, offering burnt-offerings upon it, and sacrificing peace-offerings: and he made an evening sacrifice for a sweet-smelling savour unto the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel.

Anthem S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

Love one another with a pure heart fervently; see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof; fadeth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Lovelock

Communio Tone IV

Bring presents and come into his courts: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Lovelock

Antiphon Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Fantasia in G major Bach

Solemn Evensong

Chorale-Preludes: Bach

Have mercy upon me, O Lord
In thee do I put my trust

Psalms 41, 42, 43 Tones III-2, V-1, VI

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Stanford in C

Hymn (English Hymnal, 51) Angers Church Melody

O blest Creator of the Light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright,
And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all;

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve, and named them Day:
Night comes with all its darkling fears;
Regard thy people's prayers and tears,

Lest, sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife,
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain:
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Motet Everett Titcomb

My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer, saith the Lord: in it every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mechlin Melody

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 339 Let all mortal flesh keep silence French folk-tune

Introit - - - - - Tone III

All that thou hast done to us, O Lord, thou hast done in true judgment; for we have sinned and not obeyed thy commandments: but give glory to thy Name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing and give praises unto thee, my glory.

Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care Louis Bourgeois, 1551

Credo - - - - - Darke in F

Offertory - - - - - Tone I

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept: when we remembered thee, O Sion.

Motet - - - - - Tschaikowsky

Blessed angel spirits offer praise undying, ever crying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.

Saints and Martyrs praise thy Name, Trinity life-giving, Earth-borne sorrow leaving before thy Throne.

Father Omnipotent, mighty in glory, Christ thy Son, our Saviour, who died that we might live; Holy Spirit, mystic Dove, dwelling with us evermore, we praise thee, Blessed Trinity.

With the Angels' sacred hymn, all thy might proclaiming; with the mystic Cherubim, in songs of praise we join, Hallelujah! Lord God of Sabaoth.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Darke in F

Communio - - - - - Tone IV

Think upon thy servant, O Lord, as concerning thy word; wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust: the same is my comfort in my trouble.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Darke in F

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude in E minor (The Wedge) - - - - - Bach

Solemn Evensong

Chorale-Preludes: - - - Johann Pachelbel

We all believe in One God
Our Father, who art in heaven

Psalms 108, 109 - - - Tone VIII-2, IV-6

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - Walmisley in D minor

Hymn (English Hymnal, 390) - Gotha, 1715

Firmly I believe and truly God is Three and God is One; And I next acknowledge duly Manhood taken by the Son.	Simply to that grace and wholly Light and life and strength belong, And I love supremely, solely, Him the Holy, Him the Strong.
--	--

And I trust and hope most fully In that Manhood crucified; And each thought and deed unruly Do to death, as He has died.	And I hold in veneration, For the love of Him alone, Holy Church as his creation, And her teachings as his own.
---	--

Adoration ay be given,
With and through the angelic host,
To the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Motet (O vera summa) - - - Palestrina

O Very Highest, Everlasting Trinity, Father Son, and Holy Spirit! O Very Highest, Everlasting Unity: To thee sing praises, thee they worship, thee they glorify, everything created, O Holy Trinity!

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - Mechlin Melody

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 465 We love the place, O God Henry L. Jenner, 1861

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

The whole world, O Lord, is in thy power; and there is no man that can resist thee: for thou hast made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all the wondrous thing under the heaven: thou art Lord of all.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another. V. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting; and world without end

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

When Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people.

Hymn 190 (verses 1 and 5) George J. Elvey, 1868

Crown Him with many crowns, The Lamb upon His throne; Hark, how the heavenly anthem drowns All music but its own; Awake, my soul and sing Of Him who died for thee, And hail Him as thy matchless King Through all eternity.	Crown Him the Lord of heaven, Enthroned in worlds above; Crown Him the King, to whom is given The wondrous name of Love. Crown Him with many crowns, As thrones before Him fall, Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns, For He is King of all. Amen.
---	---

Credo - - - - - de Angelis, Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Thou art my portion, O Lord; I have promised to keep thy law: I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart; O be merciful unto me, according to thy word.

Anthem - - - - - Beethoven

Hallelujah! Hallelujah unto God's Almighty Son. Praise the Lord, ye bright angelic choirs, in holy songs of joy.
Man, proclaim his grace and glory. Praise the Lord in songs of joy.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Titcomb

Communio - - - - - Tone I

My soul hath longed for thy salvation, and I have a good hope because of thy word: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me? they persecute me falsely, O Lord my God, be thou my help.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Titcomb

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Psalms 141, 142, 143 - - - - - Tones VIII-4, VI, VII-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - - - Tones VIII and III,
with polyphony by Everett Titcomb

Hymn - - - - - Grenoble Church Melody

See now the Christ, in triumph high, Unfurl his standard to the sky! Ye nations, fall before his feet; The King of Kings with homage greet.	That civic state how trebly blest Where Christ bears rule, by man confessed; The edicts of high heaven run; And upon earth God's will be done.

The kingdoms that he claims as Lord He hath not willed by fear or sword To quell; but on the Cross raised high He would on love alone rely.	May this thy light, for which we pine, Sweet King of love, upon us shine; And all the earth, in holy peace, From thy glad praises never cease. Amen.
--	--

Anthem - - - - - Handel

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by his blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

Blessing and honour, glory and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne; and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in } 295 For All the Saints
Procession } 299 Let saints on earth

Vaughan-Williams
Day's Psalter, 1562

Introit

Tone I

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, and celebrate this Festival in honour of All the Saints: over whose solemn Feast the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancta Clara)

Licinio Refice

Gradual

Tone I

O fear the Lord, ye that are his Saints: for they that fear him lack nothing: V. They who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Alleluia

Tone V

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden: and I will give you rest.

Sequence

Mode I

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Note of praise for triumphs won.

In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,
Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
As to God we lift our cry.

As the Church today rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.

Ever praising, ever praying,
Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.

Credo

Refice

Offertory

Tone I

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God: and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace, alleluia.

Motet

Vittoria

O how glorious is the Kingdom in which, with Christ Jesus, liveth all the Saints; in holy robes of whiteness, worshipping the Lamb, they joy for evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Refice

Communio

Tone I

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo

Refice

Antiphon

Mode V

Cologne, 1623

Ye watchers and ye holy ones,

Bright seraphs, cherubim and thrones,

Raise the glad strain, Alleluia!

Cry out, dominions, principedoms, powers,

Virtues, archangels, angels' choirs,

Alleluia

Respond, ye souls in endless rest,

Ye patriarchs and prophets blest,

Alleluia; Alleluia!

Ye holy twelve, ye martyrs strong,

All saints triumphant, raise the song,

Alleluia

O higher than the cherubim

More glorious than the seraphim

Lead their praises, Alleluia!

Thou bearer of the eternal Word,

Most gracious, magnify the Lord,

Alleluia

O friends, in gladness let us sing,

Supernal anthems echoing,

Alleluia, Alleluia!

To God the Father, God the Son,

And God the Spirit, Three in One,

Alleluia

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Anthem - - - - - Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet: Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments. Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals. Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath Praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Rheinberger

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire when ye pray: believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Rheinberger

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Jesus, Priceless Treasure
Blessed Jesus, we are here

Psalms 65, 66, 67 - - - - - Tones VII-5, I-3, VIII-3

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII
with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) - - - - - Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day,
Thou drivest darksome night away!
We know thee as the Light of Light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us tonight from danger free;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay:
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake;
Be thy right hand upheld above
Thy servants resting in thy love.

All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

Anthem (Sixth Chandos Anthem) - - - - - Handel

Solo: That God is great, we often have
By glad experience found,
And seen how He, with wondrous power
Above all gods is crowned.

Chorus: O Praise the Lord, with one consent,
And magnify his Name;
Let all the servants of the Lord,
His worthy praise proclaim.

Charles F. Kauffeld, Bass

Sister Leila's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 A.M. to 12 M.

Notices

The Evening Session of the Woman's Auxiliary will meet on Monday, November 13th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish Parlor. Dr. Houghton will be the speaker.

There will be a meeting of St. Mark's Altar Society in the Parish Parlor on Thursday morning, November 16th, directly after the 9.30 Mass.

At the Presentation of the United Thank Offering in St. Mark's on Thursday, November 2nd, St. Mark's Parish contributed $239; St. Mary's Chapel, $51.38, and St. Michael's Chapel, Yeadon, $36.58. The total Offering of the Diocese amounted to $12,000.

The American Red Cross, in asking your support of its 23rd Annual Roll Call, which began on November 11th, would remind you that in addition to the regular peacetime services, they are now called upon: (1) To help provide materials for volunteers to make a greatly increased number of garments and surgical dressings; (2) To help lessen sufferings of war refugees in Europe; (3) To help repatriate American Citizens and families forced to leave their homes and possessions in Europe and seek safety in America. St. Mark's Church will be glad to receive subscriptions, which may be left with Mrs. McFaul at the office.

On Thanksgiving Day the entire Offering will be for the Episcopal Hospital.

Religious instruction for children is given on Sundays at 10 to 10.40 in the upper Parish Hall. High school and college women interested in the ways and teaching of the Church will be welcome in the Sister's office at 9.45 on Saturdays or may make special appointments for instruction.

Individual instruction for Confirmation may be arranged for by special appointment. Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy.

Hymn 425 For the beauty of the earth - Gounod, 1872

Introit - - - - - Tone VI

I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil: ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you; and I will bring your captivity from all places.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Henschel in D

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate us. V. We make our boast in God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Hymn 389 Hark, my soul! it is the Lord - Dykes, 1862

Credo - - - - - Henschel

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Motet - - - - - Tschaiowsky

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord; praise it, all ye servants of the Lord. Alleluia.

O praise Him. Praised be the Lord out of Zion! Praised be the Lord, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Alleluia.

O commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. Alleluia.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Henschel

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII
with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 10) - - - - - Mode IV

O Father, who didst all things make
That Heaven and earth might do thy will
Bless us this night for Jesus' sake,
And for thy work preserve us still.

O Son, who didst redeem mankind,
And set the captive sinner free,
Keep us this night with peaceful mind,
That we may safe abide in thee.

O Holy Ghost, who by thy power
The Church dost call and sanctify,
Seal us this night, and hour by hour
Our hearts and members purify

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom Heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the Angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

Anthem (Sixth Chandos Anthem) - - - - - Handel

Solo: For this our truest interest is Glad hymns of praise to sing,
And with loud songs to bless his Name,
A most delightful thing.

Chorus: With cheerful notes let all the earth
To heaven their voices raise;
Let all inspired with godly mirth,
Sing solemn hymns with praise.

Hymn 55 Come, thou long-expected Jesus - Gotha, 1715

Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Ps, Shew my thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual - - - - - Tone I

All they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord: shew me thy ways, O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

Sequence - - - - - Mode VII

Saviour Eternal! Health and life of the world unfailing.
Light everlasting! And in verity our redemption.

Grieving that the ages of men must perish through the tempter's subtlety,
Still in heaven abiding thou camest earthward of thine own great clemency; Then freely and graciously deigning to assume humanity, To lost ones and perishing gavest thou thy free deliverance, filling all the world with joy.

O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse by thy perfect sacrifice, That we,
as temples pure and bright, fit for thine abode may be.

By thy former Advent justify; By thy second grant us liberty, That when in the might of glory thou descendest Judge of all, We in raiment undefiled bright may shine and ever follow, Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Hymn 66 O come, O come, Emmanuel - - - - - Mode I

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Mass XVII, Mode V

Communio - - - - - Tone I

The Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

Tantum Ergo (Hymn 338, Part II) - - - - - Anton Bruckner

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For

Psalms 96, 97 - - - - - Tones VIII-1, V-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - - - Tones II and VIII,
with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 1) - - - - - Mode IV

Creator of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light,
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.

At whose dread name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow
And things celestial thee shall own
And things terrestrial, Lord, alone.

Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
Hast found the medicine, full of grace
To save and heal a ruined race.

O thou whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From every insult of the foe.

Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the Bride;
As drew the world to evening-tide:
Proceeding from a virgin shrine,
The spotless Victim all divine:

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One;
Laud, honour, might and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

Motet - - - - - Henry Aldrich, 1647-1710

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.
O let thine ear consider well the voice of my complaint: For if thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

Hymn (Songs of Syon, 15)

Erfurt Enchiridion, 1524

Saviour of the nations, come,
Leave for us thy glorious home,
Glad hosannas will we sing,
Greeting thee, our heav'nly King.

Come, Lord Jesu, take thy rest,
In the convert sinner's breast;
Make the quicken'd heart thy throne,
Son of God, the Virgin's Son.

With a loyal kiss of love,
We receive thee from above,
With a solemn vow to pay
True allegiance to thy sway.

Welcome to this vale of tears
Ripeness of the perfect years,
Born as man with man to dwell,
Come, our true Emmanuel.

God in man: Incarnate God,
Sinless child of flesh and blood,
Man in God, thy brethren we,
Raise up to God in thee. Amen.

Motet

Healey Willan

Lo, in the time appointed the Lord will come; the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clasp their hands: for the Lord God shall come into his everlasting kingdom:
And upon the throne of David shall he reign for ever, Alleluia.

Hymn 54 Hark! the glad sound - Edward Hodges, 1841

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Rejoice in the Lord, and again I say, rejoice ye: let your moderation be known unto all men, the Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing, nor troubled: but in all things, by prayer, let your requests be made known unto God.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison. (Missa Brevissima) - Claudio Casciolini

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

Shew thyself, O Lord, thou that sittest upon the Cherubim: stir up thy strength and come. V. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

Stir up thy strength, O Lord: and come and help us.

Hymn 326 The King of love my Shepherd is John B. Dykes, 1868

Credo (Mass in A Minor) - - - - - Casciolini

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob; thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people.

Hymn 61 Rejoice, rejoice, believers! Henry Smart, 1836

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Casciolini

Communio - - - - - Everett Tilcomb

Say to them that are of a fearful heart: Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come and save you.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 329) - - - - - Ancient Irish melody

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands Lord, may the tongues which 'Holy' sang
That holy things have taken; Keep free from all deceiving;
Let ears that now have heard thy songs The eyes which saw thy love be bright,
To clamour never waken. Thy blessed hope perceiving.

The feet that tread thy holy courts
From light do thou not banish;
The bodies by thy Body fed
With thy new life replenish. Amen.

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 17) - - - - - Mode II

When shades of night around us close,
And weary limbs in sleep repose,
The faithful soul awake may be,
And yearning sigh, O Lord, to Thee.

O Thou, for whom the nations long
O Word of God, thou Saviour strong,
Turn unto us thy pitying eyes,
And bid at length the fallen rise.

O Come, Redeemer, come and free
Thine own from their iniquity;
The gates of heaven again unfold,
Which Adam's trespass closed of old.

All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee
Whose Advent doth thy people free,
Whom with the Father we adore
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captive, and recovering of sight to the blind; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all nations.

Hymn 66 O come, O come, Emmanuel

Introit

Drop down, ye heavens from above; and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let her bring forth salvation.
Ps. The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Messa Davidica)

Gradual

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: even such as call upon him faithfully. V. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name.

Alleluia

Come, O Lord, and tarry not: forgive the misdeeds of thy people.

Hymn 63 Hark! a thrilling voice

William H. Monk, 1850

Credo I

Offertory

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Hymn 70 The King shall come when morning dawns

William Jones, 1789

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Communio

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bring forth a Son: and shall call his name Emmanuel.

Motet

Jesu, joyaunce of my heart,
Blessed Jesu;
Bliss unto my soul thou art,
Holy Jesu;
Sure defence from Satan's dart,
Sweetest Jesu.

Nought is lovelier than thou,
Dearest Jesu;
None is friendlier than thou,
Gentlest Jesu;
Nor is any sweet as thou,
Sweetest Jesu.

Antiphon

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

First Ebensong of Christmas

Chorale-Preludes:

God's Son is come
Praise to the Almighty God
A Babe is born in Bethlehem

Psalm 144

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis

Hymn (English Hymnal, 14)

Come, thou Redeemer of the earth,
And manifest thy virgin-birth:
Let every age adoring fall,
Such birth befits the God of all.

Begotten of no human will,
But of the Spirit, thou art still
The Word of God in flesh arrayed,
The promised fruit to man displayed.

The virgin womb that burden gained
With virgin honour all unstained;
The banners there of virtue glow;
God in his temple dwells below.

Forth from his chamber goeth he,
That royal home of purity,
A giant in twofold substance one,
Rejoicing now his course to run.

Thy cradle here shall glitter bright,
And darkness breathe a newer light,
Where endless faith shall shine serene,
And twilight never intervene.

All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee:
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 78 O little town of Bethlehem Lewis H. Redner, 1868

Introit Tone VIII

Whenas all the world was in profoundest quietness, and night was in the midst of her swift course, thine Almighty Word, O Lord, leaped down from heaven, out of thy royal throne.

Ps. The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel and girded himself with strength. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Henschel in D

Gradual Tone III

Thou art fairer than the children of men: full of grace are thy lips. V. My heart is inditing of a good matter, I speak of the things which I have made unto the King: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

Alleluia Tone II

The Lord is King, and hath put on glorious apparel: the Lord hath put on his apparel and girded himself with strength.

Hymn 74 Of the Father's love begotten Mode V

Credo Henschel

Offertory Tone VIII

God hath made the round world so sure that it cannot be moved: ever since the world began, O God, hath thy seat been prepared; thou art from everlasting.

Anthem J. S. Bach

Good news from heaven the angels bring, Ah! dearest Jesus, Holy Child,
Glad tidings to the earth they sing; Make thee a bed, soft, undefiled,
To us this day a Child is given, Within my heart that it may be
To crown us with the joy of heaven. A quiet chamber kept for thee.

Praise God upon his heavenly throne,
He gave to us his only Son;
For this his hosts on joyful wing,
A blest New Year of mercy sing.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Henschel

Communio Tone VII

Fear thou not, for I am with thee: be not dismayed, for I am thy God. I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee: yea, I will uphold thee by the right hand of my righteousness.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Henschel

Antiphon Mode V

Anthem - Basque Folksong, arr. by Dickinson

O Bethlehem!
 O little town all still and sleeping
 In thee this night great things are wrought!
 Jesus, the world's Redeemer holy,
 Is born in thee, in manger lowly.

O Bethlehem!
 What wondrous light around thee shineth.
 The gates of heaven are opened wide,
 With Angels' songs the skies are ringing,
 Peace and good will the song they're singing.

O Bethlehem!
 A mother o'er the crib is bending,
 Softly she sings sweet lullaby:
 'Sleep, little Babe, and take thy rest,
 In thee shall all mankind be blest.'

O Bethlehem!
 Our lonely hearts to thee are turning,
 O little Child in manger bare,
 Here would we kneel in adoration,
 And find in thee the world's salvation.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Schubert

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Hymn 480 Jesus shall reign

John Hatton, 1793

Anthem (from the Childhood of Jesus)

Hector Berlioz

Born among us, in the manger,	Kings from far our Babe did cherish,
The Child must leave his dwelling place,	But now already cometh change,
Even in hour of dread and danger,	By a king ordained to perish,
His Father's pride, His Mother's grace!	The Child must seek a shelter strange!
Grow in beauty, grow in duty,	Ne'er forget us, aye, regret us,
Parent of a glorious race.	Wheresoe'er thy feet may range!

May Almighty mercy lead you,
From home of peace, alas, exiled!
May the Holy Shepherd feed you,
Where'er ye go, in wood or wild!
Nothing harm you, nought alarm you,
Faithful pair, and Blessed Child!

Now are the weary pilgrims led to a place where pleasant grass is growing, with palm trees waving overhead, while from the rock a stream is flowing.

Said Saint Joseph: Here will we rest, here amid the trees is water shining, our weary limbs reclining, here will we rest.

The Holy Child was sleeping, the Mother ever keeping watch o'er his slumber, softly said: Ah, see how God hath spread this lovely flowery bed to rest my darling Child, even here in deserts wild.

In the shade they rest together, beneath the trees the ass they tether, there lies the Child in slumber mild. On the holy pair quiet sleep now is stealing with visions of happier days, while the Angels of heaven sing their anthems of praise, round the Blessed Babe lowly kneeling: Alleluia!

Hymn 4 Christ, Whose glory fills the skies

Werner's Choralbuch, 1815

Introit

Tone V

The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Aeternae Christe Munera)

Palestrina

Gradual

Tone III

Thou art a refuge in due time of trouble; they that know thee will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, never failest them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract

Tone VIII

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

Hymn 254 How wondrous and great thy works

Michael Haydn, 1737-1806

Credo

Palestrina

Offertory

Tone VIII

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest.

Hymn 113 Fight the good fight

William Boyd, 1864

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Palestrina

Communio

Tone I

Shew thy servant the light of the countenance: and save me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be confounded, O Lord: for I have called upon thee.

Tantum Ergo

Vittoria

Therefore we, before Him bending
This great Sacrament revere;
Types and shadows have their ending
For the newer rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense befriending,
Makes our inward vision clear.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son,
Honour, thanks, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing
Who from Both with Both is One. Amen.

Antiphon

Mode IV

Like the olive-branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Blessed Jesu, we are here

Psalm 106

Tone VI

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and III with faux-bourbons
by Geoffrey Shaw

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 33)

Mode II

Creator of the world, to thee
An endless rest of joy belongs;
And heavenly choirs are ever free
To sing on high their festal songs.

O Father, who dost promise still
That they who mourn shall blessed be,
Grant us to weep for deeds of ill
That banish us so long from thee;

But we are fallen creatures here,
Where pain and sorrow daily come;
And how can we in exile drear
Sing out, as they, sweet songs of home?

But, while we weep, grant faith to rest
In hope upon thy loving care;
Till thou restore us, with the blest,
Their songs of praise in Heaven to share.

Anthem

Edward Elgar

Doubt not thy Father's care!
For every grief he finds relief,
And answers every prayer.
Night comes: the sun is lost;
Night comes: He doth provide
In the heavens wide
The gleam of a starry host.

Night comes: the soul is dark;
All joy is dead, all gladness fled,
And life has missed its mark
Then Thou the wounded soul
In that sad hour, with healing power
Dost touch, and makest whole.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331

Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

Hymn 116 Oft in danger, oft in woe Henry J. Gauntlett, 1852

Introit Tone I

Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awaken and cast us not away for ever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise and save us, O Lord our helper and our deliverer.

Ps. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us, Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevissima) Claudio Casciolini

Gradual Tone III

Let the nations know that thou whose name is Jehovah: art only the Most Highest over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.

Tract Tone VIII

Thou hast moved the land, O Lord, and divided it: heal the sores thereof for it shaketh. That they may triumph because of the truth: that thy beloved may be delivered.

Hymn 117 He who would valiant be Winfred Douglas, 1917

Credo (Mass in A minor) Casciolini

Offertory Tone IV

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words. Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord: thou that art the Saviour of them that put their trust in thee.

Psalm 136 Tone III-6

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and III with faux-bourbons
by Geoffrey Shaw

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 34) Mode IV

O God, the joy of heaven above, But ere, O Lord, this lovely earth
Thou didst not need thy creatures' love, From thy creative will had birth,
When from thy secret place was said Thou in thy counsels didst unfold
The word that earth's foundation laid. Another world of fairer mould.

Thou spakest;—worlds began to be; That world doth our Redeemer frame,
They stand before thy majesty; And build upon his mighty Name;
And all to their Creator raise His Church shall last in heaven for aye,
A wondrous harmony of praise. Till time itself hath passed away. Amen.

Anthem Zingarelli

Go not far from me, O God; cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise, that I may sing thy glory and honour all the day long.

Introit

Be thou my God and Defender, and a place of refuge that thou mayest save me; for thou art my upholder, my refuge and my Saviour: and for thy Holy Name's sake be thou my leader, and my sustainer.

Ps. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion: deliver me in thy righteousness, and save me. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison

Deus Sempiternus, Mode IV

Gradual

Thou art the God that only doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people. V. Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Tract

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Come before his presence with a song: be ye sure that the Lord He is God. It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

O Food of men wayfaring,
That Angels eke are sharing,
O Manna most divine;
We hunger sore, supply us
With sweetness, nor deny us
Who for thy Presence pine.

O Well of grace redeeming,
With charity o'er-streaming
From Jesu's spotless side,
Refresh thy sons and daughters
Athirst for living waters
Till all be satisfied.

O Jesu Christ, Whom hidden
'Neath form of Bread, as bidden
On earth we magnify;
Vouchsafe us, this life ended
When earthly veils are rended,
To see thee eye to eye.

Anthem

John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Hymn 123 Forty days and forty nights

Martin Herbst, 1676

Introit

Tone VIII

He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him and bring him to honour; with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison

Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual

Tone II

God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. V. They shall bear thee in their hands: lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract

Tone VIII

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night.

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Credo I

Mode IV

Offertory

Tone VIII

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourbons by Bach

Hymn (English Hymnal, 65)

Rouen Church Melody

The fast, as taught by holy lore,
We keep in solemn course once more:
The fast to all men known and bound
In forty days of yearly round.

In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all,
And weep before the Judge's feet
And his avenging wrath entreat.

The laws and seers that were of old
In divers ways this Lent foretold,
Which Christ, all seasons' King and guide
In after ages sanctified.

Forgive the sin that we have wrought,
Increase the good that we have sought
That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please thee here and evermore.

More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take,
Our sleep and mirth, — and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.

We pray thee, Holy Trinity,
One God, unchanging Unity,
That we from this our abstinence
May reap the fruits of penitence. Amen.

Hymn 389 Hark, my soul, it is the Lord - Dykes, 1862

Introit - - - - Tone IV

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving kindness toward us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa S. Joannis) - Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - Tone V

The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O Lord, bring thou me out of my troubles. V. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

Tract - - - - Tone II

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth or ever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that alway keep judgment: and do righteousness. Remember us, O Lord, according to the favor that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit us with thy salvation,

Hymn 124 Lord, when we bend before thy throne
Christopher Tye, 1553

Credo I - - - - Mode IV

Offertory - - - - Tone II

My delight shall be in thy commandments, which I have loved exceedingly: my hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Titcomb

Communio - - - - Tone V

Consider my meditation; O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling. my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer, O Lord.

Motet - - - - Jacques Clement

We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee: for by thy Holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

Antiphon - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive-branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Chorale-Preludes: - - - J. S. Bach

In thee have I put my trust
When in the hour of deepest need
If thou but suffer God to guide thee

Psalm 119 (verses 33-72) - - Tones I-10, IV-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and VI, with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) - - Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day; Thou drivest darksome night away! We know thee as the Light of light, Illuminating mortal sight.

Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay;
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake;
Be thy right hand upheld above
Thy servants resting in thy love.

Blest Three in One and One in Three,
Almighty God, we pray to thee
That thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless
Our fast with fruits of righteousness.
Amen.

Antiphon (Cantata 78) - - - Bach

Chorale; Jesu, my beloved Saviour, by thy death thou dost me save,
Out of darkness and destruction, from the terror of the grave,
By thy might the victory gaineth, and thy truth to us revealeth,
In thy Holy, Blessed Word: Be thou still our help, O Lord.

Aria-Duetto: We hasten with feeble, but diligent footsteps, O Jesu, O Master, for help unto thee! Thou tenderly seekest the sick and the erring.
Ah, hear us! We lift up our voices, for succour we pray thee!
Vouchsafe unto us the light of thy countenance.

Chorale: Lord, thy Word have I believed, let despair affright me not, Grant that strength may be received, when to death my soul is brought;

In thy goodness all-confiding, in thy mercy still abiding,
Lord, protect me by thy grace, till I meet thee, face to face.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness

Healey Willan

Gradual

Tone III

Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract

Tone VIII

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters. And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of their mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: Have mercy upon us.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and VI, with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 67)

Thomas Campion, 1575-1619

Now is the healing time decreed
For sins of heart, of word or deed,
When we in humble fear record
The wrong that we have done the Lord;

Therefore with fasting and with prayer,
Our secret sorrow we declare;
With all good striving seek his face,
And lowly hearted plead for grace.

Who, alway merciful and good,
Has borne so long our wayward mood,
Nor cut us off unsparingly
In our so great iniquity.

Cleanse us, O Lord, from every stain,
Help us the meed of praise to gain,
Till with the Angels linked in love
Joyful we tread thy courts above.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer addrest,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

Anthem

Johannes Brahms

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall have comfort. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. Who goeth forth and weepeth, and beareth precious seed, shall doubtless return with rejoicing, and bring his sheaves with him.

Hymn 316 Jesus, the very thought of thee

Dykes, 1866

Introit

Tone V

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that delight in her: exult and sing for joy with her, all ye that in sadness mourn for her; that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolation.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Vittoria

Gradual

Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Tract

Tone VIII

They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Syon: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. The hills stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.

Hymn 154 When I survey the wondrous Cross

Communio

Tone IV

Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself: for thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord, to give thanks unto thy Name, O Lord.

Motet

Anton Bruckner

Therefore we, before Him bending
This great Sacrament revere;
Types and shadows have their ending,
For the newer Rite is here;
Faith, our outward sense befriending,
Makes our inward vision clear.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son,
Honour, thanks, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing
Who from Both with Both is One. Amen.

Hymn 160 We sing the praise of Him who died

Leipzig, 1625

Anthem (Cantata 54)

Bach

Aria: Watch and pray when trials beset thee, lest the tempter should prevail. On the strength of God relying, or in living, or in dying, let not fear thy soul assail.

Recitative: The way of wicked men, how fair, how pleasant it appears; but they who walk therein find only disappointment and bitterness of soul. All radiantly it shines, as it were paved with gold; but soon the shadows gather round, and all is darkness. 'Tis like a tree in Sodom planted, and none who in its fruit take pleasure can enter into God's own kingdom. 'Tis like a sharp two-edged sword that can the soul and body both destroy.

Chorale: If thou but suffer God to guide thee,
And hope in Him through all thy ways,
He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee,
And bear thee through the evil days;
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the rock that nought can move.

Hymn 338 (Part I) Now, my tongue, the mystery telling Mode III

Introit Tone IV

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God and my strong salvation.

Ps. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Kyrie Eleison Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual Tone III

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. V. It is thou, Lord, that deliverest me from my cruel enemies, and settest me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

Tract Tone VIII

Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up, may Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers ploughed upon my back, And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

Tone VIII

Be not thou far from me, O Lord; thou art my succour, haste thee to help me. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison

Emilio Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual

Tone IV

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipped; and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract

Tone VIII

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint.

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou worship of Israel.

Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: a very scorn of men and the outcast of his people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads saying; He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him if he will have him.

They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

Credo I

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in } 172 Jesus Christ is risen today Lyra Davidica, 1708
 Procession } 178 At the Lamb's High Feast Jacob Heintze, 1678

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia: thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in E minor) - - - - - Anton Bruckner

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

This is the day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it. V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VII

Christ our Passover: is sacrificed for us.

Sequence - - - - - Mode I

Christians, to the Paschal Victim, offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous; the Prince of Life who died reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring: 'The Tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesu's Resurrection; bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.'

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen. Alleluia.

Credo - - - - - Bruckner

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

Motet (Surrexit Pastor Bonus) - - - - - Orlando di Lasso

The Shepherd has arisen, who willingly laid down his own life, that they, his sheep, might live; and his flock to ransom, to die was worthy deemed, alleluia.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Bruckner

Communio - - - - - Tone VI

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluia: therefore let us keep the Feast with the unleavened Bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Bruckner

Antiphon - - - - - Mode III

I will receive the Cup of Salvation, and I will offer the sacrifice of praise, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

 Christ lay in bonds of death

Psalm 118 - - - - - Tone I-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - - - Tones II and III
with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 125) - - - - - French Church Melody

The Lamb's high Banquet we await
 In snow-white robes of royal state;
 And now, the Red Sea's channel past,
 To Christ, our Prince, we sing at last.

O thou from whom hell's monarch flies,
 O great, O very Sacrifice,
 Thy captive people are set free,
 And endless life restored in thee.

Upon the Altar of the Cross
 His body hath redeemed our loss;
 And, tasting of his roseate Blood
 Our life is hid with him in God.

For Christ, arising from the dead,
 From conquered hell victorious sped;
 He thrusts the tyrant down to chains,
 And Paradise for man regains.

That Paschal eve God's arm was bared;
 The devastating Angel spared:
 By strength of hand our hosts went free
 From Pharaoh's ruthless tyranny.

Maker of all, to thee we pray,
 Fulfil in us thy joy today;
 When death assails, grant, Lord, that we
 May share thy Paschal victory.

Now Christ our Paschal Lamb is slain,
 The Lamb of God that knows no stain;
 The true Oblation offered here,
 Our own unleavened Bread sincere.

To thee, who dead, again dost live,
 All glory, Lord, thy people give;
 All glory, as is ever meet
 To Father and to Paraclete. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Handel

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain: and hath redeemed us to God by his blood, to receive power, and riches: and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

Blessing and honour, glory and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne; and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - - - Sarum Plain-song, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide
 The gate of heaven to man below,
 Our foes press on from every side,
 Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
 For evermore, blest One in Three:
 O grant us life that shall not end,
 In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven, alleluia,
 R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

Organ—Alleluia, Pascha Nostra - - - - - Everett Titcomb

Offertory

Tone VIII

The Angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and said unto the women: He whom ye seek is risen, as he said, Alleluia.

Motet

Makarov, 19th century

An Angel said to Mary, full of grace: Hail, O Virgin most pure, rejoice, thy Son is risen from the tomb on the third day as He said, and all the dead are risen through Him.

All peoples of the earth, rejoice; new Jerusalem, receive the light, for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee: chant songs of joy, O Sion. And thou, O Mary, most pure Mother of God, rejoice in the Resurrection of thy Son.

Praise our Redeemer, our Lord. Amen.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 213)

18th Century Melody

Hail, O Star that pointest
Towards the port of heaven,
Thou to whom as maiden
God for Son was given.

Jesus's tender Mother,
Make thy supplication
Unto him who chose thee
At his Incarnation;

When the salutation
Gabriel had spoken,
Peace was shed upon us,
Eden's bonds were broken.

That, O matchless Maiden,
Passing meek and lowly,
Thy dear Son may make us
Blameless, chaste and holy.

Bound by Satan's fetters,
Health and vision needing,
God will aid and light us
At thy gentle pleading.

So, as now we journey,
Aid our weak endeavour,
Till we gaze on Jesus,
And rejoice for ever.

Father, Son and Spirit,
Three in One confessing,
Give we equal glory,
Equal praise and blessing, Amen.

Motet (Tota pulchra es Maria)

Anton Bruckner

Ever lovely art thou, Mary, original sin is not found in thee;
Thou, the glory of Jerusalem; Thou that art the joy of Israel;
Thou that art truly honoured by all the nations; thou who doth plead in heaven for our sins:

Holy Mary, ever blessed, Virgin pure and undefiled,
Mother thou of clemency: Pray for us sinners, Intercede thou for us through thy Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Hymn 326 The King of love my Shepherd is J. B. Dykes, 1868

Introit - - - - Tone IV

The loving-kindness of the Lord filleth the whole world, alleluia: by the word of God the heavens were stablished, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Quinta Toni) - Di Lasso

Alleluia - - - - Tone V

The Disciples knew the Lord Jesus: in the breaking of bread. Alleluia. I am the Good Shepherd: and know my sheep, and am known of mine. Alleluia.

Hymn 176 Jesus lives! - Henry J. Gauntlett, 1852

Credo - - - - Di Lasso

Offertory - - - - Tone II

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: and lift up my hands in thy Name, alleluia.

Anthem - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: Love one another with a pure heart fervently; see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the word of the Lord endureth for ever, for evermore. Amen!

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Di Lasso

Sister Leila's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 A. M. to 12 M.

Notices

The Philadelphia Associates of the Community of St. Mary will have as their guests for their meeting on Saturday afternoon, April 20th, at 3 o'clock, in St. Mark's Parish House, the Mother Superior of the Eastern Province and Sister Mary Regina, Sister Superior in charge of St. Mary's School, Peekskill. It is hoped that many of the Associates, the alumnae of St. Mary's School, and their friends, will be present to greet our guests on that afternoon. Tea will be served.

There will be a Retreat for Women at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, on April 17, beginning with Holy Eucharist at 8.30 and closing at 4 P. M. The Conductor will be the Rev. Wm. T. Metz.

There will also be a Quiet Evening for Women at St. Margaret's House on Ascension Eve, May 1, from 5 to 9.15 P. M. The Conductor will be the Rev. Frank Damrosch.

Please notify the Sister-in-Charge if you plan to attend, and specify if over-night accommodation is desired.

The Spring Presentation of the United Thankoffering will be held on Thursday, May 9th, at 10.30 A. M., at St. Stephen's Church, 10th St. below Market. The Bishop will be the Celebrant, assisted by the Rev. Herbert W. Jones, with a sermon by the Rev. George A. Trowbridge, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. Blue boxes may be obtained at the office or from the Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Alfred Hand.

The following is taken from a letter received from Mrs. F. R. Packard, Diocesan Treasurer of the U. T. O.—

'The last year of the Triennium has come. Will Pennsylvania still be at the top? Are we ready to put forth our best efforts of prayer and work? Only if we really care can we succeed. To increase in the same proportion as most other dioceses each parish would have to increase its offering about one-third, which would be comparatively easy if we could reach more women.'

Individual instruction for Confirmation may be arranged for by special appointment. Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy.

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper Parish Hall at 10 A. M. on Sundays.

Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments; Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals; Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath Praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

SOLEMN HIGH MASS AT 9.30 A. M.

Hymns 288, 278

The Ordinary of the Mass

Healey Willan in D

Office Hours

The Rector's Office Hours are daily, except Saturdays, from 10 to 11 A. M.

Sister Leila's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 A. M. to 12 M.

Notices

Thursday, April 25th, will be St. Mark's Day. There will be a Solemn High Mass at 9.30.

There will be a Quiet Evening for Women at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, on Ascension Eve, May 1, from 5 to 9.15 P. M. The Conductor will be the Rev. Frank Damrosch. Please notify the Sister-in-Charge if you plan to attend, and specify if over-night accommodation is desired.

The Spring Meeting of the Altar Guild of the Diocese will be held on Wednesday, May 1st, in St. James's Church, 22nd and Walnut Streets. Evensong will be sung at 7.30 P. M. Rev. Edmund H. Carhart, Rector of St. Mark's Church, Frankford, will make the address. Any women who are interested are invited to attend.

Refreshments will be served immediately following the Meeting in the Churchwomen's Club. Please send acceptances to the Secretary, Mrs. Shipley Thomas, 202 South 19th Street, not later than April 27th.

The Spring Presentation of the United Thankoffering will be held on Thursday, May 9th, at 10.30 A. M., at St. Stephen's Church, 10th St. below Market. The Bishop will be the Celebrant, assisted by the Rev. Herbert W. Jones, with a sermon by the Rev. George A. Trowbridge, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Chestnut Hill. Blue boxes may be obtained at the office or from the Treasurer of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Alfred Hand.

The following is taken from a letter received from Mrs. F. R. Packard, Diocesan Treasurer of the U. T. O.—

'The last year of the Triennium has come. Will Pennsylvania still be at the top? Are we ready to put forth our best efforts of prayer and work? Only if we really care can we succeed. To increase in the same proportion as most other dioceses each parish would have to increase its offering about one-third, which would be comparatively easy if we could reach more women.'

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or Sister Helen. Leila

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper Parish Hall at 9.30 A. M. on Sundays.

Hymn Thomas Turlon, 1844

From out the cloud of amber light, The lion-faced, he told abroad
Borne on the whirlwind of the north, The strength of love, the strength of faith
Four living creatures wing'd and bright, He showed the Almighty Son of God,
Before the Prophet's eye came forth. The Man of God who won by death.

The voice of God was in the Four O Lion of the Royal Tribe,
Beneath that awful crystal mist, Strong Son of God, and strong to save,
And every wondrous form they wore All power and honour we ascribe, Foreshadow'd an Evangelist. To Thee who only makest brave.

For strength to love, for will to speak,
For fiery crowns by Martyrs won,
For suffering patience, strong and meek,
We praise thee, Lord, and thee alone. Amen.

Motet (Gaudet in Coelis) . . . Vittoria

Glorious in heaven are the souls of all Saints, who walked in the way of Christ the Lord Jesus. They loved him, and followed his footsteps; and as they died for the Saviour, losing life for his sake, they reign with him for ever.

Eternal Monarch, King most high, Whose Blood hath brought redemption nigh, By whom the death of Death was wrought, And conquering Grace's battle fought:	Yea, Angels tremble when they see How changed is our humanity; That flesh hath purged what flesh had stained, And God, the Flesh of God, hath reigned.
--	---

Ascending to the throne of might, And seated at the Father's right, All power in heaven is Jesu's own, That here his manhood had not known.	Be thou our joy and strong defence, Who art our future recompense: So shall the light that springs from thee Be ours through all eternity.
--	---

That so, in nature's triple frame, Each heavenly and each earthly name, And things in hell's abyss abhorred, May bend the knee and own him Lord.	O risen Christ, ascended Lord, All praise to thee let earth accord, Who art, while endless ages run, With Father and with Spirit One. Amen.

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire.
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart;
Thy blessed unction from above,
Is comfort, life, and fire of love.

Enable with perpetual light,
The dullness of our blinded sight;
Anoint and cheer our soiled face,
With the abundance of thy grace;
Keep far our foes, give peace at home,
Where thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee of both to be but One,
That through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song;
Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 151)

Beata Nobis Gaudia

Rejoice, the year upon its way
Has brought again that blessed day,
When on the chosen of the Lord
The Holy Spirit was outpoured.

These things were done in type that day,
When Eastertide had passed away,
The number told which once set free
The captive at the jubilee.

On each the fire, descending, stood
In quivering tongues' similitude—
Tongues, that their words might ready prove,
And fire, to make them flame with love.

And now, O holy God, this day
Regard us as we humbly pray,
And send us, from thy heavenly seat,
The blessings of the Paraclete.

To all in every tongue they spoke;
Amazement in the crowd awoke,
Who mocked, as overcome with wine,
Those who were filled with power divine.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, praise be done;
May Christ the Lord upon us pour
The Spirit's gift for evermore. Amen.

Be present, Holy Trinity, Like splendour, and one Deity: Of things above, and things below, Beginning, that no end shall know.	And we, too, thanks and homage pay, Thine own adoring flock today; O join to that celestial song, The praises of our suppliant throng!
---	---

Thee all the armies of the sky Adore, and laud, and magnify; And Nature, in her triple frame, For ever sanctifies thy name.	Light, sole and one, we thee confess, With triple praise we rightly bless; Alpha and Omega we own, With every spirit round thy throne.
--	---

To thee, O unbegotten One,
And lhee, O sole-begotten Son,
And thee, O Holy Ghost, we raise
Our equal and eternal praise. Amen.

Anthem (St. Patrick's Prayer) arranged by Charles Burke

I bind unto myself this day The glory of the Trinity, I humbly praise the awful Name, The Three in One, the One in Three.	Christ in safety, Christ in danger, Christ beside each friend and stranger, Christ consoling all that love me, Christ be with me this day.
--	---

Christ be near me, Christ within me, Christ be ever before me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ be with me this day.	I bind unto myself this day, The stable earth, the deep salt sea, The sweet pale moon, the sun's bright ray, The whirling winds, the lightning free.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS AT 9.30 A. M.

Hymn 328, 339

The Ordinary of the Mass - - - - - Missa de Angelis

Office Hours

The Rector's Office Hours are daily, except Saturdays, from 10 to 11 A. M.

Sister Leila's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 A. M. to 12 M.

Notices

THURSDAY, MAY 23rd, WILL BE THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI. THE MASSES FOR COMMUNION ARE AT 7 AND 7.45. THERE WILL BE A HIGH MASS AT 9.30 AND A LOW MASS AT 12.10.

First Vespers of Corpus Christi will be said after Evensong on May 22nd. Second Vespers after Evensong on the Feast of Corpus Christi, May 23d, followed by the annual meeting of St. Mark's Ward in the Parish Parlor.

There will be a Quiet Evening for Women—Members of the C.B.S. on Corpus Christi Eve., May 22nd, from 5 to 9 P. M. The Conductor will be the Rev. Moorhouse L. Johnson. Please notify the Sister-in-Charge if you plan to attend, and specify if over-night accommodation is desired.

At the Spring In-Gathering of the United Thank Offering held at St. Stephen's Church on May 9th, the total Offering made was $14,000.16 and the Offerings from this Parish were: From St. Mark's, $825.00. From St. Mary's, $55.70. From St. Michael's, $28.90.

While this parish showed only a slight increase in the number of contributors, it did show a definite increase in the amount contributed over the same period last year. The total of $14,000.16 received from the Diocese at this period was slightly less than the same period three years ago, therefore the books for this Offering will not be closed until July 1st and any who have not yet sent in their Spring Offering will have an opportunity to do so.

The Evening Auxiliary is sponsoring the sale of Forward Movement Booklets. Copies can be obtained at the rear of the Church. The cost is five cents each.

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or Sister Helen.

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper Parish Hall at 10 A. M. on Sundays.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 328 Jesus, Thou Joy of loving hearts Mode I

Introit - - - - Tone II

He fed them also with the finest wheat-flour, alleluia: and with honey from the rock hath he satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A minor) - Lovelock

Gradual - - - - Tone VII

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia - - - - Tone VIII

My Flesh is meat indeed; and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

Sequence - - Mechlin Vesperale, Mode IV

Laud, O Syon, thy salvation, —	Here beneath these signs are hidden
Laud, with hymns of exultation,	Priceless things, to sense forbidden,
Christ, thy King and Shepherd true;	Signs, not things, are all we see;
Bring him all the praise thou knowest,	Blood is poured, and Flesh is broken,
He is more than thou bestowest,	Yet in either wondrous token
Never canst thou reach his due.	Christ entire we know to be.

Full and clear ring out thy chanting,	Whoso of this Food partaketh,
Joy, nor sweetest grace be wanting,	Rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh,
From thy heart let praises burst;	Christ is whole to all that taste;
For today the Feast is holden	Thousands are, as one, receivers,
When the Institution olden	One, as thousands of believers,
Of that Supper was rehearsed.	Eats of him who cannot waste.

Credo - - - - Lovelock

Offertory - - - - Tone IV

The priests of the Lord offer burnt-offerings and Bread unto God: and therefore shall they be holy unto their God, and shall not profane his Name, alleluia.

Motet - - - - Bachmetiev, 19th Century

Take the Body of Christ, O taste the source of immortality. Alleluia.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Lovelock

Communio - - - - Tone VII

As often as ye eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this Bread and drink this Cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - Lovelock

Antiphon - - - - Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Cibavit Eos - - Everett Titcomb

Solemn Quensong

Psalm 119 (verses 145-176) - Tones I-4, III-4

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - Naylor in A

Sister Leila's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 A. M. to 12 M.

Notices

The Evening Auxiliary will have a supper meeting on Monday, May 27th, at 6 P. M., in the parish hall. All interested women are invited to come.

If you have not sent in your contribution to the Summer Appeal we shall be very glad to receive it at your early convenience in order that we can plan accordingly.

The Evening Auxiliary is sponsoring the sale of Forward Movement Booklets. Copies can be obtained at the rear of the Church. The price is five cents per copy.

The following is a copy of a letter received from Bishop Taitt, of importance to us all:—

“We are all aware of the terrible condition that exists in all of Europe; a condition that I do not hesitate to say has never been equalled for atrocity in the history of the world. —

“May I ask that in every Church on Sunday, prayers be offered for these suffering fellow Christians of ours, and that each Clergyman in his private devotions offer supplication to Almighty God for their relief, and to the bringing of peace on earth.

“It is planned to have the Cathedral open every Friday, inviting passers-by to come in and pray for peace.”

Persons desiring to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or Sister Leila.

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper Parish Hall at 10 A. M. on Sundays.

Hymn 232 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds Reinagle, 1836

Introit - - - - - Tone I

The Lord was my refuge and upholder; and he brought me forth into a place of liberty: he brought me forth, even because he delighted in me.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevissima) - Claudio Casciolini

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

When I was in trouble I called upon the Lord: and he heard me. V. Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

O Lord my God, in thee have I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me and deliver me.

Hymn 91 Conquering kings their titles take - Handel, 1728

Credo (Mass in A minor) - - - Casciolini

Offertory - - - - - Tone VI

Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

Motet (Exultate Deo) - - - - Scarlatti

Praise and Bless the Saviour: for he hath redeemed us.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - Casciolini

Communio - - - - - Tone II

I will sing of the Lord because he hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea, I will praise the Name of the Lord Most Highest.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - Casciolini

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Hymn 89 To the Name of our Salvation Caspar Ett, 1840

Anthem - - - - - John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus, Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Hymn 445 O God, our help in ages past William Croft, 1708

Introit - - - - - Tone II

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom then shall I fear? the Lord is the stronghold of my life, of whom shall I be afraid? When mine enemies pressed sore upon me, they stumbled and fell.

Ps. Though an host of men were laid against me: yet shall not my heart be afraid. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) - Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

Be merciful, O Lord, unto my sins: wherefore do the heathen say, Where is now their God? V. Help us, O God of our salvation: and for the glory of thy Name, O Lord, deliver us.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

O God, who art set in the throne and judgest right: be thou a refuge for the oppressed in the time of trouble.

Hymn 254 How wondrous and great Michael Haydn, 1737-1806

Credo - - - - - Mode IV

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

Lighten mine eyes that I sleep not in death: lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him.

Anthem - - - - - Johannes Brahms

The King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.

Hymn 312 God of mercy, God of grace Henry Smart, 1866

Credo - - - - - Lovelock

Offertory - - - - - Tone I

I will thank the Lord for giving me warning: I have set God always before me; for he is on my right hand, therefore I shall not fall.

Motet - - - - - Palestrina

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks; even so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Lovelock

Communion - - - - - Tone VII

One thing have I desired of the Lord which I will require: even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Lovelock

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord
endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn 237 When all thy mercies, O my God Tallis, 1567

Introit - - - - - Tone II

The Lord is the strength of his people and a stronghold of salvation to his Anointed One: O Lord, save thine own people and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance; O feed them also, and set them up for ever.

Ps. Unto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: think no scorn of me lest if you make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Mode V, Altissimus

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

Turn us again, O Lord, at the last: and be gracious unto thy servants.
V. Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust; let me never be put to confusion: deliver me in thy righteousness and save me. Bow down thine ear to me: make haste to deliver me.

Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care - - - - - Bourgeois, 1551

Credo - - - - - Darke in F

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths that my footsteps slip not: incline thine ear to me and hearken unto my words. Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord: thou that art the Saviour of them which put their trust in thee.

Motet - - - - - Tschaikowsky

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord; praise it, all ye servants of the Lord. Alleluia.

O praise Him. Praised be the Lord out of Zion! Praised be the Lord, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Alleluia.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven Goss, 1869

Introit Tone III

All that thou hast done to us, O Lord, thou hast done in true judgment; for we have sinned and not obeyed thy commandments: but give glory to thy Name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa da Quinti Toni) Di Lasso

Gradual Tone VII

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia Tone V

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing and give praise unto thee, my glory. Alleluia.

Hymn 237 When all thy mercies, O my God Tallis, 1567

Credo Di Lasso

Offertory Tone I

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept: when we remembered thee, O Sion.

Anthem Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal Light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin, is Lord, but thou, O Son of God. Thy Word is now our sovereign law. Therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the Perfect Day on us for evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Di Lasso

Communio Tone IV

Think upon thy servant, O Lord, as concerning thy Word; wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust: the same is my comfort in my trouble.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Di Lasso

Antiphon Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Cortege and Litany Marcel Dupre

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 32, 33, 34 Tones I-8, III-5, VII-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Stanford in B flat

Hymn 11 Sarum Plainsong, Mode VIII

Motet (Exultate Deo) Scarlatti

Praise and Bless the Saviour, for he hath redeemed us.

Devotions

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 328 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts . . . Mode I

Introit . . . Tone IV

The whole world, O Lord, is in thy power; and there is no man that can resist thee: for thou hast made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all the wondrous things under heaven: thou art Lord of all.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A) . . . Rheinberger

Gradual . . . Tone II

Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another. V. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

Alleluia . . . Tone V

When Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people. Alleluia.

Hymn 116 Oft in danger, oft in woe . . . Gauntlett, 1852

Credo . . . Rheinberger

Offertory . . . Tone II

Thou art my portion, O Lord; I have promised to keep thy law: I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart; O be merciful unto me, according to thy Word.

Motet . . . Tschaikowsky

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord; praise it, all ye servants of the Lord. Alleluia.

O praise Him. Praised be the Lord out of Zion! Praised be the Lord, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Alleluia.

O commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. Alleluia.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei . . . Rheinberger

Communio . . . Tone I

My soul hath longed for thy salvation, and I have a good hope because of thy word: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me? they persecute me falsely, O Lord my God, be thou my help.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo . . . Rheinberger

Antiphon . . . Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Orlando Gibbons (Short Service)

Hymn 25 All praise to thee, my God, this night Tallis, 1567

Motet (Evening Cantata) . . . Percy Whitlock

Round me falls the night;
Saviour, be my light:
Through the hours in darkness shrouded
Let me see thy face unclouded:
Let thy glory shine
In this heart of mine.

In thine arms I rest me,
Foes who would molest me
Cannot reach me here
O may my soul on thee repose
And may sweet sleep
Mine eyelids close.

Earthly work is done,
Earthly sounds are none;
Rest in sleep and silence seeking,
Let me hear thee softly speaking;
In my spirit's ear
Whisper, 'I am near.'

Blessed heavenly Light,
Shining through earth's night;
Voice, that oft of love hast told me,
Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me;
Thou thy watch wilt keep,
Saviour, o'er my sleep.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only that makest me dwell in safety. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 464 The Church's One Foundation S. S. Wesley, 1864

Introit - - - - - Tone III

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it? for there is mercy with thee, O God of Israel.

Ps. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - - - - - Tone I

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in unity. V. It is like the precious ointment upon the head: that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in him: he is their helper and defender. Alleluia.

Hymn 235 O Love that casts out fear Henry Smart, 1881

Credo - - - - - Harold Darke in F

Offertory - - - - - Tone I

Remember me, O Lord of all power: and give me proper speech in my mouth that my words may be pleasing unto thee.

Anthem - - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: Love one another with a pure heart fervently; see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever, for evermore. Amen.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Darke

Communio - - - - - Tone VIII

I have called upon thee, O God; for thou shalt hear me: incline thine ear, and hearken unto my words.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Darke

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III
with polyphony by Everett Titcomb

Hymn 28 Before the ending of the day - - - - - Mode VI

Motet - - - - - Haydn

Distracted with care and anguish,
When hearts despairing languish,
Madly they seek for comfort
Where it doth ne'er abide.

For us no rest remaineth,
If earth our love retaineth,
And heaven we cast aside.

Relief he only gaineth,
And peace at last attaineth,
Whom God vouchsafes to guide.

Offertory - - - - Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Anthem - - - - Handel

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain: and hath redeemed us to God by his blood, to receive power, and riches; and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

Blessing and honour, glory and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne; and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Perosi

Communio - - - - Tone I

Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire when ye pray: believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - Casciolini

Antiphon - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude-Maestoso (Symphony I) - Louis Vierne

Solemn Evensong

The Eve of SS. Simon and Jude

Psalms 1, 15 - - - - Tones I-1, III-5

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - Tones IV and VI
with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 248) - H. Roth

Thou who sentest thine Apostles
Two and two before thy face,
Partners in the night of toiling,
Heirs together of thy grace,
Throned at length, their labours ended,
Each in his appointed place:

Praise to thee for those thy champions
Whom our hymns today proclaim;
One, whose zeal by thee enlightened
Burned anew with nobler flame;
One, the kinsman of thy childhood
Brought at last to know thy name.

Praise to thee! thy fire within them
Spake in love, and wrought in power;
Seen in mighty signs and wonders
In thy Church's morning hour;
Heard in tones of sternest warning
When the storms began to lour.

God the Father, great and wondrous
In thy works, to thee be praise;
King of Saints, to thee be glory,
Just and true in all thy ways;
Praise to thee, from both proceeding,
Holy Ghost, through endless days.

Amen.

Motet - - - - Vittoria

Glorious in heaven are the souls of all Saints, who walked in the way of Christ the Lord Jesus. Thy loved him, and followed his footsteps; and as they died for the Saviour, losing life for his sake, they reign with him for ever.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Hymn 253 The God of Abraham praise Hebrew Melody, 1770

Introit - - - - - Tone VI

I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord; thoughts of peace, and not of evil: ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you; and I will bring your captivity from all places.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in D) - - - Sir George Henschel

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate us. V. We make our boast in God all day long: and will praise thy Name forever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

Hymn 261 Awake, and sing the song - - - Gauntlett, 1858

Credo - - - - - Henschel

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Anthem - - - - - John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus; ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Henschel

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire when we pray: believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Henschel

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 10) - - - Mode IV

O Father, who didst all things make
That heaven and earth might do thy will;
Bless us this night for Jesus' sake,
And for thy work preserve us still.

O Holy Ghost, who by thy power
The Church dost call and sanctify;
Seal us this night, and hour by hour,
Our hearts and members purify.

O Son, who didst redeem mankind,
And set the captive sinner free;
Keep us this night with peaceful mind
That we may safe abide in thee.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the angel-host,
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Johannes Brahms

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall have comfort. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. Who goeth forth and weepeth, and beareth precious seed, shall doubtless return with rejoicing, and bring his sheaves with him.

Offertory

Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Anthem

Vaughan-Williams

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge. Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 159)

Chartres Church Melody

Be present, Holy Trinity,
Like splendour, and one Deity;
Of things above, and things below,
Beginning, that no end shall know.

And we, too, thanks and homage pay,
Thine own adoring flock today;
O join to that celestial song
The praises of our suppliant throng!

Thee all the armies of the sky
Adore, and laud, and magnify;
And Nature, in her triple frame,
For ever sanctifies thy Name.

Light, sole and one, we thee confess,
With triple praise we rightly bless;
Alpha and Omega we own,
With every spirit round thy throne.

To thee, O unbegotten One,
And thee, O sole-begotten Son,
And thee, O Holy Ghost, we raise
Our equal and eternal praise. Amen.

Anthem

Brahms

All flesh doth perish as the grass, and all man's glory as the flower of grass that fadeth. The grass doth lie withered, and the flower thereof falleth.

Be patient, my brethren, be ye patient unto the Advent of Christ; e'en as the husbandman waiteth for the earth's precious fruit to ripen, for long he waiteth with patience, till he receive the early and latter rain. So be ye patient. Surely the Lord's word bideth for evermore.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - Stanford in B flat

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) - - - Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day,
Thou drivest darksome night away!
We know thee as the Light of Light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh
To bid the powers of darkness fly;
Keep us from sin, and guide for good
Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us tonight from danger free;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay,
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

And while the eyes soft slumber take,
Still be the heart to thee awake;
Be thy right hand upheld above
Thy servants resting in thy love.

All laud to God the Father be,
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the holy Paraclete. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Johannes Brahms

Though I speak with the tongues of men, and of the angels, and have not charity, then am I become as a sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I can prophesy, and understand all mysteries, and am powerful in knowledge, and though I have the gift of faith and can move the mountains, and have not charity, yet am I nothing worth. And though I give my worldly goods to feed the poor, and though I give my fleshly body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

For now we see the world darkly as through a glass, but then we shall see it face to face. Here I know but partly, but there I surely shall know it, even as I am also known.

Now abideth faith, and hope, and charity, these three; but the greatest of them all is charity.

How lovely is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth, yea fainteth, for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. O blest are they that dwell within thy house; they praise thy Name evermore.

Hymn 55 Come, thou long-expected Jesus - Gotha, 1715

Introit - Tone VIII

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual - Tone I

All they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord: shew me thy ways, O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia - Tone VIII

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

Sequence - Mode VII

Saviour Eternal! Health and Life of the world unailing.

Light everlasting! And in verity our redemption.

Grieving that the ages of men must perish through the tempter's subtlety,
Still in heaven abiding thou camest earthward of thine own great clemency;
Then freely and graciously deigning to assume humanity, To lost ones and perishing gavest thou thy free deliverance, filling all the world with joy.

O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse by thy perfect sacrifice, That we,
as temples pure and bright, fit for thine abode may be.

By thy former Advent justify; By thy second grant us liberty, That when
in the might of glory thou descendest, Judge of all, We in raiment undefiled bright may shine and ever follow, Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

Credo I - Mode IV

Offertory - Tone II

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Hymn 53 Hosanna to the living Lord! - Dykes, 1865

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Mass XVII, Mode V

Communio - Tone I

The Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

Tantum Ergo (Hymn 338, Part II) - Anton Bruckner

Antiphon - Mode II

The gracious Lord hath given meat unto them that fear him, in remembrance of his marvellous works.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord

Hymn (English Hymnal, 1) - Mode IV

Creator of the stars of night,
Thy people's everlasting light;
Jesu, Redeemer, save us all,
And hear thy servants when they call.

Thou, grieving that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
Hast found the medicine, full of grace
To save and heal a ruined race.

Thou cam'st, the Bridegroom of the Bride;
As drew the world to evening-tide;
Proceeding from a virgin shrine;
The spotless Victim all-divine.

At whose dread name, majestic now,
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow
And things celestial thee shall own
And things terrestrial, Lord, alone.

O thou whose coming is with dread
To judge and doom the quick and dead,
Preserve us, while we dwell below,
From every insult of the foe.

To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One;
Laud, honour, might and glory be
From age to age eternally. Amen.

Motet - Healey Willan

Lo, in the time appointed the Lord will come; the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clasp their hands:
for the Lord God shall come into his everlasting kingdom.

And upon the throne of David shall he reign for ever. Alleluia.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Sarum Plain-song, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Organ—Chorale-Prelude: Sleepers, Wake - J. S. Bach

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 58 O Word of God Incarnate Meiningen, 1693

Introit Tone VII

O people of Sion, behold, the Lord is nigh at hand to redeem the nation and in the gladness of your heart the Lord will cause his glorious voice to be heard.

Ps. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that ledest Joseph like a sheep. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Cavalieri

Gradual Tone V

Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty. V. Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

Alleluia Tone VIII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.
Alleluia.

Hymn 59 Lord, thy Word abideth Ave Hierarchia, 156

Credo I Mode II

Offertory Tone III

Wilt not thou turn again, O God, and quicken us; that thy people may rejoice in thee: shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.

Hymn 57 Lo, He comes with clouds descending Cantus Diversi, 173

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Cavalieri

Communio Tone I

Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high: and behold the joy that cometh unto thee from thy God.

Motet Anton Bruckner, 18

Jesus is a gem of price, Mine of never-failing treasure; Jesus is a Paradise, Shoreless sea of heavenly pleasure; Jesus doth as cooling dew, Thirsty plain and mead renew.	Jesus is my prize, my goal, Name, in heaven and earth, of gladness; Jesus, solace of my soul, Chaseth far despair and sadness; Therefore Jesu's Name shall be Dearest, best of names, to me.
---	---

Antiphon Mode I

The gracious Lord hath given meat unto them that fear him, remembrance of his marvellous works.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations.
his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord
endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Salve Regina (Symphony II)

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 25, 26 Tones I-10, VI

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourbons by J. S. Bach

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 15) Konig's Choralbuch, 1738

O Word, that goest forth on high, From God's own depths eternally; Who in these latter days art born For succour to a world forlorn.	And when as Judge thou drawest nigh, The secrets of all hearts to try; When vengeance falls on hidden sin, And Saints their promised reign begin;
---	--

Our hearts enlighten from above, And kindle with the fire of love; That we, who hear the call today, At length may cast our sins away.	O let us not for evil past, Be driven from thy face at last; But with the Saints in glory be To endless ages pure and free.
---	--

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee
Whose Advent doth thy people free;
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

Motet (Bone Pastor) Palestrina

Very Bread, good Shepherd, tend us, Jesus, of thy love befriend us; Thou refresh us, thou defend us; Thine eternal goodness send us In the land of life to see.	Thou who all things canstand knowest Who on earth such Food bestowest; Grant us with thy Saints, though lowest, Where the heavenly Feast thou showest, Fellow-heirs and guests to be. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 61 Rejoice, rejoice, believers! Henry Smart, 1836

Introit Tone I

Rejoice in the Lord, and again I say, rejoice ye: let your moderation be known unto all men, the Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing, nor troubled; but in all things, by prayer, let your requests be made known unto God.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison J. Kromolicki, Op. 18

Gradual Tone V

Shew thyself, O Lord, thou that sittest upon the Cherubim: stir up thy strength and come. V. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep.

Alleluia Tone VIII

Stir up thy strength, O Lord: and come and help us. Alleluia.

Hymn 282 On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry Hamburg, 1690

Credo I Mode IV

Offertory Tone IV

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob; thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people.

Hymn 67 Thou art coming, O my Saviour William H. Monk, 1870

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Kromolicki

Communio Tone VII

Say to them that are of a fearful heart: by strong, fear not; behold, your God will come and save you.

Tantum Ergo (The words of Hymn 338, Part II) Vittorio

Antiphon Mode I

The gracious Lord hath given meat unto them that fear him, remembrance of his marvellous works.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 93, 94 Tones V-3, IV-4

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III, with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn Heinrich Albert

Lo, He comes! let all adore Him;
Tis the God of grace and truth:
Go, prepare the way before Him,
Make the rugged places smooth.
Lo, He comes! the mighty Lord:
Great his work and his reward.

Let the valleys all be raised,
Go and make the crooked straight;
Let the mountains be abased,
Let all nature change its state;
Through the desert mark a road,
Make a highway for our God.

From the hills and lofty mountains
Rivers shall be seen to flow;
There the Lord will open fountains,
Hence supply the plains below:
As He passes, every land
Shall confess his powerful hand. Amen.

Motet Everett Titcomb

My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer, saith the Lord: in it every one that asketh receiveth: and he that seeketh findeth, and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Devotions

Hymn 70 The King shall come when morning dawns
William Jones, 1789

Introit Tone I

Drop down, ye heavens from above; and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let her bring forth salvation.
Ps. The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevis in E flat) . . . Healey Willan

Gradual Tone V

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: even such as call upon him faithfully. V. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name.

Alleluia Tone VIII

Come, O Lord, and tarry not: forgive the misdeeds of thy people. Alleluia.

Hymn 63 Hark! a thrilling voice is sounding Wm. H. Monk, 1850

Credo I Mode IV

Offertory Tone VIII

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Hymn 66 O come, O come, Emmanuel . . . Mode I

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei . . . Healey Willan

Communio Tone I

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bring forth a Son: and shall call his name Immanuel.

Motet Ahle-Bach

Jesu, joyance of my heart,	Nought is lovelier than thou,
Blessed Jesu:	Dearest Jesu:
Bliss unto my soul thou art,	None is friendlier than thou,
Holy Jesu:	Gentlest Jesu:
Sure defence from Satan's dart,	Nor is any sweet as thou,
Sweetest Jesu:	Sweetest Jesu:
Jesu, sweetest Jesu.	Jesu, sweetest Jesu.

Antiphon Mode II

The gracious Lord hath given meat unto them that fear him, in remembrance of his marvellous works.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Chorale in D flat Bossi

Solemn Evensong

Psalms 101, 103 Tones VII-5, V-3

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis
Tones VIII and III, with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 17) . . . Mode II

When shades of night around us close,	O come, Redeemer, come and free
And weary limbs in sleep repose,	Thine own from their iniquity;
The faithful soul awake may be	The gates of heaven again unfold
And yearning sigh, O Lord, to thee.	Which Adam's trespass closed of old.

O Thou, for whom the nations long,	All praise, Eternal Son, to thee
O Word of God, thou Saviour strong;	Whose Advent doth thy people free;
Turn unto us thy pitying eyes	Whom with the Father we adore
And bid at length the fallen rise.	And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

Motet Johannes Brahms

A white dove flew from heaven,	The gates of heaven shall open,
Down to the waiting earth,	The Lord of love shall come,
It was the Lord's fair angel	Jesus, our blest Redeemer
Who prophesied Christ's birth;	To make with men his home;
'Hail, Mary maid',	The promised Babe
Its message sweet and clear,	Is Christ, the eternal Lord,
Most blest art thou of women	By all the hosts angelic,
And unto God most dear.	From age to age adored.
Lord have mercy on us.	Lord have mercy on us.

And when our lives are ending,
The shadows closing fast,
Our hearts to thee for solace
Will turn, Lord, at the last;
From deep distress
Our prayer to thee shall rise.
In mercy, Lord, receive us,
In thy blest Paradise.
Lord have mercy on us.

Devotions

God is with us! O ye nations, understand; submit yourselves, for God is with us!

Give ear, all ye of far countries:

Gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces:

Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought:

Speak the word, and it shall not stand:

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light:

They that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined:

For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given:

God is with us! O ye nations; understand; submit yourselves, for God is with us!

Sarum Plain-song, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide

The gate of heaven to man below,

Our foes press on from every side,

Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend

For evermore, blest One in Three:

O grant us life that shall not end,

In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,

R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Hymns in } 94 As with gladness - Conrad Kocher, 1838
Procession } 95 Brightest and Best - J. P. Harding, 1862

Introit - - - - - Tone VII

Upon a throne exalted I beheld, and lo, a Man sitting, whom a legion of Angels worship, singing together: behold, his rule and governance endureth to all ages.

Ps. O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa da Quinti toni) - Di Lasso

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

Blessed be the Lord God, even the God of Israel: which only doeth wondrous things from the beginning. V. The mountains shall bring forth peace: and the little hills righteousness unto thy people.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone II

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Alleluia.

Hymn 93 Earth has many a noble city - Gotha, 1715

Credo - - - - - Di Lasso

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song; for the Lord He is God.

Anthem - - - - - William Crotch

Lo, star-led chiefs Assyrian odours bring,
And bending Magi seek their infant King
Marked ye, where, hovering o'er his radiant head,
The dove's white wings celestial glory shed?

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Di Lasso

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And how is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business.

Hymn 97 O One with God the Father Joseph Barnby, 1869

Introit Tone IV

All the earth shall worship thee, O God, and sing of thee: they shall sing praise to thy Name, O Most Highest.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Lovelock in A minor

Gradual Tone V

The Lord sent his Word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction. V. O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

Alleluia Tone II

Praise the Lord, all ye Angels of his: Praise Him, all his Hosts. Alleluia.

Hymn 105 Thy Kingdom come, O God Leighton G. Hyne, 1863

Credo Lovelock

Offertory Tone I

O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name. O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul.

Anthem (Psalm 150) Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments; Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals; Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath Praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Lovelock

Communio Tone III

There came a voice from heaven, saying: Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Lovelock

Hymn 98 How bright appears the Morning Star Philip Nicolai, 1599

Anthem (from The Childhood of Jesus) Hector Berlioz

Born among us, in the manger,
The Child must leave his dwelling place,
Even in hour of dread and danger,
His Father's pride, His Mother's grace!
Grow in beauty, grow in duty,
Parent of a glorious race.

Kings from far our Babe did cherish,
But now already cometh change,
By a king ordained to perish,
The Child must seek a shelter strange!
Ne'er forget us, aye, regret us,
Wheresoe'er thy feet may range!

May Almighty mercy lead you,
From home of peace, alas, exiled!
May the Holy Shepherd feed you,
Where'er ye go, in wood or wild!
Nothing harm you, nought alarm you,
Faithful pair and Blessed Child!

Now are the weary pilgrims led to a place where pleasant grass is growing, with palm trees waving overhead, while from the rock a stream is flowing.

Said Saint Joseph: Here will we rest, here amid the trees is water shining, our weary limbs reclining, here will we rest.

The Holy Child was sleeping, the Mother ever keeping watch o'er his slumber, softly said; Ah, see how God hath spread this lovely flowery bed to rest my darling Child, even here in deserts wild.

In the shade they rest together, beneath the trees the ass they tether, there lies the Child in slumber mild. On the holy pair quiet sleep now is stealing with visions of happier days, while the Angels of heaven sing their anthems of praise, round the Blessed Babe lowly kneeling: Alleluia!

Hymn 480 Jesus shall reign

John Hatton, 1793

Introit

Tone VII

All ye Angels of God, fall down and worship before Him: Sion heard and was exceeding joyful, and the daughters of Judah were glad.

Ps. The Lord is King, the earth may be glad thereof: yea, the multitude of the isles may be glad thereof. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Festiva in E)

J. Kromolicki

Gradual

Tone V

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. V. When the Lord shall build up Sion: and when his glory shall appear.

Alleluia

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 30)

Mode VIII

The Father's sole-begotten Son
Was born, the Virgin's child, on earth;
His Cross for us adoption won,
The life and grace of second birth.

Redeemer, come with power benign,
Dwell in the souls that look for thee;
O let thy light within us shine
That we may thy salvation see.

Forth from the height of heav'n He came, Thou camest Lord, and well we know
In form of man with man abode; That thou wilt likewise come again;
Redeemed his world from death and shame, Thy kingdom shield from every foe,
The joys of endless life bestowed. Thy honour and thy rule maintain.

Eternal glory, Lord, to thee,
Whom, now revealed, our hearts adore;
To God the Father glory be,
And Holy Spirit evermore. Amen.

Anthem

Martin

Hail, gladdening Light, of his pure glory poured,
Who is the immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine,
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung,
With undefiled tongue, Son of our God, Giver of Life, Alone!
Therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn in Procession (English Hymnal, 208) Bayeux Church Melody

All prophets hail thee, from of old announcing,
By the inbreathed Spirit of the Father,
God's Mother, bring prophecies to fullness,
Mary the maiden.

Thou the true Virgin Mother of the Highest,
Bearing incarnate God in awed obedience,
Meekly acceptest for a sinless offering,
Purification.

In the high temple Simeon receives thee,
Takes to his bent arms with a holy rapture
That promised Saviour, vision of redemption,
Christ long awaited.

Now the fair realm of Paradise attaining,
And to thy Son's throne, Mother of the Eternal,
Raised all glorious, yet in earth's devotion
Join with us always.

Glory and worship to the Lord of all things
Pay we unresting, who alone adored,
Father and Son and Spirit, in the highest Reigneth eternal.

Hymn 274 Hail to the Lord Who comes Est's Psalter, 1592

Introit Tone VII

We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple:
according to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise unto the world's end: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

Ps. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised: in the city of our God, even upon his holy hill. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A Major) Rheinberger

Gradual Tone V

We have waited, O God, for thy loving-kindness in the midst of thy temple:
according to thy Name, O God, so is thy praise unto the world's end. V. Like as we have heard, so have we seen in the city of our God: even upon his holy hill.

Alleluia Tone VI

The old man carried the Child: but the Child governed the old man.
Alleluia.

Hymn 277 Blest are the pure in heart Konig, 1738

Credo Rheinberger

Offertory Tone II

Full of grace are thy lips: because God hath blessed thee for ever.

Motet (Senex puerum portabat) Vittoria

Simeon carried the infant, but the infant governed the old man; the Virgin bare the Child, yet remained Virgin for ever: therefore we bow the knee, praising the Lord.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Rheinberger

Communion

It was revealed unto Simeon by the Holy Spirit: that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Anointed.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Rheinberger

Antiphon Mode I

Christ the Lord a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedech, offered Bread and Wine.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis E. W. Naylor in A

Hymn 273 In His Temple now behold Him Meiningen, 1693

Motet (Ave Maris Stella) Elgar

Star of Ocean fairest,
Mother, God who barest,
Virgin, thou immortal,
Heaven's blissful portal.

Mother's care displaying,
Offer him thy praying,
Who, when born our brother,
Chose thee for his Mother.

Ave thou receivest,
Gabriel's word believest,
Change to peace and gladness,
Eva's name of sadness.

Virgin all-excelling,
Gentle past our telling,
Pardoned sinners render
Gentle, chaste and tender.

Loose the bonds of terror,
Lighten blinded error,
All our ills repressing,
Pray for every blessing

In pure paths direct us,
On our way protect us,
Till on Jesus gazing
We shall join thy praising.

Father, Son, Eternal,
Holy Ghost, supernal,
With one praise we bless thee,
Three in One confess thee. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

✓ Hymn 116 Oft in danger, oft in woe - Gauntlett, 1852

Introit - - - - - Tone V

The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone III

Thou art a refuge in due time of trouble; they that know thee will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, never failest them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

✓ Hymn 4 Christ, whose glory fills the skies
Werner's Choralbuch, 1815

Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest.

Motet - - - - - Zingarelli

Go not far from me, O God; cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise, that I may sing thy glory and honour all the day long.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Titcomb

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee.

Ave Verum - - - - - Edward Elgar

Jesu, Word of God Incarnate,	Cleanse us, by the blood and water
Of the Virgin Mary born,	Streaming from thy pierced Side;
On the Cross thy Sacred Body	Feed us with thy Body broken,
For us men with nails was torn.	Now, and in death's agony.
O Jesu, hear us, Son of Mary.

Antiphon - - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Choral Varie - - - Georges Hue

Solemn Evensong

✓ Psalms 48, 49 - - - Tones I-7, II-1

✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourdon
by J. S. Bach

✓ Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 33) - - - Mode II

Creator of the world, to thee	O Father, who dost promise still
An endless rest of joy belongs;	That they who mourn shall blessed be;
And heav'nly choirs are ever free	Grant us to weep for deeds of ill
To sing on high their festal songs.	That banish us so long from Thee:
But we are fallen creatures here,	But, while we weep, grant faith to rest
Where pain and sorrow daily come;	In hope upon thy loving care;
And how can we in exile drear	Till thou restore us, with the blest
Sing out, as they, sweet songs of home?	Their songs of praise in Heav'n to share.
	Amen.

✓ Anthem (Cantata 78) - - - J. S. Bach

✓ Chorale: Jesu, my beloved Saviour, by thy death thou dost me save,
Out of darkness and destruction, from the terror of the grave;
By thy might the victory gaineth, and thy truth to us revealeth,
In thy Holy, Blessed Word: Be thou still our help, O Lord.

✓ Aria-Duetto: We hasten with feeble, but diligent footsteps, O Jesu, O Master, for help unto thee! Thou tenderly seekest the sick and the erring.
Ah, hear us! we lift up our voices, for succour we pray thee!

✓ Chorale: Lord, thy Word have I believed; let despair affright me not,
Grant that strength may be received, when to death my soul is brought
In thy goodness all-confiding, in thy mercy still abiding,
Lord, protect me by thy grace, till I meet thee, face to face.

✓ Devotions

✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three;
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn 259 Praise to the Holiest

Introit

Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awaken, and cast us not away for ever; wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? our belly cleaveth unto the ground: arise and save us, O Lord, our helper and deliverer.

Ps. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Davidica)

Gradual

Let the nations know that thou whose Name is Jehovah: art only the Most Highest over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.

Tract

Thou hast moved the land, O Lord, and divided it: heal the sores thereof, for it shaketh. V. That they may triumph because of the truth: that thy beloved may be delivered.

Hymn 117 He who would valiant be

Credo III

Offertory

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words. Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord: thou that art the Saviour of them that put their trust in thee.

Motet

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, even so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Communio

I will go unto the Altar of God: even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

Ave Verum (English Hymnal, 311)

Hail, true Body, born of Mary,
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth;
Thou who truly hangedst weary
On the Cross for sons of earth.

Thou whose sacred Side was riven,
Whence the Water flowed and Blood.
O may'st thou, dear Lord, be given
At death's hour to be our Food.

O most kind! O gracious One!
O sweetest Jesu, Holy Mary's Son. Amen.

Antiphon

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Tones VIII-2, VII-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux-bourbons
by J. S. Bach

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 34)

Mode IV

O God, the joy of heaven above,
Thou didst not need thy creatures' love,
When from thy secret place was said
The word that earth's foundation laid.

But ere, O Lord, this lovely earth
From thy creative will had birth,
Thou in thy counsels didst unfold
Another world of fairer mould.
That world doth our redeemer frame,
And build upon his mighty Name;
His Church shall last in heaven for aye
Till time itself hath passed away. Amen.

Thou spakest:—worlds began to be;
They stand before Thy majesty;
And all to their Creator raise
A wondrous harmony of praise.

Anthem

Philip James

I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient time,
And now, as then, thy mercies hold
Their hope of grace divine.

Thy voice was in the thunder,
The waters were afraid;
Yet in my day of trouble
I called on thee for aid!

I have remembered my song at night,
Communing with my heart,
And know thy love is still my right,
Nor ever will depart.

Who is so great a God as the Lord!
His law shall rule us aye,
He answers our each prayer outpoured,
Our guidance and our stay. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

✓ Hymn 328 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts - Mode I

Introit - Tone VI

Be thou my God and Defender, and a place of refuge that thou mayest save me; for thou art my upholder, my refuge and my Saviour: and for thy holy Name's sake, be thou my leader and my sustainer.

Ps. In thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion: deliver me in thy righteousness, and save me. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - Tone III

Thou art the God that only doeth wonders: and hast declared thy power among the people. V. Thou hast mightily delivered thy people: even the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Tract - Tone VIII

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness. Come before his presence with a song: be ye sure that the Lord He is God. It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves: we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Hymn 235 O Love that casts out fear Henry Smart, 1881

✓ Credo - Darke in F

Offertory - Tone III

Blessed art thou, O Lord; O teach me thy statutes: with my lips have I been telling of all the judgments of thy mouth.

Anthem The Wilderness - John Goss
(The words of Isaiah, Chapter XXXV)

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Darke

Communio - Tone I

They did eat, and were well-filled: for the Lord gave them their own desire.

✓ Ave Verum - Josquin des Pres

Hail, true Body, born of Mary,

Psalms 114, 115 - Tonus Peregrinus

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III, with polyphony by Everett Titcomb

Hymn 275 Praise to the heavenly wisdom Frederic Weber, 1856

Anthem - Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal Light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin, is Lord, but thou, O Son of God. Thy Word is now our sovereign law. Therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the Perfect Day on us for evermore.

✓ Hymn 123 Forty days and forty nights Martin Herbst, 1676

Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him, and bring him to honour; with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Orbis factor, tenth century

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.
V. They shall bear thee in their hands: lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night.

Nor for the arrow that flieth by day; for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

✓ Hymn 138 When wounded sore the stricken soul Cologne, 1741

Sanctus, Benedictus - - - - - Mode IV, twelfth century

✓ Agnus Dei - - - - - Mode VIII, thirteenth century

Communion - - - - - Tone III

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

✓ Tantum Ergo (Stanzas 5 and 6 of Hymn 338) Vittoria, 1540-1613

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Quensong

Psalm 119 (verses 1-32) - - - - - Tones III-4, VII-7

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and VI with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 65) - - - - - Rouen Church Melody

The fast, as taught by holy lore, We keep in solemn course once more: The fast to all men known and bound In forty days of yearly round.	In prayer together let us fall, And cry for mercy, one and all, And weep before the Judge's feet And his avenging wrath entreat.
---	---

The laws and seers that were of old In divers ways this Lent foretold, Which Christ, all seasons' King and guide In after ages sanctified.	Forgive the sin that we have wrought, Increase the good that we have sought, That we at length, our wanderings o'er, May please thee here and evermore.
---	--

More sparing therefore let us make The words we speak, the food we take, Our sleep and mirth,—and closer barred Be every sense in holy guard.	We pray thee, Holy Trinity, One God, unchanging Unity, That we from this our abstinence May reap the fruits of penitence. Amen.
--	--

Motet - - - - - Henry Aldrich, 1647-1710

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ear consider well the voice of my complaint: for, if thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared.

✓ Hymn 124 Lord, when we bend before thy Throne
Christopher Tye, 1553

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving kindnesses toward us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, let me not be confounded. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevis in E flat) Healey Willan, 1932

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O Lord, bring thou me out of my troubles. V. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

Tract - - - - - Tone II

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord; or shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that always keep judgment: and do righteousness. Remember us, O Lord, according to the favor that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit us with thy salvation.

✓ Hymn 237 When all thy mercies, O my God Thomas Tallis, 1567

✓ Credo III - - - - - Mode V, seventeenth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

My delight shall be in thy commandments, which I have loved exceedingly: my hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved.

✓ Hymn 340 Let thy Blood in mercy poured Johan Cruger, 1658

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Healey Willan

Communio - - - - - Tone V

Consider my meditation; O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer, O Lord.

Motet - - - - - Louis Bourgeois, 1542

O Food of men wayfaring,
That Angels eke are sharing,
O Manna most divine;
We hunger sore; supply us
With sweetness, nor deny us,
Who for thy Presence pine.

O Well of grace redeeming,
With charity o'er-streaming
From Jesu's spotless Side;
Refresh thy sons and daughters
Athirst for living waters,
Till all be satisfied.

O Jesu Christ, whom hidden
'Neath form of bread, as bidden,
On earth we magnify;
Vouchsafe us, this life ended,
When earthly veils are rended,
To see thee eye to eye.

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—O Lamb of God, unspotted - J. S. Bach, 1685-1750

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 119 (verses 33-72) - - - Tones I-10, IV-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones IV and VI with faux-bourbons by Healey Willan

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) - - - Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day,
Thou drivest darksome night away!
We know thee as the Light of Light,
Illuminating mortal sight.

Remember us, dear Lord, we pray,
While in this mortal flesh we stay:
'Tis thou who dost the soul defend—
Be present with us to the end.

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee,
Keep us tonight from danger free;
Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest,
So be our sleep in quiet blest.

Blest Three in One and One in Three,
Almighty God, we pray to thee
That thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless
Our fast with fruits of righteousness.

Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Johannes Brahms, 1833-1897

Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall have comfort. They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. Who goeth forth and weepeth, and beareth precious seed, shall doubtless return with rejoicing, and bring his sheaves with him.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, Thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three:
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with Thee.

V. Thou gavest them Bread from heaven,
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Organ—O God, have mercy upon me - J. S. Bach

✓ Hymn 134 Lord, who throughout these forty days

Day's Psalter, 1562

Introit - - - - - Tone VII

Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, afflicted and in misery.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee; O let me not be confounded. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in G) - - - Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual - - - - - Tone III

Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Behold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters. And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of their mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: have mercy upon us.

✓ Hymn 128 Christian, seek not yet repose Wm. H. Monk, 1868

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; his judgments also are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb; moreover by them is thy servant taught.

✓ Hymn 232 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds

A. R. Reinagle, 1836

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Cavaliere

Communio - - - - - Tone I

The sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be alway praising thee.

✓ Motet - - - - - Anton Bruckner, 1848

Jesus is a gem of price,	Jesus is my prize, my goal,
Mine of never-failing treasure;	Name, in heaven and earth, of gladness
Jesus is a Paradise,	Jesus, solace of my soul,
Shoreless sea of heavenly pleasure;	Chaseth far despair and sadness;
Jesus doth as cooling dew,	Therefore Jesu's Name shall be,
Thirsty plain and mead renew.	Dearest, best of names, to me.

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 119, (verses 73-104) - - - Tones I-7, II-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III, with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (English Hymnal, 67) Thomas Campion, 1575-1619

Now is the healing time decreed	Therefore with fasting and with prayer,
For sins of heart, of word or deed,	Our secret sorrow we declare:
When we in humble fear record	With all good striving seek his face,
The wrong that we have done the Lord;	And lowly hearted plead for grace.
Who, alway merciful and good,	Cleanse us, O Lord, from every stain,
Has borne so long our wayward mood,	Help us the meed of praise to gain,
Nor cut us off unsparingly	Till with the Angels linked in love
In our so great iniquity.	Joyful we tread thy courts above.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

Anthem - - - Johannes Brahms, 1833-1897

All flesh doth perish as the grass, and all man's glory as the flower of grass that fadeth. The grass doth lie withered, and the flower thereof falleth.

Be patient, my brethren, unto the advent of Christ; e'en as the husbandman waiteth for the earth's precious fruit to ripen, for long he waiteth with patience till he receive the early and latter rain. So be ye patient.

Surely the Lord's Word bideth for evermore.

Devotions

Solemn High Mass

- ✓ Hymn 328 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts - Mode I
Introit - - - - - Tone V

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that delight in her: exult and sing for joy with her, all ye that in sadness mourn for her; that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolation.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

- ✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa Aeterne Christe Munera) Palestrina, 1525-1594

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.
V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Syon: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. The hills stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.

- ✓ Hymn 326 The King of Love my Shepherd is Dykes, 1868

- ✓ Credo III - - - - - Mode V, seventeenth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

O praise the Lord, for he is gracious; O sing praises unto his Name, for he is lovely: whatsoever he pleased, that did he in heaven and in earth.

- ✓ Hymn 259 Praise to the Holiest - - - - - Dykes, 1868

- ✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Palestrina

Communio - - - - - Tone IV

Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself. For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord; to give thanks unto thy Name, O Lord.

- ✓ Motet - - - - - Ahle-Bach, 1685-1750

Jesu, joyaunce of my heart,	Nought is lovelier than thou,
Blessed Jesu:	Dearest Jesu:
Bliss unto my soul thou art,	None is friendlier than thou,
Holy Jesu:	Gentlest Jesu:
Sure defence from Satan's dart,	Nor is any sweet as thou,
Sweetest Jesu.	Sweetest Jesu.

- ✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode IV

Like the olive branches may the children of the Church be round about the table of the Lord.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Quensong

Psalm 119, (verses 105-144) - Tones VII-3, V-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III, with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (English Hymnal, 68) - Luther, 1483-1546

The glory of these forty days
We celebrate with songs of praise;
For Christ, by whom all things were made,
Himself has fasted and has prayed.

Alone and fasting Moses saw
The loving God who gave the Law;
And to Elijah, fasting, came
The steeds and chariots of flame.

So Daniel trained his mystic sight,
Delivered from the lions' might;
And John, the Bridegroom's friend, became
The herald of Messiah's name.

Then grant us, Lord, like them to be
Full oft in fast and prayer with thee;
Our spirits strengthen with thy grace
And give us joy to see thy face.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord. Amen.

Motet - - - - - Palestrina, 1525-1594

Like as the hart desireth the water brooks, even so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

Hymn 338 (Part I) Now, my tongue, the mystery telling Mode III

Introit

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people: deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God and my strong salvation.

Ps. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Kyrie Eleison

Gradual

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee: V. It is thou, Lord, that deliverest me from my cruel enemies, and settest me up above mine adversaries; thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

Tract

Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up, may Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers plowed upon my back. And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

Hymn 154 When I survey the wondrous Cross E. Miller, 1790

Credo I Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart; O do well unto thy servant, that I may live and keep thy word. Quicken thou me, O Lord, according to thy word.

Hymn 160 We sing the praise of Him who died Leipzig, 1625

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Casciolini

Communio Tone VIII

This is my Body, which is given for you: this Cup is the New Testament in my Blood, saith the Lord: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

Tantum-Ergo (Hymn 338, Part II) Anton Bruckner, 1848

Antiphon

Notices

The Corporate Communion of the Woman's Auxiliary will be made today at 8 A. M.

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held in the Parish Building on Thursday, April 3, at 2.30 P. M. The Speaker will be the Rev. Percy Stockman to tell about the Seamen's Church Institute.

The regular meeting of the Mothers' Union will be held on Friday, April 4, at 2.30 P. M.

The Diocesan Altar Guild will be grateful for any contribution of funds to help in furnishing Altars, etc., for Army Chaplains.

On Fridays during Lent, at 5 P. M., the Choir will sing the Litany in Procession.

The Episcopal Hospital Auxiliary is deeply grateful for money contributed to the Children's Ward. The portable bottle warmer has been purchased with $129.00, leaving a balance on hand of $23.00 toward the portable bath tub, which is also badly needed. If any one interested in sick children has not sent in any contribution to this fund and would care to do so, it will be greatly appreciated. Any amount will be welcome. Contributions may be sent to Mrs. Alfred Hand, 1724 Pine Street.

Religious instruction is given to children in the upper parish hall at 10 A. M. on Sundays.

Those who desire to be instructed for Confirmation are asked to send in their names to the Clergy or to Sister Felicitas.

Introit

Tone VIII

Be not thou far from us, O Lord; thou art my succour, haste thee to help me. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison (Missae Sanctae Crucis)

Everett Titcomb, 1933

Gradual

Tone IV

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipt; and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract

Tone VIII

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint.

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest Holy: O thou Worship of Israel.

Our fathers hoped in thee: they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: a very scorn of men and the out-cast of his people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying: He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him if he will have him.

They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made.

Credo III

Mode V, Seventeenth century

Offertory

Tone VIII

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Hymn 158 O Sacred Head surrounded

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in } 172 Jesus Christ is risen today Lyra Davidica, 1708
 Procession } 178 At the Lamb's High Feast Jacob Hintze, 1678

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia: thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in D) - - - - - Sir George Henschel, 1926

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

This is the Day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it. V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone VII

Christ our Passover: is sacrificed for us.

✓ Sequence - - - - - Mode I

Christians, to the Paschal Victim, offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous; the Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring: 'The Tomb of Christ who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection; bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.'

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen. Alleluia.

✓ Credo - - - - - Henschel

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

✓ Motet (Surrexit Pastor Bonus) - - - - - di Lasso, 1530-1594

The Shepherd has arisen, who willingly laid down his own life, that they, his sheep, might live; and his flock to ransom, to die was worthy deemed. alleluia.

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Henschel

Communio - - - - - Tone VI

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluia: therefore let us keep the Feast with the unleavened Bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Henschel

Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Fantasia in G Major - - - - - J. S. Bach, 1685-1750

Solemn Quensong

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - - - Tertius Noble in G minor

Hymn 555 O Sons and Daughters, let us sing
Mode II fifteenth century

Motet - - - - - Makarov, nineteenth century

An Angel said to Mary, full of grace: Hail, O Virgin most pure, rejoice, thy Son is risen from the tomb on the third day as He said, and all the dead are risen through Him.

All peoples of the earth, rejoice; new Jerusalem, receive the light, for the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee: chant songs of joy, O Sion. And thou, O Mary, most pure Mother of God, rejoice in the Resurrection of thy Son.

Praise our Redeemer, our Lord. Amen.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - - - Sarum Plainsong, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide
 The gate of heaven to man below,
 Our foes press on from every side,
 Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.
 All praise and thanks to thee ascend
 For evermore, blest One in Three;
 O grant us life that shall not end,
 In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, alleluia.

R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

Introit

Tone VII

Thou hast hidden me, O God, from the gathering together of the froward, alleluia: and from the insurrection of workers of iniquity, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in honor of S. Clara) Licinio Refice, 1931

Alleluia Tone V

O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works: and thy truth in the congregation of the saints. Alleluia. Thou hast set, O Lord: a crown of pure gold upon his head. Alleluia.

Sequence H. W. Hawke, 1937

Praise, the true heart's offer,	Christ is Head and Ending
Let our voices proffer,	Of their aim and telling,
And our thanks to Christ resound	He whose presence all things fills.
For the Faith's four Preachers	By the blest inditing
And unshaken Teachers,	Of their Holy Writing
Whom his grace hath made renowned.	Stands the Church secure from ills.

Here those four rings golden,	At their supplication,
Well may be beholden	Grant us, Lord, salvation
Which the Ark of God upbore;	From eternal death and woe;
Christ, the good seed sowing	By their Holy Teaching
And the fruit bestowing,	Safe and happy reaching
In the doctrine of the Four.	Of celestial joys bestow.

Credo Refice

Offertory Tone VII

O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy wondrous works: and thy truth in the congregation of the saints, alleluia.

Motet Vittoria, 1540-1613

O how glorious is the kingdom, in which with Christ Jesus, liveth all the Saints: in holy robes of whiteness, worshipping the Lamb, they joy for evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Refice

Communio Tone V

The righteous shall rejoice in the Lord, and put his trust in him: and all they that are true of heart shall be glad, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Refice

Antiphon Mode V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name
alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord
endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Solemn Evensong

Organ—Chorale in E major Cesar Franck, 1822-1890

Psalm 91 Tone VIII-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Coleman in F

Hymn 266 Ye watchers and ye holy ones Cologne, 1623

Anthem S. S. Wesley, 1810-1876

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass; the grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

James Carroll, Treble; Charles F. Kauffeld, Bass

- ✓ Anthem - - - - - Vulpinus, 1609, arr. by Henry Ley

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor's triumph won:
O let the song of praise be sung,
Hallelujah!
Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed,
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst,
Hallelujah!
On the third morn he rose again,
Glorious in majesty to reign:
O let us swell the joyful strain,
Hallelujah!
Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to thee,
Hallelujah!

- ✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Schubert

Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven John Goss, 1869

Anthem - - - - John Ireland, 1912

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who his own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus; ye are a chosen generation, a royal Priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.
All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, alleluia.

R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

✓ Hymn 181 O Jesus, crowned with all renown
Joseph Barnby, 1838-1896

Introit - - - - - Tone III

With a voice of singing, declare ye this, and let it be heard, alleluia; utter it even unto the ends of the earth; the Lord hath delivered his people, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in D) - - - Sir George Henschel, 1926

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

Christ is risen and hath shone upon us: whom he redeemed with his blood. Alleluia. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go to the Father. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 446 O God of Bethel - - - Scottish Psalter, 1615

✓ Credo - - - - - Henschel

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

O praise the Lord our God, ye people; and make the voice of his praise to be heard: who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip. Praised be the Lord, who hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy upon me, alleluia.

✓ Motet - - - - - Tschaikowsky, 1840-1893

O praise the Lord, laud ye the Name of the Lord; praise it, all ye servants of the Lord. Alleluia.

O praise Him. Praised be the Lord out of Zion! Praised be the Lord, who dwelleth at Jerusalem. Alleluia.

O commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass. Alleluia.

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Henschel

Motet (Evening Cantata) - Percy Whitlock, 1930

Round me falls the night; Saviour, be my Light; Through the hours in darkness shrouded Let me see thy face unclouded; Let thy glory shine In this heart of mine.	In thine arms I rest me, Foes who would molest me Cannot reach me here. O may my soul on thee repose And may sweet sleep My eyelids close.
Earthly work is done, Earthly sounds are none; Rest in sleep and silence seeking; Let me hear thee softly speaking; In my spirit's ear Whisper, I am near.	Blessed, heavenly Light, Shining through earth's night; Voice, that oft of love hast told me; Arms, so strong to clasp and hold me Thou, thy watch wilt keep Saviour, o'er my sleep.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest: for it is thou, Lord, only that makest me dwell in safety. Amen.

Solemn High Mass

Hymn in Procession

Est's Psalms, 1592

When God of old came down from heaven,
In power and wrath he came,
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame.

But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love;
Softer than gale at morning prime Hovered his Holy Dove.

The fires that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrent dread,
Now gently light, a glorious crown
On every sainted head.

And as on Israel's awe-struck ear
The voice exceeding loud,
The trump, that Angels quake to hear
Thrilled from the deep, dark cloud.

So, when the Spirit of our God
Came down his flock to find,
A voice from heaven was heard abroad,
A rushing, mighty wind.

It fills the Church of God; it fills
The sinful world around;
Only in stubborn hearts and wills
No place for it is found.

Come, Lord, come, Wisdom, Love and Power,
Open our ears to hear;
Let us not miss the accepted hour,
Save, Lord, by love or fear.

Hymn 197 Spirit of mercy, truth and love

Samuel Webbe, 1782

Introit

Tone VIII

The Spirit of the Lord hath filled the whole world, alleluia: and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa da Quinti Toni)

Di Lasso, 1530-1594

Alleluia

Tone V

When thou lettest thy breath go forth they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth. Alleluia. Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of thy faithful people: and kindle in them the fire of thy love.

Sequence Hymn 196 Come, thou Holy Spirit, come

Samuel Webbe, 1782

Credo

Di Lasso

Offertory

Tone IV

Stablish the thing, O God, that thou hast wrought in us: for thy temples' sake at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee, alleluia.

Anthem

Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captive, and recovering of sight to the blind; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all nations.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Di Lasso

Communio

Tone VII

Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, alleluia: and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak the wonderful works of God, alleluia, alleluia.

Hymn 561 Joy because the circling year

Dresden, 1694

Motet

Palestrina, 1525-1594

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, Enable with perpetual light
And lighten with celestial fire; The dullness of our blinded sight;
Thou the anointing Spirit art, Anoint and cheer our soiled face,
Who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart. With the abundance of thy grace;
Thy blessed unction from above Keep far our foes, give peace at home;
Is comfort, life and fire of love. Where thou art guide, no ill can come!

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
And Thee of Both, to be but One;
That, through the ages all along,
This may be our endless song:
Praise to the Father, and the Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One.

I bind unto myself this day	Christ in safety, Christ in danger,
The glory of the Trinity,	Christ beside each friend and stranger,
I humbly praise the awful Name,	Christ consoling all that love me,
The Three in One, the One in Three.	Christ be with me this day.

Christ be near me, Christ within me,	I bind unto myself this day,
Christ be ever before me,	The stable earth, the deep salt sea,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,	The sweet pale moon, the sun's bright ray,
Christ be with me this day.	The whirling winds, the lightning free.

High Mass

✓ Hymn 328 Jesus, Thou Joy of loving hearts - Mode I

Introit - - - - Tone II

He fed them also with the finest wheat-flour, alleluia: and with honey from he rock hath he satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison - - - - Altissime, Mode V

Gradual - - - - Tone VII

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

✓ Alleluia - - - - Tone VIII

My Flesh is meat indeed; and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

✓ Sequence - - - - Mechlin Vesperale, Mode IV

Laud, O Syon, thy salvation, Laud with hymns of exultation, Christ, thy King and Shepherd true; Bring him all the praise thou knowest, He is more than thou bestowest, Never canst thou reach his due.	Here beneath these signs are hidden Priceless things, to sense forbidden, Signs, not things, are all we see; Blood is poured, and Flesh is broken, Yet in either wondrous token Christ entire we know to be.
---	---

Full and clear ring out thy chanting, Joy, nor sweetest grace be wanting, From thy heart let praises burst; For today the Feast is holden When the Institution olden Of that Supper was rehearsed.	Whoso of this Food partaketh, Rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh, Christ is whole to all that taste; Thousands are, as one, receivers, One, as thousands of believers, Eats of him who cannot waste.
---	--

✓ Credo - - - - Harold Darke in F

Offertory - - - - Tone IV

The priests of the Lord offer burnt-offerings and Bread unto God: and therefore shall they be holy unto their God, and shall not profane his Name, alleluia.

✓ Hymn 339 Let all mortal flesh keep silence French Folk Tune

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - Darke

Communio - - - - Tone VII

As often as ye eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this Bread and drink this Cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, alleluia.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - Darke

✓ Antiphon - - - - Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Pastorale in E major - - - - Cesar Franck

Solemn Evensong

Psalm 103 - - - - Tone V-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus,
with faux-bourbons by J. S. Bach

Hymn 259 Praise to the Holiest in the height J. B. Dykes, 1868

High Mass

✓ Hymn 232 How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds Reinagle, 1836

Introit - - - - - Tone I

The Lord was my refuge and upholder; and he brought me forth into a place of liberty: he brought me forth, even because he delighted in me.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) - - - - - Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

When I was in trouble I called upon the Lord: and he heard me. V. Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips: and from a deceitful tongue.

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

O Lord my God, in thee have I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me and deliver me.

✓ Hymn 316 Jesus, the very thought of thee John B. Dykes, 1866

✓ Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone VI

Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my soul: O save me for thy mercies' sake.

✓ Hymn 89 To the Name of our salvation Cantica Sacra, 1840

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Titcomb

Joseph Barnby, 1838-1896

✓ Anthem - Melody by N. Hermann, 1560, arr. by Ley

Lo, round the Throne, a glorious band	They see their Saviour face to face,
The Saints in countless myriads stand,	And sing the triumphs of his grace;
Of every tongue redeemed of God,	Him day and night they ceaseless praise,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood,	To Him the loud thanksgiving raise,
Hallelujah!	Hallelujah!

Through tribulation great they came;	Worthy the Lamb, for sinners slain,
They bore the Cross, despised the shame;	Through endless years to live and reign;
From all their labours now they rest,	Thou hast redeemed us by thy Blood,
In God's eternal glory blest,	And made us kings and priests to God,
Hallelujah!	Hallelujah!

O may we tread the sacred road
That Saints and Holy Martyrs trod;
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life,
Hallelujah! Amen.

Hymn 316 Jesus, the very thought of Thee - Dykes, 1866

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Give peace, O Lord, to them that wait for thee, and let thy prophets be found faithful: regard the prayers of thy servant, and of thy people Israel.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa da Quinti toni) - Orlando di Lasso

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. Alleluia.

Hymn 235 O Love that casts out fear Henry Smart, 1881

Credo - - - - - di Lasso

Offertory - - - - - Tone V

Moses consecrated an Altar unto the Lord, offering burnt-offerings upon it, and sacrificing peace-offerings: and he made an evening sacrifice for a sweet-smelling savour unto the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel.

Anthem - - - - - Brahms

How lovely is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul, it longeth, yea, fainteth, for the courts of the Lord: my soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. O blest are they that dwell within thy house; they praise thy Name evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - di Lasso

Communio - - - - - Tone IV

Bring presents, and come into his courts: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Anthem - - - - - John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who his own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus; ye are a chosen generation, a royal Priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

High Mass

Hymn 465 We love the place, O God Henry L. Jenner, 1861
Introit - - - - - Tone III

All that thou hast done to us, O Lord, thou hast done in true judgment; for we have sinned and not obeyed thy commandments: but give glory to thy Name, and deal with us according to the multitude of thy mercies.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

O God, my heart is ready, my heart is ready: I will sing and give praise unto thee, my glory. Alleluia.

Hymn 254 How wondrous and great - J. Michael Haydn

Credo - - - - - Harold Darke in F

Offertory - - - - - Tone I

By the waters of Babylon we sat down and wept: when we remembered thee, O Sion.

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine Eternal Light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin, is Lord, but thou, O Son of God. Thy Word is now our sovereign law. Therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the Perfect Day on us for evermore.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Darke

Communio - - - - - Tone IV

Think upon thy servant, O Lord, as concerning thy word, wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust: the same is my comfort in my trouble.

Antiphon - - - - - Mode VI

O how sweet is thy spirit, O Lord; who that thou mightest shew forth thy sweetness unto thy children, feedest them with the most sweet Bread from Heaven.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymns in } 295 For All the Saints
Procession } 299 Let Saints on earth

*Vaughan-Williams
Day's Psalter, 1562*

Introit

Tone I

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, and celebrate this festival in honour of all the Saints: over whose solemn feast the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison

Rheinberger in A

Gradual

Tone I

O fear the Lord, ye that are his Saints: for they that fear him lack nothing. V. They who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

Alleluia

Tone V

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy-laden: and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

Sequence

Mode I

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending
O'er each clime beneath the sun,
Blend with prayers for help ascending
Notes of praise for triumphs won.

In your heavenly habitations,
In your blessed home on high,
Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
As to God we lift our cry.

As the Church today rejoices
All her Saints to join on high,
So from earth let all our voices
Rise in solemn harmony.

Ever praising, ever praying,
Help ye thus your brethren here,
That the will of God obeying
We in peace may persevere.

Credo

Rheinberger

Offertory

Tone I

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God: and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace, alleluia.

Anthem

Melody by N. Hermann, 1560, arr. by Ley

Lo, round the Throne, a glorious band
The Saints in countless myriads stand

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Rheinberger

Communio

Tone I

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Hymn 464 The Church's one foundation S. S. Wesley, 1864

Introit Tone III

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it? for there is mercy with thee, O God of Israel.

Ps. Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Lovelock in A minor

Gradual Tone I

Behold, how good and joyful a thing it is: brethren to dwell together in unity. V. It is like the precious ointment upon the head: that ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard.

Hymn 257 Sing, my soul, his wondrous love J. B. Dykes, 1862

Credo Lovelock

Offertory Tone I

Remember me, O Lord of all power: and give me proper speech in my mouth that my words may be pleasing unto thee.

Anthem Vaughan-Williams

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge.

Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

O blest Creator of the light,
Who mak'st the day with radiance bright
And o'er the forming world didst call
The light from chaos first of all;
Lest, sunk in sin, and whelm'd with strife
They lose the gift of endless life;
While thinking but the thoughts of time,
They weave new chains of woe and crime.

Whose wisdom joined in meet array
The morn and eve and named them Day:
Night comes with all its darkling fears;
Regard thy people's prayers and tears.
But grant them grace that they may strain
The heavenly gate and prize to gain:
Each harmful lure aside to cast,
And purge away each error past.

O Father, that we ask be done,
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Doth live and reign eternally. Amen.

Anthem Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb

The subject will be "The Practise of Prayer." At St. Mark's each instruction will begin at 8 o'clock and end promptly at 9, allowing time for devotions and congregational hymns. I know that we are desirous of doing our part in the work which the Presiding Bishop has initiated.

Will you fulfil your part by attending the Mission, and will you make the Mission missionary by inviting one person who is not Confirmed?

On Tuesday, Armistice Day, special intentions for peace will be offered at all the Masses, and special prayers for peace will be said at the Midday Intercessions.

There will be a Meeting of ST. MARK'S ALTAR SOCIETY in the parish parlor on Thursday morning, November 13th, directly after the 9.30 Mass.

The ALTAR GUILD OF THE DIOCESE will ho'd its autumn meeting on Wednesday, November 12th, at 5.30 P. M., in St. Clement's Church, 20th and Cherry Streets. The Meeting will be followed by a Quiet Evening. The Rev. Frank L. Vernon will give the Meditations.

The first Meditation will be at 5.30, followed by a box supper in St. Clement's Parish House, each person bringing her own supper, Coffee will be served. The second Meditation will be at 7.30, and the Service will close about 9 o'clock. Please notify Mrs. Shipley Thomas, 202 S. 19th Street, if you plan to be present.

There will be a Retreat for Women at St. Margaret's House on Armistice Day, November 11th, with Preparatory Meditation on Monday, the 10th. Mass Tuesday at 8 30 A. M. Benediction at 8.30 P. M. The Conductor will be the Rev. Edmund B. Wood. Please register promptly, specifying to the Sister-in-Charge if over-night accomodation is desired.

The First Sunday in Advent, November 30, is the Sunday appointed for a Nation Wide Corporate Communion for men and boys.

The Church Periodical Club must find donors for two copies of Holy Cross Magazine, and one copy of Living Church, Forth, Life. Good Housekeeping and Reader's Digest. For some years these magazines have been sent by members of St. Mark's Branch to those who need and appreciate them. The former donors can no longer send them. Will you subscribe to or forward your own copy of any of the above? If so, will you please notify the Church Periodical Secretary, Mrs. Theodore F. Jenkins, 3933 Walnut Street.

The Twenty-fifth Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross will begin on November 11th. St. Mark's Church will be glad to receive subscriptions, which may be left with Mrs. McFaul at the office.

Credo I Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord hear my voice.

Anthem S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently, See that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever, for ever more. Amen.

The First Sunday in Advent, November 30, is the Sunday appointed for a Nation Wide Corporate Communion for men and boys.

At the Presentation of the United Thank Offering in St. James' Church on November 6th, St. Mark's Parish contributed $300, St. Mary's Chapel, $61.40 and St. Michael's Chapel, $31.30. The total Offering of the Diocese amounted to $12,458.90

The response from the Auxiliary Appeal for our five Missionary Committees is coming in very slowly. If you have not forwarded your contribution will you please do so as soon as you conveniently can.

The Church Periodical Club must find donors for two copies of Holy Cross Magazine, and one copy of Living Church and Life. For some years these magazines have been sent by members of St. Mark's Branch to those who need and appreciate them. The former donors can no longer send them. Will you subscribe to or forward your own copy of any of the above? If so, will you please notify the Church Periodical Secretary, Mrs. Theodore F. Jenkins, 3933 Walnut Street.

St. Mark's will be glad to receive subscriptions for the twenty-fifth Annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross. Memberships may be left with Mrs. McFaul at the office.

High Mass

Hymn 247 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us Dulce Carmen, 1782

Introit - - - - - Tone VI

I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil: ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you; and I will bring your captivity from all places.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevisissima) - - - Claudio Casciolini

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies: and putteth them to confusion that hate us. V. We make our boast in God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia.

Hymn 356 Fairest Lord Jesus - - - Silesian Folksong, 1842

Credo (Mass in A minor) - - - Casciolini

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord hear my voice.

Anthem—Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round Eric Thiman
(The words of Hymn 491)

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Casciolini

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - Casciolini

Antiphon - - - - - Mode VI

O how sweet is thy spirit, O Lord; who that thou mightest shew forth thy sweetness unto thy children, feedest them with the most sweet Bread from Heaven.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn 425 For the beauty of the earth - - - Gounod, 1872

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

Doubt not thy Father's care! For every grief he finds relief And answers every prayer. Night comes: the sun is lost; Night comes: He doth provide In the heavens wide The gleam of a starry host.	Night comes: the soul is dark, All joy is dead, all gladness fled And life has missed its mark. Then Thou, the wounded soul In that sad hour, with healing power Dost touch, and makest whole.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY THERE WILL BE A SOLEMN HIGH MASS AT 9.30.

ALL OFFERINGS ON THANKSGIVING DAY WILL BE FOR THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL.

Special envelopes for this Offering, for the convenience of those who are not already supplied with them, will be found in the pews.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT, NOVEMBER 30, IS THE SUNDAY APPOINTED FOR A NATION-WIDE CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS.

The Forward-in-Service Commission for a Diocesan School of Prayer has appointed November 30, December 1 and December 2 for a teaching Mission to be held, it is hoped, in every Parish of the Diocese. The subject will be "The Practise of Prayer."

At St. Mark's the services will be held on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights at eight o'clock. They will close promptly at nine o'clock. The Rector will preach.

I know that we are all desirous of doing our part in the work which the Presiding Bishop has initiated. Will you fulfil your part by attending the Mission, and will you make the Mission missionary by inviting one person who is not Confirmed?

The Rector's Bible Class will meet in the Lady Chapel on Monday, December 8, after Evensong. Late comers who find the Church closed may enter through the Parish House.

There will be a Retreat for Women at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, on Wednesday, December 10th. Mass 8.30 A. M. Closing at 4 P. M.

St. Mark's Branch, Section 37, of the Philadelphia Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, reports the following received at their In-Gathering for 1941—958 garments, being 113 less than last year. Also $29.00 for the shoe fund and $21.50 from its money members. The Section cannot grow without more directors. (Reported by Mrs. Charles P. Maule, Section President.)

The Red Cross Drive does not end until November 27th and subscriptions may still be left with Mrs. McFaul at the office.

High Mass

Hymn 55 Come, thou long-expected Jesus - Gotha, 1715
Introit - - - - - Tone VIII

Unto thee, O Lord; lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual - - - - - Tone I

All they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord: shew me thy ways, O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

Sequence - - - - - Mode VII

Saviour Eternal! Health and Life of the world unfailing.

Light everlasting! And in verity our redemption.

Grieving that the ages of men must perish through the tempter's subtlety,
Still in heaven abiding thou camest earthward of thine own great clemency;
Then freely and graciously deigning to assume humanity, To lost ones and perishing gavest thou thy free deliverance, filling all the world with joy.

O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse by thy perfect sacrifice, That we,
as temples pure and bright, fit for thine abode may be.

By thy former Advent justify; By thy second grant us liberty, That when
in the might of glory thou descendest, Judge of all, We in raiment undefiled bright may shine and ever follow, Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Hymn 53 Hosanna to the living Lord! - Dykes, 1865

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Cavaliere

Communio - - - - - Tone I

The Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

Ave Verum - - - - - Proper Melody, Rouen

Hail, true Body, born of Mary, Thou whose Sacred Side was riven
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth, Whence the Water flowed and Blood,
Thou who truly hangedst weary O may'st thou, dear Lord, be given
On the Cross for sons of earth; At death's hour to be our Food.
O most kind! O gracious One!
O sweetest Jesu, Holy Mary's Son! Amen.

Antiphon

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord
endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Chorale-Prelude: Sleepers, Wake - J. S. Bach

Solemn Quensong

Organ—Chorale in E major - - - Cesar Franck

Psalms 96, 97 - - - - - Tones VIII-1, V-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones Peregrinus, with Fauxbourdons
by J. S. Bach

Hymn (English Hymnal, 175) - Aeterna Christi Munera

The eternal gifts of Christ the King, In these the Father's glory shone;
The Apostles' glorious deeds, we sing; In these the will of God the Son;
And while due hymns of praise we pay, In these exults the Holy Ghost;
Our thankful hearts cast grief away. Through these rejoice the heavenly host.

The Church in these her princes boasts, Redeemer, hear us of thy love,
These victor chiefs of warrior hosts; That, with this glorious band above,
The soldiers of the heavenly hall, Hereafter, of thine endless grace,
The lights that rose on earth for all. Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

Motet - - - - - Healey Willan

Lo, in the time appointed the Lord will come; the mountains and the hills shall break forth into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands: for the Lord God shall come into his everlasting kingdom.

And upon the throne of David shall he reign for ever. Alleluia.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below, For evermore, blest One in Three;

Hymn (Songs of Syon, 15)

Walther's Gesangbuch, 1524

Saviour of the nations, come,
Leave for us thy glorious home,
Glad hosannas we will sing,
Greeting thee, our heavenly King.

Come, Lord Jesus, take thy rest,
In the convert sinner's breast;
Make the quickened heart thy throne,
Son of God, the Virgin's Son.

With a loyal kiss of love,
We receive thee from above,
With a solemn vow to pay
True allegiance to thy sway.

Welcome to this vale of tears,
Ripeness of the perfect years,
Born as man with man to dwell,
Come, our true Emmanuel.

God in man, Incarnate God,
Sinless child of flesh and blood,
Man in God, thy brethren we,
Raise us up to God in thee. Amen.

Motet

Henry Aldrich, 1647-1710

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord; Lord hear my voice. O let thine ear consider well the voice of my complaint; For if thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, O Lord, who may abide it. For there is mercy with thee, therefore shalt thou be feared.

Hymn 63 Hark! a thrilling voice is sounding Wm. H. Monk, 1850

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Rejoice in the Lord, and again I say, rejoice ye: let your moderation be known unto all men, the Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing, nor troubled; but in all things, by prayer, let your requests be made known unto God.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) - - - Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

Shew thyself, O Lord, thou that sittest upon the Cherubim: stir up thy strength and come. V. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

Stir up thy strength, O Lord: and come and help us. Alleluia.

Hymn 456 Ye servants of the Lord Henry J. Gauntlett, 1848

Credo I - - - - - Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob; thou hast forgiven the offence of thy people.

Hymn 326 The King of love my Shepherd is John B. Dykes, 1868

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Titcomb

Communio - - - - - Tone VII

Say to them that are of a fearful heart: be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come and save you.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III
with Fauxbourdons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 17) - - - Mode II

When shades of night around us close, O Come, Redeemer, come and free
And weary limbs in sleep repose, Thine own from their iniquity;
The faithful soul awake may be The gates of Heaven again unfold,
And yearning sigh, O Lord, to thee. Which Adam's trespass closed of old.

O Thou, for whom the nations long, All praise, Eternal Son, to thee,
O Word of God, thou Saviour strong; Whose Advent doth thy people free;
Turn unto us thy pitying eyes, Whom with the Father we adore,
And bid at length the fallen rise. And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted; to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

To give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

If you have not turned in your subscription blank for 1942, will you please do so as soon as conveniently possible. If you have not received a subscription blank you can obtain one at the office of the Parochial Secretary.

In order that our Christmas plans can be completed, may we ask that your contribution to the Christmas Fund be mailed in as early as possible.

All Offerings next Sunday will be applied to Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions.

The Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's is sponsoring a Red Cross Unit, with Miss Gertrude Middleton as Chairman. Now more than ever this organization offers an opportunity of service to more citizens in nearly every department

By Thursday of this week the Auxiliary will be ready to distribute wool to those who are anxious to help in this way. Wool can be obtained at the parish office from Miss Middleton, who will also be glad to furnish further information regarding opportunities of service in the American Red Cross.

There will be a Quiet Evening for Women at St. Margaret's House on Saturday, December 20th, in Preparation for Christmas, from 4.30 to 9.15 P. M. The Rev. William J. Alberts will be the Conductor. Please register promptly, specifying to the Sister-in-Charge if over-night accommodation is desired.

Copies of the Church Kalendar may be obtained at the Quill Book Shop or from H. M. Jacobs. Father Blake is the editor of this Kalendar.

High Mass

Hymn 54 Hark! the glad sound! - Edward Hodges, 1841

Introit

Drop down, ye heavens from above; and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let her bring forth salvation.

Ps. The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevisissima) - Claudio Casciolini

Gradual

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: even such as call upon him faithfully. V. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his Holy Name.

Alleluia - Tone VIII

Come, O Lord, and tarry not: forgive the misdeeds of thy people. Alleluia.

Hymn 282 On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry - Hamburg, 1690

Credo I - Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory - Tone VIII

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

Hymn 66 O come, O come, Emmanuel - Mode I

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Casciolini

Communio - Tone I

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bring forth a Son: and shall call his name Immanuel.

Ave Verum - Edward Elgar

Jesu, Word of God Incarnate,	Cleanse us, by the blood and water
Of the Virgin Mary born,	Streaming from thy pierced Side;
On the Cross thy Sacred Body	Feed us with thy Body broken,
For us men with nails was torn.	Now, and in death's agony!
O Jesu, hear us, Son of Mary.

Antiphon - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude in C major (9-8 time) - J. S. Bach

Solemn Evensong

Organ—Prelude, Fugue and Variation - Cesar Franck

Psalm 103 - Tone V-3

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - Tones VIII and III
with Fauxbourdons by Carolus Andreas

Hymn 269 O Thou, who didst with love untold - Scottish Psalter, 1615

Motet - Johannes Brahms

A white dove flew from heaven
Down to the waiting earth,
It was the Lord's fair angel,
Who prophesied Christ's birth;
Hail, Mary maid,
Its message sweet and clear,
Most blest art thou of women
And unto God most dear.
Lord have mercy on us.

The gates of heaven shall open,
The Lord of love shall come,
Jesus our blest Redeemer,
To make with men his home;
The promised Babe
Is Christ the eternal Lord.
By all the hosts angelic,
From age to age adored.
Lord have mercy on us.

And when our lives are ending,
The shadows closing fast,
Our hearts to thee for solace
Will turn, Lord, at the last;
From deep distress
Our prayers to thee shall rise,
In mercy, Lord, receive us,
In thy blest Paradise.
Lord have mercy on us.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three;
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Organ—Chorale-Prelude: Ah, Bide with us - Bach

Offertory - Tone II

Our soul is escaped even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler: the snare is broken, and we are delivered.

Carol - arr. by K. K. Davis

Lullay, thou little tiny Child,	Herod the king, in his raging,
By, by, lully, lullay;	Charged he hath this day
Lullay, thou little tiny Child,	His men of might in his own sight
By, by, lully, lullay.	All young children to slay.

O sisters too, how may we do	Then woe is me, poor Child, for thee,
For to preserve this day	And ever morn and day
This poor Youngling for whom we sing,	For thy parting nor say nor sing
By, by, lully, lullay.	By, by, lully, lullay.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - Refice

Communio - Tone VII

In Rama a voice was heard, lamentation and great mourning: Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - Refice

Antiphon - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Hymn 102 O very God of very God William Tans'ur, 1734

Introit Tone IV

All the earth shall worship thee, O God, and sing of thee; they shall sing praises to thy Name, O Most Highest.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name; make his praise to be glorious. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Altissimus, Mode V

Gradual Tone V

The Lord sent his Word and healed them: and they were saved from their destruction. V. O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men.

Alleluia Tone II

Praise the Lord, all ye Angels of his: Praise Him all ye hosts. Alleluia.

Hymn 105 Thy kingdom come, O God! Leighton G. Hayne, 1863

Credo Harold Darke in F

Offertory Tone I

O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name. O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul.

Anthem John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who his own Self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Darke

Communio Tone III

There came a voice from heaven, saying: Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Darke

Antiphon Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Antiphon: While the King sitteth Marcel Dupre

Solemn Evensong

Chorale-Preludes: J. S. Bach

Jesus, Priceless Treasure (E minor)
Jesus, my Safety

Hymn 98 How bright appears the Morning Star Philip Nicolai, 1599

Anthem J. S. Bach

With joy we march onward to Zion with singing! Thanksgiving we render to Him who upholdeth!
He leadeth us on in highways of light.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Organ—Antiphon: He remembering his mercy Marcel Dupre

ALL OFFERINGS TODAY ARE FOR DIOCESAN, DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Woman's Aid to the Convocation of South Philadelphia will meet on Tuesday, January 27th, in St. Mark's Church. The program is as follows:

10.30—Mrs. Wm. H. Jefferys — "Christianity and World Order."

12.00—Meditations.

12.30—Box Luncheon. Tea and coffee provided.

1.15—Rev. L. L. Rose, Sagada, Luzon, Philippine Islands—"Work on the Islands."

2.00—Meeting of Woman's Aid.

The Rector will conduct a Quiet Evening for women on Monday, February 2nd, beginning with Evensong. A sixty-five-cent supper will be served. Reservations may be sent to Mrs. McFaul or given to the members of the Evening Auxiliary.

The United Charities Campaign, January 25 to February 11, is a great uniting influence in Philadelphia in time of war. The 141 Agencies supported through this campaign are rendering an indispensable service. War accentuates the need. Philadelphia is the first major city to project its United Campaign since the declaration of war. The goal is approximately $4,500,000. Our people are urged to support this effort with time, effort and money.

The Forward Movement leaflets—"Our Home at Worship"—manuals for Family Prayer, are on the table in the rear of the church. Copies are 3 cents each.

The Evening Auxiliary has plenty of Red Cross wool for distribution. The quota of knitted articles for the eastern division is 3,000 men's sweaters, 5,200 women's sweaters, 24,000 children's sweaters, 2,000 mittens, 6,000 children's knitted suits, and 500 caps or beanies. These articles are to be stored in this country for civilian use as the emergency may arise.

Hymn 271 We sing the glorious conquest Meiningen, 1693

Introit Tone I
I know him in whom I have believed: and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day, a righteous Judge.
Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevissima) Claudio Casciolini

Gradual Tone V

He that wrought effectually in Peter to the Apostleship, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles: and they perceived the grace that was given: unto me. V. The grace of God which was bestowed upon me was not in vain: but his grace ever abideth in me.

Alleluia Tone II

Great is Saint Paul, a chosen vessel: truly he is worthy to be glorified who also deserved to possess the twelfth throne. Alleluia.

Hymn 117 He who would valiant be Winfred Douglas, 1917

Credo (Mass in A minor) Casciolini

Offertory Tone III

Right dear, O God, are thy friends unto me, and held in highest honour, their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast.

Anthem Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted; to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness; the planting of the Lord that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Casciolini

Communio Tone I

Verily, I say unto you, that ye which have forsaken all and followed me: shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo Casciolini

Antiphon Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Psalms 1, 15 Tones I-1, III-5

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II with faux-bourdon by Oreste Ravanello

Hymn (English Hymnal, 175) Aeterna Christi Munera

The eternal gifts of Christ the King, 'Twas thus the yearning faith of Saints,
The Apostles' glorious deeds, we sing; The unconquered hope that never faints;
And while due hymns of praise we pay, The love of Christ that knows not shame,
Our thankful hearts cast grief away. The prince of this world overcame.

The Church in these her princes boasts, In these the Father's glory shone;
These victor chiefs of warrior hosts; In these the will of God the Son;
The soldiers of the heavenly hall, In these exults the Holy Ghost;
The lights that rose on earth for all. Through these rejoice the heavenly host.

Redeemer, hear us of thy love,
That, with this glorious band above,
Hereafter, of thine endless grace,
Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

Motet Vittoria

Glorious in heaven are the souls of all Saints, who walked in the way of the Lord Jesus: and as they died for the Saviour, losing life for his sake, now they reign with Him for ever.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mechlin Melody

Hymn 113 Fight the good fight - William Boyd, 1864

Introit - - - - - Tone V

The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me; and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

Ps. I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my defence and my Saviour. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison - - - - - Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual - - - - - Tone III

Thou art a refuge in due time of trouble; they that know thee will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, never failest them that seek thee. V. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever: Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let thine ears consider well: the prayers of thy servant. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it? For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared, O Lord.

Hymn 116 Oft in danger, oft in woe Henry J. Gauntlett, 1852

Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy Name, O Most Highest.

Hymn 237 When all thy mercies, O my God Thomas Tallis, 1567

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Cavaliere

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance; and save me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee.

Motet - - - - - Anton Brückner, 1848

Jesus is a gem of price;	Jesus is of songs the best,
Mine of never-failing treasure;	Ear hath heard or tongue hath sounded;
Jesus is a Paradise,	Name it, and of heaven possesset,
Shoreless sea of heavenly pleasure;	Thrills my soul with joy unbounded:
Jesus doth, as cooling dew,	Jesus is my heart's delight,
Thirsty plain and mead renew.	Pride and glory, day and night.

Antiphon - - - - - Mode I

I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Psalm 104 - - - - - Tone III-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II with faux-bourdon by Oreste Ravanello

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 33 - - - - - Mode II

Creator of the world, to thee	O Father, who dost promise still
An endless rest of joy belongs;	That they who mourn shall blessed be,
And heavenly choirs are ever free	Grant us to weep for deeds of ill
To sing on high their festal songs.	That banish us so long from thee.

But we are fallen creatures here,	But, while we weep, grant faith to rest
Where pain and sorrow daily come;	In hope upon thy loving care;
And how can we, in exile drear,	Till thou restore us, with the blest,
Sing out, as they, sweet songs of home?	Their songs of praise in heaven to share.

Motet (Senex puerum portabat) - - - - - Vittoria

Simeon carried the Infant, but the Infant governed the old man; the Virgin bare the Child, yet remained Virgin for ever: therefore we bow the knee, praising the Lord.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - - - Mechlin Melody

Hymn 4 Christ, whose glory fills the skies

Werner's Choralbuch, 1815

Introit

Tone I

Arise, O Lord, wherefore sleepest thou? awaken, and cast us not away for ever: wherefore hidest thou thy countenance, and forgettest our adversity and misery? our belly cleaveth unto the ground; arise, and save us, O Lord our helper and our deliverer.

Ps. O God, we have heard with our ears: our fathers have told us, Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis)

Everett Titcomb

Gradual

Tone III

Let the nations know that thou, whose Name is Jehovah: art only the Most Highest over all the earth. V. O my God, make them like unto a wheel: and as the stubble before the wind.

Tract

Tone VIII

Thou hast moved the land, O Lord, and divided it: heal the sores thereof for it shaketh. That they may triumph because of the truth: that thy beloved may be delivered.

Hymn 118 My soul, be on thy guard

Cantica Landis, 1850

Credo III

Mode V

Offertory

Tone IV

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not: incline thine ear to me, and hearken unto my words. Shew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O Lord: thou that art the Saviour of them that put their trust in thee.

Hymn 259 Praise to the Holiest in the height J. B. Dykes, 1868

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Titcomb

Communio

Tone VIII

I will go unto the Altar of God: even unto the God of my joy and gladness.

Motet

Ahle-Bach

Jesu, joyaunce of my heart,
Blessed Jesu:
Bliss unto my soul thou art,
Holy Jesu:
Sure defence from Satan's dart,
Sweetest Jesu;
Jesu, sweetest Jesu.

Nought is lovelier than thou,
Dearest Jesu:
None is friendlier than thou,
Gentlest Jesu:
Nor is any sweet as thou,
Sweetest Jesu;
Jesu, sweetest Jesu.

Nunc Dimittis

*Tonus Peregrinus, with faux bourdon
by Vincente Ripolles*

Hymn (Plainsong Hymnal, 34)

Mode IV

O God, the joy of heaven above,
Thou didst not need thy creatures' love
When from thy secret place was said
The Word that earth's foundations laid.

But ere, O Lord, this lovely earth
From thy creative will had birth,
Thou in thy counsels didst unfold
Another world of fairer mould.

Thou spakest; worlds began to be,
They stand before thy majesty;
And all to their Creator raise
A wondrous harmony of praise.

That world doth our Redeemer frame
And build upon his mighty Name;
His Church shall last in heaven for aye,
Till time itself hath passed away.

Motet

Zingarelli

Go not far from me, O God; cast me not away in the time of age: forsake me not when my strength faileth me.

O let my mouth be filled with thy praise: that I may sing thy glory and honour all the day long.

The United Charities Campaign, which supports the program of 141 hospitals and other social agencies, is drawing to its close. On Thursday last it had obtained 67 percent of the goal of $4,330,000.

As this is the first large community chest effort since war was declared, prompt and complete success is of the utmost importance, both locally and nationally. This Campaign must and can succeed, but it will fail if we are complacent as to the outcome. New gifts and increased gifts must be made. More workers are needed and can be used.

Hymn 123 Forty days and forty nights

Martin Herbst, 1676

Introit

Tone VIII

He shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto him: I will deliver him, and bring him to honour; with length of days will I satisfy him.

Ps. Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison

Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual

Tone II

God shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways. V. They shall bear thee in their hands: lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Tract

Tone VIII

Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High: shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say unto the Lord, thou art my hope and my stronghold: my God, in Him will I trust.

For He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter: and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings: and thou shalt be safe under his feathers.

His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler: thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night. Nor for the arrow that flieth by day, for the pestilence that walketh in darkness: nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noon-day.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee. For he shall give his Angels charge over thee: to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands: that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him up, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will hear him: yea, I am with him in trouble.

I will deliver him and bring him to honour: with long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Credo I

Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory

Tone VIII

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

The Lord shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers: his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Ave Verum

Proper Melody, Rouen

Hail, True Body, born of Mary,
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth;
Thou who truly hangedst weary
On the Cross for sons of earth:

Thou whose Sacred Side was riven
Whence the Water flowed and Blood;
O mayst thou, dear Lord, be given
At death's hour to be our Food.

O most kind! O gracious One!

O sweetest Jesu, Holy Mary's Son. Amen.

Antiphon

I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Hymn (English Hymnal, 65)

Rouen Church Melody

The fast, as taught by holy lore
We keep in solemn course once more:
The fast to all men known and bound
In forty days of yearly round.

In prayer together let us fall,
And cry for mercy, one and all;
And weep before the Judge's feet
And his avenging wrath entreat.

The laws and seers that were of old
In divers ways this Lent foretold;
Which Christ, all seasons' King and guide
In after ages sanctified.

Forgive the sin that we have wrought,
Increase the good that we have sought;
That we at length, our wanderings o'er,
May please thee here and evermore.

More sparing therefore let us make
The words we speak, the food we take;
Our sleep and mirth,—and closer barred
Be every sense in holy guard.

We pray Thee, Holy Trinity,
One God, unchanging Unity;
That we, from this our abstinence,
May reap the fruits of penitence. Amen.

Anthem

J. S. Bach

I would beside my Lord be watching, that evil draw me not astray. For my sake, He to die will undertake; his sorrow joy for me secureth. The griefs that He for us endureth, how bitter, yet how sweet are they.

John H. Merscher, Tenor

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331

Mechlin Melody

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.

R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Hymn 124 Lord, when we bend before thy throne
Christopher Tye, 1553

Introit Tone IV

Call to remembrance thy tender compassion and mercy, O Lord, and thy loving kindness toward us, which have been ever of old: neither suffer our enemies to triumph against us; deliver us, O God of Israel, out of all our misery and trouble.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Cavaliere, c. 1600

Gradual Tone V

The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O Lord, bring thou me out of my troubles. V. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sin.

Tract Tone II

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever. Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that alway keep judgment: and do righteousness. Remember us, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest unto thy people O visit us with thy salvation.

Hymn 128 Christian, seek not yet repose William H. Monk, 1868

Credo I Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory Tone II

My delight shall be in thy commandments, which I have loved exceedingly; my hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved.

Hymn 389 Hark, my soul! it is the Lord John B. Dykes, 1868

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Cavaliere

Communio Tone V

Consider my meditation; O hearken thou unto the voice of my calling, my King and my God: for unto thee will I make my prayer, O Lord.

Ave Verum Mozart

Jesu, Word of God Incarnate	Cleanse us by the Blood and Water
Of the Virgin Mary born;	Streaming from thy pierced side,
On the Cross thy sacred Body	Feed us with thy Body broken,
For us men with nails was torn.	Now, and in death's agony.

Antiphon Mode I

I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Chorale: O Lamb of God, unspotted Bach

Solemn Evensong

Organ—Adagio (Modal Suite) Flor Peeters

Psalm 119 (verses 33-72) Tones I, 10, IV-2

Magnificat Tone I-5, with faux-bourdon by Robert Fayrfax, 1521

Nunc Dimittis Tone VII-1, with faux bourdon by an Edwardine composer, 1547

Hymn (English Hymnal, 81) Mode II

O Christ, who art the Light and Day, Thou drivest darksome night away! We know thee as the Light of light, Illuminating mortal sight.	Yea, our Defender, be thou nigh To bid the powers of darkness fly; Keep us from sin, and guide for good Thy servants purchased by thy Blood.
--	---

All-holy Lord, we pray to thee, Keep us tonight from danger free; Grant us, dear Lord, in thee to rest So be our sleep in quiet blest	Remember us, dear Lord, we pray While in this mortal flesh we stay; 'Tis thou who dost the soul defend— Be present with us to the end.
--	---

And while the eyes soft slumber take, Still be the heart to thee awake; Be thy right hand upheld above Thy servants resting in thy love.	Blest Three in One and One in Three, Almighty God, we pray to thee That thou wouldst now vouchsafe to bless Our fast with fruits of righteousness.
---	---

Anthem (Cantata 78) J. S. Bach

Chorale—Jesu, my beloved Saviour, by thy death thou dost me save
Out of darkness and destruction, from the terror of the grave:
By thy might the victory gaineth, and thy truth to us revealeth
In thy holy, blessed Word: be thou still our help, O Lord.

Aria-Duetto—We hasten with feeble, but diligent footsteps, O Jesus, O Master, for help unto thee. Thou tenderly seekest the sick and the erring. Ah!
hear us, we lift up our voices, for succour we pray thee! Vouchsafe unto us the light of thy countenance.

Chorale—Lord, thy Word have I believed, let despair affright me not;
Grant that strength may be received, when to death my soul is brought;
In thy goodness all confiding, in thy mercy still abiding,
Lord, protect me, by thy grace, till I meet thee, face to face.

Devotions

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mechlin Melody

Hymn 134 Lord, who throughout these forty days

Day's Psalter, 1562

Introit

Tone VII

Mine eyes are ever looking unto the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net: look thou upon me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate, afflicted and in misery.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee; O let me not be confounded. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis)

Everett Titcomb

Gradual

Tone III

Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand: let the heathen be judged in thy sight. V. While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

Tract

Tone VIII

Unto thee lift I up mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heavens. Be- hold, even as the eyes of servants: look unto the hand of their masters. And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of their mistress: even so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O Lord: have mercy upon us.

Hymn 393 Lord Jesus, think on me

Samuel Howard, 1762

Credo I

Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory

Tone IV

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; his judgments also are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb: moreover by them is thy servant taught.

Hymn 247 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us Dulce Carmen, 1782

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei

Titcomb

Communio

Tone I

The sparrow hath found her an house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: even thy Altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be always praising thee.

Ave Verum

des Pres

Hail, true Body, born of Mary,
Spotless Virgin's virgin birth;
Thou who truly hangedst weary
On the Cross for sons of earth.

Thou whose sacred Side was riven,
Whence the Water flowed and Blood;
O mayst thou, dear Lord, be given
At death's hour to be our food.

Antiphon

Mode I

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and I with faux bourdon by Cesar de Zachariis

Hymn (English Hymnal, 67)

Thomas Campion, 1575-1619

Now is the healing time decreed
For sins of heart, of word or deed,
When we in humble fear record
The wrong that we have done the Lord.

Therefore with fasting and with prayer,
Our secret sorrow we declare;
With all good striving seek his face,
And lowly hearted plead for grace.

Who, alway merciful and good,
Has borne so long our wayward mood,
Nor cut us off unsparingly
In our so great iniquity.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address,
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord.

Anthem (from the Passion according to St. John)

J. S. Bach

Chorale: O mighty King, eternal is thy glory!
What tongue can fitly tell thy wondrous story?
What heart can find a worthy gift to proffer?
Nought dare we offer.
In vain on thy perfections, Lord, we ponder!
Thy boundless mercy still transcends our wonder,
How then shall we do aught that can delight thee?
Or e'er requite thee?

Arioso: Consider, O my soul, with fearful joy consider, with bitter anguish in thy heart afflicted, thy highest good is Jesus' sorrow. For thee, from the thorns that pierce Him, what heavenly flowers spring, thou canst the sweetest fruit from his wormwood gather, then look for evermore to Him.

Chorale, Within our inmost being, O breathe this comfort o'er us
Thy Name and Cross alone, When low in grief we lie,
'The Light of all our seeing', That Thou, Lord Jesus, for us
Prevailing influence own. Hast given Thyself to die.

Hymn 316 Jesus, the very thought of thee John B. Dykes, 1866

Introit - - - - - Tone V

Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that delight in her: exult and sing for joy with her, all ye that in sadness mourn for her; that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolation.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancti Josephi) - - - Flor Peeters

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Tract - - - - - Tone VIII

They that put their trust in the Lord shall be even as the mount Syon: which may not be removed, but standeth fast for ever. The hills stand about Jerusalem: even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time forth for evermore.

Hymn 154 When I survey the wondrous Cross E. Miller, 1790

Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

O praise the Lord, for he is gracious; O sing praises unto his Name, for he is lovely: whatsoever he pleased, that did he in heaven and in earth.

Hymn 160 We sing the praise of Him who died Leipzig, 1625

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Peeters

Communio - - - - - Tone IV

Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity in itself. For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord; to give thanks unto thy Name, O Lord.

Motet (Adoramus te) - Jacques Clement, sixteenth century

We adore Thee, O Christ, and we bless Thee: for by thy Holy Cross thou hast redeemed the world.

Antiphon - - - - - Mode I

I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Psalm 119, (verses 105-144) - Tones VII-3, V-1

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and I with faux bourdon by Cesar de Zachariis

Hymn (English Hymnal, 68) - Luther, 1483-1546

The glory of these forty days
We celebrate with songs of praise;
For Christ, by whom all things were made,
Himself has fasted and has prayed.

So Daniel trained his mystic sight,
Delivered from the lion's might;
And John, the Bridegroom's friend, became
The herald of Messiah's name.

Alone and fasting Moses saw
The Loving God who gave the Law;
And to Elijah, fasting, came
The steed and chariots of flame.

Then grant us, Lord, like them to be
Full oft in fast and prayer with thee;
Our spirits strengthen with thy grace
And give us joy to see thy face.

Father and Son and Spirit blest,
To thee be every prayer address;
Who art in threefold Name adored,
From age to age, the only Lord.

Motet - - - Palestrina, 1525-1594

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks, even so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

ALL OFFERINGS TODAY ARE FOR DIOCESAN, DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN MISSIONS.

In order to assist the Chaplains of the armed forces of the United States in their work, our Church needs a large sum of money to distribute prayer books amongst the soldiers and sailors, to provide Communion sets for our Chaplains, and also to set up a discretionary fund for those who are ministering in hospitals and for other expenses which are peculiar to our Church and not covered by the Government appropriations. Then there are the small parishes adjacent to huge camps, which must have help.

The Bishop, at the request of our Church Commission and the Army and Navy Chaplains, calls upon us to contribute according to our ability, and for this purpose you will find in the pews envelopes to enable you to make your offering as early as possible, or pledge cards on which to indicate your payment at a more convenient later date.

There will be a Corporate Communion of the Altar Society on Sunday, March 22nd, at 8 A. M.

On Fridays during Lent, at 5 P. M., the Choir will sing the Litany in Procession.

Saturday Quiet Evenings for Women—from 4.30 to 9.00 P. M. at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue—

Eve of Palm Sunday—The Rev. Vincent F. Pottle

Please register well in advance if you wish to attend.

The librarian of the Episcopal Hospital cannot supply the great demand for mystery stories. She can use all we send her. Will you leave a "thriller" (marked for Church Periodical Club) at the Parish House? Thank you.

High Mass

Hymn 338 (Part I) Now, my tongue, the mystery telling Mode III

Introit Tone IV

Give sentence with me, O God, and defend the cause of my soul against the ungodly people; deliver me, and rid me from the deceitful and wicked man; for thou, O Lord, art my God and my strong salvation.

Ps. O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me: and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

Kyrie Eleison Mass XVII, Mode VI

Gradual Tone III

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies: teach me to do the thing that pleaseth thee. V. It is thou, Lord, that deliverest me from my cruel enemies, and settest me up above mine adversaries: thou shalt rid me from the wicked man.

Tract Tone VIII

Many a time have they fought against me from my youth up, may Israel now say: yea, many a time have they vexed me from my youth up. But they have not prevailed against me: the plowers plowed upon me back. And made long furrows: but the righteous Lord hath hewn the snares of the ungodly in pieces.

Hymn 157 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing
Moravian Melody, 1745

Credo III Mode V

Offertory Tone I

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord; with my whole heart: O do well unto thy servant, that I may live and keep thy word. Quicken thou me, O Lord, according to thy word.

Hymn 131 O Jesus! Lord most merciful Anon.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Mass XVII, Mode V

Communio Tone VIII

This is my Body, which is given for you; this Cup is the New Testament in my Blood, saith the Lord: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

Tantum Ergo (Hymn 338, Part II) Vittoria, 1540-1613

Antiphon Mode I

I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord.

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII with faux-bourdon
by Healey Willan

Hymn 144 The Royal Banners forward go
Sarum Plainsong, Mode I

Motet Vittoria, 1540-1613

Mine eyes are darkened, and my tears floweth for very sorrow: For the Comforter is far from me, he that should relieve my soul.

O hear me, all ye people! See if sorrow was like to my sorrow.

Ye who travel on the highway: O hear thou me, and behold me! See if sorrow was like to my sorrow.

Devotions

Wednesday is the Feast of the Annunciation. There will be a third Mass at 9.30.

There will be a Corporate Communion of the Altar Society this morning at 8 A. M.

There will be a Corporate Communion of the Mothers' Union on Wednesday, March 25th, at 7.45 A. M. Breakfast will be served in the parish hall.

Will anyone who desires to offer white flowers, perhaps in memoriam, for use in the Chapel on Maundy Thursday, please arrange to have them delivered at the Church by two o'clock, Wednesday, April 1st?

If you have not sent in your contribution to the Army and Navy Commission Fund, to assist the Chaplains of the armed forces of the United States in their work, such contribution can be placed in the offering today or sent in to the office at your convenience.

On Fridays during Lent, at 5 P. M., the Choir will sing the Litany in Procession.

Saturday Quiet Evening for Women—from 4.30 to 9.00 P. M. at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue—

Eve of Palm Sunday—The Rev. Vincent F. Pottle
Please register well in advance if you wish to attend.

The librarian of the Episcopal Hospital cannot supply the great demand for mystery stories. She can use all we send her. Will you leave a "thriller" (marked for Church Periodical Club) at the Parish House? Thank you.

Introit

Tone VIII

Be not thou far from us, O Lord; thou art my succour; haste thee to help me. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

Ps. My God, my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Brevissima)

Claudio Casciolini

Gradual

Tone IV

Thou hast holden me by my right hand: thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and after that receive me with glory. V. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart. Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone; my treadings had well-nigh slipped: and why? I was grieved at the wicked; I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

Tract

Tone VIII

My God, my God, look upon me: why hast thou forsaken me? and art so far from my health and from the words of my complaint.

O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not: and in the night season also I take no rest. And thou continuest holy: O thou Worship of Israel.

Our fathers hoped in thee: they trust in thee, and thou didst deliver them. They called upon thee and were holpen: they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm and no man: a very scorn of men and the outcast of his people. All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads saying: He trusted in God that he would deliver him: let him deliver him if he will have him.

They stand staring and looking upon me: they part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. Save me from the lion's mouth: thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

O praise the Lord, ye that fear him; magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob. They shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation: they shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness. Unto a people that shall be born: whom the Lord hath made,

Credo III

Offertory

Tone VIII

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me. They gave me gall to eat: and when I was thirsty they gave me vinegar to drink.

Solemn High Mass

Hymns in } 172 Jesus Christ is risen today Lyra Davidica, 1708
 Procession } 178 At the Lamb's High Feast Jacob Hintze, 1678

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

I am risen, and am still with thee, alleluia: thou hast laid thine hand upon me, alleluia: thy knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in Honor of S. Clara) Licinio Refice, 1931

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

This is the Day which the Lord hath made: we will rejoice and be glad in it. V. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ever.

Alleluia - - - - - Tone VII

Christ our Passover: is sacrificed for us.

Sequence - - - - - Mode I

Christians, to the Paschal Victim, offer your thankful praises. A Lamb the sheep redeemeth; Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and Life have contended in that combat stupendous; the Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal.

Speak, Mary, declaring what thou sawest wayfaring: 'The Tomb of Christ who is living, the glory of Jesu's resurrection; bright Angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ, my hope is arisen: to Galilee he goes before you.'

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining: have mercy, Victor King, ever reigning. Amen. Alleluia.

Credo - - - - - Refice

Offertory - - - - - Tone VIII

The earth trembled and was still: when God arose to judgment, alleluia.

Anthem - - - - - Beethoven

Hallelujah! Hallelujah unto God's Almighty Son. Praise the Lord, ye bright angelic choirs, in holy songs of joy.

Man, proclaim his grace and glory. Praise the Lord in songs of joy.

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Refice

Communio - - - - - Tone VI

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us, alleluia: therefore let us keep the Feast with the unleavened Bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Refice

Antiphon

Introit - - - - Tone VI

As new-born babes, alleluia; desire ye the sincere milk of the word, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A) - - - Rheinberger

✓ Alleluia - - - - Tone VII

On the day of my Resurrection, saith the Lord: I will go before you into Galilee, alleluia. V. After eight days, when the doors were shut, Jesus stood in the midst of his disciples and said: Peace be unto you, alleluia.

✓ Hymn 175 Christ the Lord is risen today Arr. by Wilkes, 1861

✓ Credo - - - - Rheinberger

Offertory - - - - Tone VIII

The Angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and said unto the women: He whom ye seek is risen, as he said, alleluia.

✓ Motet (Surrexit Pastor Bonus) - Di Lasso, 1530-1594

The Shepherd has arisen, who willingly laid down his own life, that they, his sheep, might live; and his flock to ransom, to die was worthy deemed. Alleluia.

✓ Anthem - - - Melchior Vulpius, arr. by Ley

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor's triumph won:
O let the song of praise be sung,
Hallelujah!

Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed:
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst,
Hallelujah!

On the third morn He rose again,
Glorious in majesty to reign:
O let us swell the joyful strain,
Hallelujah!

Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to thee!
Hallelujah! Amen.

High Mass

- ✓ Hymn 339 Let all mortal flesh keep silence French Folk Tune
Introit - - - - - Tone IV

The loving-kindness of the Lord filleth the whole world, alleluia: by the Word of God the heavens were stablished, alleluia, alleluia:

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

- ✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa da Quinti Toni) - - - - - Di Lasso
✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus: in the breaking of bread, alleluia. I am the Good Shepherd: and know my sheep, and am known of mine, alleluia.

- ✓ Hymn 326 The King of love my Shepherd is J. B. Dykes, 1868
✓ Credo - - - - - Di Lasso

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: and lift up my hands in thy name, alleluia.

- ✓ Anthem - - - - - Melchior Vulpius, arr. by Ley

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor's triumph won:
O let the song of praise be sung,
Hallelujah!

Death's mightiest powers have done their worst,
And Jesus hath his foes dispersed:
Let shouts of praise and joy outburst,
Hallelujah!

On the third morn He rose again,
Glorious in majesty to reign:
O let us swell the joyful strain,
Hallelujah!

Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live, and sing to thee!
Hallelujah! Amen.

- ✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Di Lasso
Communion - - - - - Tone II

I am the Good Shepherd, alleluia: and know my sheep, and am known of mine, alleluia, alleluia.

- ✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Di Lasso
✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Osgan—Apparition de L'Eglise Eternelle Olivier Messiaen

Solemn Quensong

Organ—Lento - - - - - Georges Jacob
Pastorale

- ✓ Psalms 116, 117 - - - - - Tones II-1, Peregrinus

- ✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis - - - - - Stanford in B flat

- ✓ Hymn 176 Jesus lives! - - - - - Henry J. Gauntlett, 1852

- ✓ Anthem - - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear.

Love one another with a pure heart fervently; see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen!

- ✓ Devotions

- ✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - - - Sarum Plainsong, Mode VIII

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three;
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven, alleluia.

R. Containing in itself all sweetness, alleluia.

Praise, the true heart's offer,	Christ is Head and Ending
Let our voices proffer,	Of their aim and telling,
And our thanks to Christ resound	He whose presence all things fills.
For the Faith's four Preachers,	By the blest inditing
And unshaken Teachers,	Of their Holy Writing
Whom his grace hath made renowned.	Stands the Church secure from ills.

Here those four rings golden,	At their supplication,
Well may be beholden	Grant us, Lord, salvation
Which the Ark of God upbore;	From eternal death and woe;
Christ, the good seed sowing	By their Holy Teaching
And the fruit bestowing,	Safe and happy reaching
In the doctrine of the Four.	Of celestial joys bestow

High Mass

✓ Hymn 180 Forty days of Eastertide Maclagan, 1875

Introit Tone VI

O sing unto the Lord a new song, alleluia: for the Lord hath done marvellous things, alleluia; in the sight of the nations hath he showed his righteous judgments, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. With his own right hand and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison Altissimus, Mode V

✓ Alleluia Tone V

The right hand of the Lord bringeth mighty things to pass: the right hand of the Lord hath the pre-eminence. Alleluia. Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion over Him. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 254 How wondrous and great thy works Michael Haydn

✓ Credo Harold Darke in F

Offertory Tone I

O be joyful in God, all ye lands; sing praises unto the honour of his Name O come hither and hearken, all ye that fear God: and I will tell you what the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

✓ Anthem Sir Edward Elgar

Light of the world, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, And all the host of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal Light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin is Lord, but thou, O Son of God; thy Word is now our sovereign law, therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the perfect Day on us for evermore.

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Darke

Communio Tone VIII

When the Comforter, the Spirit of truth is come: he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment, alleluia, alleluia.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo Darke

✓ Antiphon Mode V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

✓ Psalms 129, 130, 131 Tones IV-4, IV-6, VIII-2

✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tone VIII, with faux-bourdon by Oreste Ravanello

✓ Hymn 261 Awake, and sing the song Gauntlett, 1858

✓ Anthem Sir George Martin

Hail, gladdening Light, of his pure glory poured, who is the immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest, Holiest of Holiest, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest, the lights of evening round us shine, we hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine.

Worthiest art thou at all times to be sung with undefiled tongue, Son of our God, Giver of life, Alone! Therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own.

✓ Devotions

✓ Hymn 445 O God, our help in ages past William Croft, 1708

Introit Tone III

With a voice of singing, declare ye this, and let it be heard, alleluia: utter it even unto the ends of the earth; the Lord hath delivered his people, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. O be joyful in God, all ye lands: sing praises unto the honour of his Name, make his praise to be glorious. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in honor of S. Clara) Licinio Refice

✓ Alleluia Tone V

Christ is risen and hath shone upon us: whom he redeemed with his blood. Alleluia. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go the Father. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 181 O Jesus, crowned with all renown
Joseph Barnby, 1838-1896

✓ Credo Refice

Offertory Tone II

O praise the Lord our God, ye people; and make the voice of his praise to be heard: who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to slip. Praised be the Lord, who hath not cast out my prayer: nor turned his mercy from me, alleluia.

✓ Anthem Vaughan-Williams

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us: Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge.

Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Refice

Communio Tone II

O sing unto the Lord, alleluia: sing unto the Lord and praise his Name; be telling of his salvation from day to day, alleluia, alleluia.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo Refice

✓ Antiphon Mode V

To him that overcometh will I give the hidden Manna, and a new name, alleluia.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

by Oreste Ravanello*

✓ Hymn 183 Lord, in thy Name thy servants plead James Turle, 1835

✓ Anthem Josef Haydn

Distracted with care and anguish,
When hearts despairing languish,
Madly they seek for comfort
Where it doth ne'er abide.

For us no rest remaineth,
If earth our love retaineth,
And heaven we cast aside.

On June 3rd, 1942, Father Williamson will have completed twenty-five years of faithful service of Our Lord, and it has been brought to our attention by a special committee appointed from St. Michael's Chapel, Yeadon, that they are contemplating a celebration commemorating the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Father Williamson's Ordination.

On Whitsunday, May 24th, there will be a Corporate Communion for the congregation at St. Michael's Chapel at 8 A. M., and a Solemn High Mass at 11 A. M. We shall all remember Father Williamson in our prayers.

At the Spring Presentation of the United Thank Offering held at Holy Trinity on May 7th, 1942, the amount received from this Diocese was $11,014.01, a slight increase over that of last spring. St. Mark's Parish contributed $287.00, St. Michael's Chapel $28.78 and St. Mary's Chapel, $66.46. More givers to the Offering are needed and blue boxes may be obtained from the office of the Secretary.

The Convocation of S. Philadelphia will hold its Spring Meeting at Holy Apostles Church on Tuesday, May 26th.

The War Department has made an earnest request of the Red Cross for immediate shipment of comfort kits to the men in the Service. The quota for this Chapter is 10,000 kits. On Monday and Tuesday of this week there will be a third Mass at 9.30 A. M.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days.

On June 3rd, 1942, Father Williamson will have completed twenty-five years of faithful service of Our Lord, and it has been brought to our attention by a special committee appointed from St. Michael's Chapel, Yeadon, that they are commemorating the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Father Williamson's Ordination.

In addition to the Corporate Communion for the congregation at St. Michael's Chapel at 8 A. M., and a Solemn High Mass at 11 A. M. today, a Reception will be held at the Chapel Hall for Father Williamson on Wednesday Evening, June 3rd, at 8.15 P. M.

The Convocation of S. Philadelphia will hold its Spring Meeting at the Church of the Holy Apostles, 21st and Christian Streets, on Tuesday, May 26th. The Woman's Aid will meet at 3.30. Supper will be served at 6 P. M. A charge of fifty cents will be made to cover the supper cost.

At the Evening Meeting at 8 P. M. the Bishop will be present. The Speakers will be the Rev. Frederick Blatz, Rector of St. Peter's, Rev. Frank E. Salmon, D. D., Rector of Holy Trinity, and Rev. E. G. Mullen, a Missionary from the Philippines.

To aid the families of the Navy's fighting men, the Navy Relief Society asks your cooperation in the fund-raising campaign now being conducted by the Citizens Committee. Philadelphia's quota in this national effort is $300,000. Increased personnel and the greatest number of naval casualties in American history have necessitated this appeal.

✓ Hymn 561 Joy because the circling year - Dresden, 1694

✓ Anthem - - - - Sir Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captive, and recovering of sight to the blind; to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; to give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all nations.

I bind unto myself this day Christ in safety, Christ in danger,
The glory of the Trinity; Christ beside each friend and stranger;
I humbly praise the awful Name, Christ consoling all that love me,
The Three in One, and One in Three. Christ be with me this day.

Christ be near me, Christ within me, I bind unto myself this day
Christ be ever before me; The stable earth, the deep salt sea;
Christ beneath me, Christ above me, The sweet pale moon, the sun's bright ray,
Christ be with me this day. The whirling winds, the lightning free

High Mass

✓Hymn 259 Praise to the Holiest - J. B. Dykes, 1868

Introit - - - - - Tone II

He fed them also with the finest wheat-flour, alleluia: and with honey from the rock hath he satisfied them, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Ps. Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Glory be.

✓Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sanctae Crucis) - Everett Titcomb

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season. V. Thou openest thine hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

✓Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

My Flesh is meat indeed; and my Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth my Flesh and drinketh my Blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

✓Sequence - - - - - Mechlin Vesperale, Mode IV

Laud, O Syon, thy salvation,	Here beneath these signs are hidden
Laud with hymns of exultation,	Priceless things, to sense forbidden,
Christ, thy King and Shepherd true;	Signs, not things, are all we see;
Bring him all the praise thou knowest,	Blood is poured, and Flesh is broken,
He is more than thou bestowest,	Yet in either wondrous token
Never canst thou reach his due.	Christ entire we know to be.

Full and clear ring out thy chanting,	Whoso of this Food partaketh
Joy, nor sweetest grace be wanting,	Rendeth not the Lord nor breaketh,
From thy heart let praises burst;	Christ is whole to all that taste;
For today the Feast is holden	Thousands are, as one, receivers,
When the Institution olden	One, as thousands of believers,
Of that Supper was rehearsed.	Eats of him who cannot waste.

✓Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

The priests of the Lord offer burnt-offerings and Bread unto God: and therefore shall they be holy unto their God, and shall not profane his Name, alleluia.

✓Hymn 328 Jesus, thou Joy of loving hearts - Mode I

✓Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Titcomb

Communio - - - - - Tone V II

As often as ye eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till He come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this Bread and drink this Cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and Blood of the Lord, alleluia.

✓Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Titcomb

✓Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

I will receive the Cup of Salvation, and I will offer the sacrifice of praise.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three;
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with thee.

Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
Containing in itself all sweetness.

High Mass

✓ Hymn 249 All people that on earth do dwell Bourgeois, 1551

Introit Tone VI

Turn thee unto me and have mercy upon me, O Lord: for I am desolate and in tribulation. Look thou on my affliction and my travail: and forgive me all mine iniquities, O my God.

Ps. Unto thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul: my God, I have put my trust in thee, O let me not be confounded. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison Mode V, Altissimus

Gradual Tone VII

O cast thy burden upon the Lord: and he shall nourish thee. V. When I called upon the Lord he heard my voice: from the battle that was against me.

✓ Alleluia Tone VIII

God is a righteous Judge, strong and patient: and God is provoked every day. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care Bourgeois, 1551

✓ Credo III Mode V

Offertory Tone III

All they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee, O Lord: for thou never failest them that seek thee. O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: for he forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

✓ Hymn 258 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven Goss, 1869

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Harold Darke in F

Communio Tone V

I say unto you there is joy in the presence of the Angels of God: over one sinner that repenteth.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo Darke

✓ Antiphon Mode V

I will receive the Cup of Salvation, and I will offer the sacrifice of praise.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Cantabile Cesar Franck

High Mass

✓ Hymn 445 O God, our help in ages past William Croft, 1708

Introit Tone II

The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom then shall I fear? the Lord is the stronghold of my life, of whom shall I be afraid? When mine enemies pressed sore upon me they stumbled and fell.

Ps. Though an host of men were laid against me: yet shall not my heart be afraid. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison Mode V, Altissimus

Gradual Tone V

Be merciful, O Lord, unto my sins: wherefore do the heathen say, Where is now their God? Help us, O God of our salvation: and for the glory of thy Name, O Lord, deliver us.

✓ Alleluia Tone VIII

O God, who art set in the throne and judgest right: be thou a refuge for the oppressed in the time of trouble. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 312 God of mercy, God of grace Henry Smart, 1866

with faux-bourdon by J. S. Bach*

✓ Hymn 283 Forsaken once, and thrice denied Edwin Drewett, 1887

✓ Anthem Melody by N. Hermann, 1560, arr. by Ley

Lo, round the Throne, a glorious band
The Saints in countless myriads stand,
Of every tongue redeemed of God,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood,
Hallelujah!

Through tribulation great they came;
They bore the cross, endured the shame;
From all their labours now they rest,
In God's eternal glory blest,
Hallelujah!

They see their Saviour face to face,
And sing the triumphs of his grace;
Him day and night they ceaseless praise,
To Him the loud thanksgiving raise,
Hallelujah!

Worthy the Lamb, for sinners slain,
Through endless years to live and reign;
Thou hast redeemed us by thy Blood,
And made us kings and priests to God,
Hallelujah!

O may we tread the sacred road
That Saints and Holy Martyrs trod;
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life,
Hallelujah! Amen.

The Corporate Communion of the Woman's Auxiliary will be made today at 8 A. M.

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held in the Parish Building on Thursday afternoon, October 8th, at 2.30 P. M. The Speaker will be Mrs. Francis Packard, President of the Woman's Auxiliary of Pennsylvania. We will be glad to welcome any new members of the Congregation, or any members who have not attended before, to our Meetings.

The regular meeting of the Evening Auxiliary will be held on Monday Evening, October 5th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish Parlor. We hope that all the members will try to be present inasmuch as plans for the year will be discussed and formulated.

The Church Periodical Club needs a subscription, or a forwarded copy, of the National Geographic and the Holy Cross Magazine for two priests. If you will give either, please notify Mrs. Theodore F. Jenkins, 1930 Rittenhouse Square.

The Service of Consecration of Dr. Hart as Bishop Co-Adjutor will be held in the Memorial Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets, on Friday morning, October 16th, at 10.30 o'clock. Seating provision by allotted tickets only.

A public informal Reception will be given to Dr. and Mrs. Hart on Friday, October 16th, at the Church House, from 4 to 6 P. M. No tickets will be required for the Reception.

In order to expedite delivery of mail to our Armed Forces outside of Continental United States, the Postmaster is asking that citizens use the "V-Mail Letter Service" which the Post Office Department has introduced. For full particulars see the notice on Bulletin Board.

High Mass

✓ Hymn 5 Now that the sun is gleaming bright Reinagle, 1836

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Give peace, O Lord, to them that wait for thee, and let thy prophets be found faithful: regard the prayers of thy servant, and of thy people Israel.

Ps. I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in A) - - - - - Josef Rheinberger

Gradual - - - - - Tone VII

I was glad when they said unto me: we will go into the house of the Lord.
V. Peace be within thy walls: and plenteousness within thy palaces.

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth thy majesty. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 235 O Love that casts out fear Henry Smart, 1881

✓ Credo - - - - - Rheinberger

Offertory - - - - - Tone V

Moses consecrated an Altar unto the Lord, offering burnt-offerings upon it, and sacrificing peace-offerings: and he made an evening sacrifice for a sweet-smelling savour unto the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel.

✓ Anthem (Psalm 150) - - - - - Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments; Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals; Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath: Praise the Lord. Hallelujah!

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - - - Rheinberger

Communio - - - - - Tone IV

Bring presents, and come into his courts: O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Rheinberger

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O Praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

✓ Psalms 22, 23 - - - - - Tones II-I, VI

✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and I with with faux-bourdon by Cesar de Zachariis

✓ Hymn - - - - - Chartres Church Melody

Be present, Holy Trinity,
Like splendour, and one Deity;
Of things above, and things below,
Beginning, that no end shall know.

And we, too, thanks and homage pay,
Thine own adoring flock today;
O join to that celestial song
The praises of our suppliant throng!

Thee all the armies of the sky
Adore, and laud, and magnify;
And Nature, in her triple frame,
For ever sanctifies thy Name.

Light, sole and one, we thee confess,
With triple praise we rightly bless;
Alpha and Omega we own,
With every spirit round thy throne.

To Thee, O unbegotten One,
And Thee, O sole-begotten Son,
And Thee, O Holy Ghost, we raise
Our equal and eternal praise. Amen.

✓ Anthem - - - - - S. S. Wesley

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God, through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time.

But as He which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; pass the time of your sojourning here in fear. Love one another with a pure heart fervently: see that ye love one another.

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass; the grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

But the Word of the Lord endureth for ever. Amen.

O Father, who didst all things make
That heaven and earth might do thy will;
Bless us this night for Jesus' sake,
And for thy work preserve us still.

O Holy Ghost, who by thy power
The Church dost call and sanctify;
Seal us this night, and hour by hour,
Our hearts and members purify.

O Son, who didst redeem mankind,
And set the captive sinner free;
Keep us this night with peaceful mind
That we may safe abide in thee

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the angel-host,
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

✓ Anthem - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; To give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Confirmation Instruction—By appointment. All persons who desire to consult with the Rector concerning Confirmation are asked to send in their names in order that instruction may be arranged and provided.

The Congregations of St. Michael's and St. Mary's Chapels of St. Mark's Parish have been invited to attend Evensong on Sunday, November 1st, at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Frank Williamson, Jr., Vicar of St. Michael's Chapel, will preach the sermon. I am very anxious to have St. Mark's well represented at this corporate service.

The Needlework Guild, which is affiliated with the Red Cross, is making a special drive for new members this year as the home charities need more aid than ever to carry on and help the families of the men in service. Two new garments or money contributions can be sent to Mrs. Chas. P. Maule, Section President, 2217 Rittenhouse Street, on or before October 26th.

The Fall Meeting of the Convocation of S. Philadelphia will be held at the Memorial Chapel of the Holy Communion, 27th and Wharton Streets, on Tuesday, October 27th. The Woman's Aid will meet at 3.30 P. M. The Clergy and Lay Delegates will meet at 5 P. M. Supper will be served at 6.15 P. M. at a cost of sixty cents per person. Reservations for supper should be sent to Rev. F. B. Bonyng, Dean of the Convocation.

The Presentation of the United Thank Offering will be held on Thursday, November 5th, at 8 P. M., in Holy Trinity Church, 19th and Walnut Streets. Our Bishop Coadjutor, Rev. Oliver J. Hart, will preach the sermon. Everyone is invited and we hope St. Mark's Parish will be well represented. Contributions to the Offering may be sent before that date to the Treasurer, Mrs. Alfred Hand, 1724 Pine Street.

High Mass

✓ Hymn 292 What praise and thanks to Thee we owe Turton, 1844

Introit - - - - - Tone II

Right dear, O God, are thy friends unto me, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast.

Ps. O Lord, thou hast searched me out and known me: thou knowest my down-sitting and mine uprising. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa Sancti Josephi) - - - Flor Peeters

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

Their sound is gone out into all lands: and their words unto the ends of the world. V. The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handiwork.

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

I have chosen you out of the world: that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit shall remain. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 59 Lord, thy Word abideth Ave Hierarchia, 1567

✓ Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone III

Right dear, O God, are thy friends unto me, and held in highest honour: their rule and governance is exceeding steadfast.

✓ Anthem - - - - - Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; To give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.

For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; So the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Peeters

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Ye which have followed me shall sit upon thrones: judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - - - Peeters

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Carillon-Sortie - - - Henri Mulet

Solemn Evensong

Organ—Improvisation-Preludes: - Everett Titcomb

Cibavit eos
Gaudeamus

✓ Psalms 1, 15 - - - Tones I-I, III-5

✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tone VIII, with faux-bourdon by Oreste Ravanello

✓ Hymn - - - H. W. Hawke, 1937

Praise, the true heart's offer	Christ is Head and Ending
Let our voices proffer,	Of their aim and telling,
And our thanks to Christ resound	He whose presence all things fills;
For the Faith's four Preachers	By the blest inditing
And unshaken Teachers,	Of their Holy Writing
Whom his grace hath made renowned.	Stands the Church secure from ills.

Here those four rings golden,	At their supplication,
Well may be beholden	Grant us, Lord, salvation
Which the Ark of God upbore;	From eternal death and woe:
Christ, the good seed sowing	By their Holy Teaching
And the fruit bestowing	Safe and happy reaching
In the doctrine of the Four.	Of celestial joys bestow.

✓ Motet - - - Vittoria

O how glorious is the Kingdom, in which, with Christ Jesus, liveth all the Saints; in holy robes of whiteness, worshipping the Lamb, they joy for evermore.

✓ Devotions

✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Mode VIII with faux-bourdon by Vittoria

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend
The gate of heaven to man below,	For evermore, blest One in Three;
Our foes press on from every side,	O grant us life that shall not end,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.	In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

High Mass

✓ Hymn 312 God of mercy, God of grace Henry Smart, 1866

Introit - - - - - Tone IV

The whole world, O Lord, is in thy power; and there is no man that can resist thee: for thou hast made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all the wondrous things under the heaven: thou art Lord of all.

Ps. Blessed are those that are undefiled in the way: and walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Missa Davidica) - - - Lorenzo Perosi

Gradual - - - - - Tone II

Lord, thou hast been our refuge: from one generation to another. V. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made: thou art God from everlasting, and world without end.

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone V

When Israel came out of Egypt: and the house of Jacob from among the strange people. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 219 Christ, of all my hopes the ground Orlando Gibbons, 1623

✓ Credo III - - - - - Mode V

Offertory - - - - - Tone II

Thou art my portion, O Lord; I have promised to keep thy law: I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart; O be merciful unto me, according to thy Word.

✓ Anthem—Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round Eric Thiman
(The words of Hymn 491)

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Perosi

Communio - - - - - Tone I

My soul hath longed for thy salvation, and I have a good hope because of thy word: when wilt thou be avenged of them that persecute me? they persecute me falsely; O Lord my God, be thou my help.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo VIII - - - Mode V

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

The Lord that maketh peace in the borders of the Church filleth us with the flour of wheat.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

✓ Psalm 119 (verses 73-104) - - - Tones I-7, II-1

✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones II and VIII, with faux-bourbons by Carolus Andreas

✓ Hymn - - - - - Grenoble Church Melody

See now the Christ, in triumph high, That civic state how trebly blest
Unfurl his standard to the sky! Where Christ bears rule, by man confessed;
Ye nations, fall before his feet; The edicts of high heaven run;
The King of kings with homage greet. And upon earth God's will be done.

The kingdoms that he claims as Lord May this thy light, for which we pine,
He hath not willed by fear or sword Sweet King of love, upon us shine;
To quell; but on the Cross raised high And all the earth, in holy peace,
He would on love alone rely. From thy glad praises never cease. Amen.

✓ Anthem - - - - - Ralph Vaughan-Williams

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge.

Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

✓ Devotions

✓ Hymn in Procession 295 For all the Saints R. Vaughan-Williams

Introit Tone I

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, and celebrate this festival in honour of all the Saints: over whose solemn feast the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Ps. Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous: for it becometh well the just to be thankful. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Missa Festiva in E major) J. Kromolicki

Gradual Tone I

O fear the Lord, ye that are his Saints: for they that fear him lack nothing:
V. They who seek the Lord shall want no manner of thing that is good.

✓ Alleluia Tone V

Come unto me, all ye that travail and are heavy laden: and I will give you rest. Alleluia.

✓ Sequence Mode I

Spouse of Christ, in arms contending	In your heavenly habitations,
O'er each clime beneath the sun,	In your blessed home on high,
Blend with prayers for help ascending	Hear, ye Saints, our aspirations,
Notes of praise for triumphs won!	As to God we lift our cry.

As the Church today rejoices	Ever praising, ever praying,
All her Saints to join on high,	Help ye thus your brethren here,
So from earth let all our voices	That the will of God obeying
Rise in solemn harmony.	We in peace may persevere.

Credo Kromolicki

Offertory Tone I

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God: and there shall no torment touch them. In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: but they are in peace, alleluia.

St. Mark's Branch of the Guild of All Souls has a total Membership of 46. There should be many more members. To pray for the departed is not only a Christian duty but also a great privilege. Few of us there are who have not lost some dearly loved one, and for whom to say a prayer or to be present at a Requiem Mass at stated intervals, is not asking too much.

The dues of the Guild are $1.00 per year. The obligations are to say the Guild prayers on one day in each week. Applications for membership in the Guild should be made to the Secretary, Mrs. D. E. Dallam, The Fairfax, Locust and 43rd Streets.

St. Mark's Branch, Section 37, of the Philadelphia Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, reports the following received at their In-Gathering for 1942—675 garments, being 283 less than last year, owing to the loss of several Directors, showing the Section cannot grow without new ones. Also $34.00 for the Shoe Fund and $20.00 from its money members. (Reported by Mrs. Charles P. Maule, Section President.)

Hymn

Prout, 1887

Holy Father, in thy mercy,
Hear our anxious prayer,
Keep our loved ones, now far absent
'Neath thy care.

May the joy of thy salvation
Be their strength and stay;
May they love and may they praise thee
Day by day.

Jesus Saviour, let thy presence
Be their light and guide;
Keep, O keep them in their weakness
At thy side.

Holy Spirit, let thy teaching
Sanctify their life;
Send thy grace, that they may conquer
In the strife

When in sorrow, when in danger,
When in loneliness,
In thy love look down and comfort
Their distress.

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
God the One in Three;
Bless them, guide them, save them,
Keep them, Near to thee. Amen.

Anthem

John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

Devotions

High Mass

✓ Hymn 387 Come unto Me, ye weary John B. Dykes, 1875

Introit Tone VI

I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord; thoughts of peace and not of evil: ye shall call upon me, and I will hearken unto you; and I will bring your captivity from all places.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison (Mass in D) George Henschel

Gradual Tone VII

It is thou, O Lord, that savest us from our enemies: and puttest them to confusion that hate us. V. We make our boast in God all day long: and will praise thy Name for ever.

✓ Alleluia Tone V

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

✓ Hymn 225 My spirit on thy care Louis Bourgeois, 1551

✓ Credo Henschel

Offertory Tone II

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

✓ Anthem John Ireland

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it. Love is strong as death. Greater Love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own self bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness.

Ye are washed, ye are sanctified, ye are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, that ye should shew forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

I beseech you, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Henschel

Communio Tone I

Verily I say unto you, what things soever ye desire when ye pray: believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo Henschel

✓ Antiphon Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Prelude in E flat Back

Solemn Evensong

Organ—Pieces in Free Style Louis Vierne

Legende
Arabesque

✓ Psalm 145 Tone V-1

✓ Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tones VIII and III with polyphony by Everett Titcomb

✓ Hymn Psalterium Harmonicum, 1642

And now this holy day
Is drawing to its end,
Once more to thee, O Lord,
Our thanks and prayers we send.

We thank thee for this rest
From earthly care and strife;
We thank thee for this help
To higher, holier life.

We thank thee for thy house
It is thy palace-gate
Where thou, upon the throne
Of mercy, still dost wait.

Yet, ere we go to rest,
Father, to thee we pray,
Forgive the sins that stain
E'en this holy day.

Through Jesus let the past
Be blotted from thy sight,
And let us all now sleep,
At peace with thee this night.

To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be,
From all in earth and heaven,
Through all eternity. Amen.

✓ Anthem Edward Elgar

Light of the World, we know thy praise the Angels and Archangels raise, and all the hosts of heaven; more worthily than our faint hymns, whose jarring sound that glory dims, which God to thee has given.

But thou didst not disdain to take our low estate, or e'en to make the tomb thy resting place; so thou might bring into our night the dawn of thine eternal Light to shine upon our face.

Nor death, nor hell, nor sin is Lord, but thou, O Son of God; thy Word is now our sovereign law, therefore we thank thee, and we pray thy Light may shine unto the Perfect Day on us for evermore.

✓ Devotions

✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Abbe Duguet, 1767

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

O Strength and Stay upholding all creation,
Who ever dost thyself unmoved abide,
Yet day by day the light in due gradation
From hour to hour through all its changes guide.

Grant to life's day a calm unclouded ending,
An eve untouched by shadows of decay;
The brightness of a holy death-bed blending
With dawning glories of the eternal day.

Hear us, O Father, gracious and forgiving,
Through Jesus Christ, thy co-eternal Word,
Who, with the Holy Ghost, by all things living,
Now and to endless ages art adored. Amen.

Anthem (Psalm 150) Cesar Franck

Hallelujah! O praise ye the Lord, Praise God for his greatness. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of his power. Praise ye Him for his mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to his wondrous works.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet; Praise ye Him with the dance; Praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments; Praise ye Him upon the loud cymbals; Praise ye Him upon the high-sounding cymbals.

ON THANKSGIVING DAY THERE WILL BE A HIGH MASS AT 9.30 A. M.

ALL OFFERINGS ON THANKSGIVING DAY WILL BE FOR THE EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL.

Bishop Taitt, in making a special appeal for a generous offering on Thanksgiving Day, reminds us that the Episcopal Hospital, which receives no grant from State Funds or from the United Charities, is in real need of help.

Special envelopes for this Offering, for the convenience of those who are not already supplied with them, will be found in the pews.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN ADVENT, NOVEMBER 29th, IS THE SUNDAY APPOINTED FOR A NATION-WIDE CORPORATE COMMUNION FOR MEN AND BOYS.

At the Presentation of the United Thank Offering in Holy Trinity Church on November 5th, St. Mark's Parish contributed $300, St. Mary's Chapel, $66.82 and St. Michael's Chapel, $26.95.

The Evening Auxiliary plans to send a Christmas box to St. Mary's Mission School at Sewanee, Tenn., the contents of the box to be as follows: Used clothing in good condition for the mission room and new toys for the children. Also work boxes, material for primary construction work, bone knitting needles and wool, Prang paint boxes and dolls. The Auxiliary would be grateful for contributions of any of the above articles, which can be left either with the Sexton or at the parish office.

There will be a Retreat for Women at St. Margaret's House, 5419 Germantown Avenue, on Thursday, December 3rd. Mass at 8.30 A. M. Closing at 4 P. M. Conductor, the Rev. Walter C. Pugh. Please register promptly with the Sister-in-Charge.

Hymn 56 Thy kingdom come! Day's Psalter, 1562

Introit Tone VIII

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee;
O let me not be confounded: neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Ps. Shew me thy ways, O Lord: and teach me thy paths. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison Orbis Factor, Mode I

Gradual Tone I

All they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed, O Lord: shew me thy ways,
O Lord, and teach me thy paths.

Alleluia Tone VIII

Shew us thy mercy, O Lord: and grant us thy salvation.

Sequence Mode VII

Saviour Eternal! Health and Life of the world unailing.
Light Everlasting! And in verity our redemption.
Grieving that the ages of men must perish through the tempter's subtlety,
Still in heaven abiding thou camest earthward of thine own great clemency;
Then freely and graciously deigning to assume humanity, To lost ones and perishing gavest thou thy free deliverance, filling all the world with joy.

O Christ, our souls and bodies cleanse by thy perfect sacrifice, That we, as temples pure and bright, fit for thine abode may be.

By thy former Advent justify; By thy second grant us liberty; That when in the might of glory thou descendest, Judge of all, We in raiment undefiled bright may shine and ever follow, Lord, thy footsteps blest, where'er they lead us.

Credo I Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory Tone II

Unto thee, O Lord, lift I up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee:
O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me; for all
they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed.

Hymn 53 Hosanna to the living Lord! Dykes, 1865

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Mode IV, VIII

Communio Tone I

The Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

Tantum Ergo Zoltan Kodaly

(The words of Hymn 338, Part II)

Antiphon Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord
endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Psalms 96, 97 Tones VIII-1, V-2

Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with Fauxbourdons by Bach

Hymn Directorium Chori, 1582

The eternal gifts of Christ the King,
The Apostles' glorious deeds, we sing:
And while due hymns of praise we pay,
Our thankful hearts cast grief away.

'Twas thus the yearning faith of Saints:
The unconquered hope that never faints;
The love of Christ that knows not shame:
The Prince of this world overcame.

The Church in these her princes boasts,
These victor chiefs of warrior hosts;
The soldiers of the heavenly hall,
The lights that rose on earth for all.

In these the Father's glory shone;
In these the will of God the Son;
In these exults the Holy Ghost;
Through these rejoice the heavenly host.

Redeemer, hear us of thy love,
That, with this glorious band above,
Hereafter, of thine endless grace,
Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

Anthem N. Herman, 1560; arranged by Ley

Lo, round the Throne a glorious band
The Saints in countless myriads stand,
Of every tongue redeemed of God,
Arrayed in garments washed in blood,
Hallelujah!

They see their Saviour face to face,
And sing the triumphs of his grace;
Him day and night they ceaseless praise,
To Him the loud thanksgiving raise,
Hallelujah!

Through tribulation great they came;
They bore the Cross, despised the shame;
From all their labours now they rest,
In God's eternal glory blest,
Hallelujah!

Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,
Through endless years to live and reign;
Thou hast redeemed us by thy Blood,
And made us kings and priests to God,
Hallelujah!

O may we tread the sacred road,
That Saints and Holy Martyrs trod;
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life,
Hallelujah! Amen.

O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Abbe Duguet, 1767

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

✓ Hymn - - - - - Praetorius, 1607

O Word, that goest forth on high,
From God's own depths eternally;
Who in these latter days art born
For succour to a world forlorn.

And when as Judge thou drawest nigh,
The secrets of all hearts to try;
When vengeance falls on hidden sin,
And Saints their promised reign begin;

Our hearts enlighten from above,
And kindle with the fire of love;
That we, who hear the call today,
At length may cast our sins away.

O let us not for evil past,
Be driven from thy face at last;
But with the Saints in glory be
To endless ages pure and free.

All praise, Eternal Son, to thee
Whose Advent doth thy people free;
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

✓ Anthem - - - - - Gustav Holst

Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways,
Old now is Earth, and none may count her days,
Yet thou, her child, whose head is crowned with flame,
Still wilt not hear thine inner God proclaim
'Turn back, O Man, forswear thy foolish ways!'

Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise,
Age after age their tragic empires rise.
Built while they dream, and in that dreaming weep,
Would man but wake from out his haunted sleep
Earth might be fair and all men glad and wise.

Earth shall be fair, and all her people one,
Nor till that hour shall God's whole will be done.
Now, even now, once more from earth to sky
Peals forth in joy man's old undaunted cry
'Earth shall be fair, and all her folk be one.'

✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - Abbe Duguet, 1767

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,

Office Hours

The Rector's Office Hours are daily, except Saturdays, from 10 to 11 A. M.

Sister Leila's Office Hours are daily, except Tuesdays, from 11 to 11.55 A. M.

Notices

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember Days.

If you have not yet turned in your subscription blank for 1942, will you please do so as soon as conveniently possible. If you have not received a subscription blank you can obtain one at the office of the Parochial Secretary.

In order that our Christmas plans can be completed, may we ask that your contribution to the Christmas Fund be mailed in as early as possible.

All Offerings next Sunday will be applied to Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign Missions.

There will be a Retreat for the Mothers' Union on Tuesday, December 15th, at St. Margaret's House, from 10 A. M. to 3.30 P. M. The Conductor will be Rev. Arthur J. Langlois. Any members of St. Mark's wishing to attend will be welcome.

There will be a Quiet Evening for Women in Preparation for Christmas at St. Margaret's House on Saturday, December 19th, from 4.30 to 9 P. M. Conductor, the Rev. Peter C. Van der Hiel. Please register promptly with the Sister-in-Charge.

The response to the appeal of the Woman's Auxiliary has been less than last year. Will the members who have not forwarded their contribution please do so, as the missionary work of the Church needs our help more than ever.

Copies of the Church Kalendar may be obtained at the Quill Book Shop or from H. M. Jacobs. Father Blake is the editor of this Kalendar.

All persons who desire to consult with the Rector concerning Confirmation are asked to send in their names in order that instruction may be arranged and provided.

High Mass

✓ Hymn 55 Come, Thou long expected Jesus Gotha, 1715

Introit Tone I

Rejoice in the Lord, and again I say, rejoice ye: let your moderation be known unto all men, the Lord is at hand. Be careful for nothing, nor troubled; but in all things, by prayer, let your requests be made known unto God.

Ps. Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory be.

✓ Kyrie Eleison Cavaliere c. 1600

Gradual Tone V

Shew thyself, O Lord, thou that sittest upon the Cherubim: stir up thy strength and come. V. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel: thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep.

✓ Alleluia Tone VIII

Stir up thy strength, O Lord: and come and help us.

✓ Hymn 456 Ye servants of the Lord Gauntlett, 1848

✓ Credo I Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory Tone IV

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob; thou hast forgiven the offense of thy people.

✓ Hymn 326 The King of Love my Shepherd is Dykes, 1868

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei Cavaliere

Communio Tone VII

Say to them that are of a fearful heart: Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come and save you.

✓ Tantum Ergo J. Kromolicki

(The words of Hymn 338, Part II)

✓ Antiphon Mode V

O Most Sacred Banquet, wherein Christ is received, the memory of his Passion is renewed, the mind with grace is filled, and a pledge of future glory is bestowed.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

Organ—Fantasia in C minor Bach

Solemn Evensong

Organ—Chorale Preludes: Karg-Elert

O God, thou gracious God.
Deck thyself, my soul, with gladness.

✓ Psalms 93, 94 Tones V-3, IV-4

✓ Magnificat Tone V with Fauxbourdons by Edwardo Torres

✓ Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux bourdons by Vincent Ripolles

✓ Hymn Mode II

When shades of night around us close,
And weary limbs in sleep repose;
The faithful soul awake may be,
And yearning sigh, O Lord, to Thee.

O come, Redeemer, come and free
Thine own from their iniquity;
The gates of heaven again unfold,
Which Adam's trespass closed of old.

O Thou, for whom the nations long,
O Word of God, thou Saviour strong;
Turn unto us thy pitying eyes,
And bid at length the fallen rise.

All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee,
Whose Advent doth thy people free;
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Ghost for evermore. Amen.

✓ Anthem J. S. Bach

God, my Shepherd, walks beside me,
And I know his way is best,
Where his tender care doth guide me;
Shall no evil e'er betide me,
In his love I calmly rest.

The Lord my Guide vouchsafes to be,
To Him full trust I render:
The Lord, my Shepherd, carries me
To pastures fair and tender:
He leads me on by waters still,
My soul with comfort He doth fill,
My Strength and sure Defender.

✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 Abbe Duguet, 1767

O Saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below,
Our foes press on from every side,
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore, blest One in Three;
O grant us life that shall not end,
In our true native land with thee.

V. Thou gavest them bread from heaven.
R. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Organ—Psalm XIX: The heavens declare. Benedetto Marcello

High Mass

✓ Hymn 70 The King shall come when morning dawns
William Jones, 1789

Introit - - - - - Tone I

Drop down, ye heavens, from above; and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let her bring forth salvation.

Ps. The heavens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handiwork. Glory be.

Kyrie Eleison (Mass in honor of St. Lawrence) Oreste Ravanello

Gradual - - - - - Tone V

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him: even such as call upon him faithfully. V. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh give thanks unto his Holy Name.

✓ Alleluia - - - - - Tone VIII

Come, O Lord, and tarry not: forgive the misdeeds of thy people. Alleluia.

✓ Hymn 282 On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry Hamburg, 1690

✓ Credo I - - - - - Mode IV, sixth century

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

✓ Hymn 66 O Come, O Come, Emmanuel Mode I

Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Ravanello

Communio - - - - - Tone I

Behold; a Virgin shall conceive, and bring forth a Son: and shall call his name Immanuel.

✓ Tantum Ergo - - - - - Zoltan Kodaly, No. 5
(The words of Hymn 338, Part II)

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode V

Fairest Lord Jesus

✓ Psalm 103 - - - - - Tone V-3

✓ Magnificat Tone V with Fauxbourdons by Eduardo Torres

✓ Nunc Dimittis Tonus Peregrinus, with faux bourdons by Vincente Ripolles

✓ Hymn - - - - - Christopher Peter, 1626-69

Patient Lord, with loving eye
Thou invitest Thomas nigh,
Showing of that wounded side
While the world is certified
How the third day from the grave
Jesus Christ arose to save.

Blest, O Didymus, the tongue,
Where that first confession hung;
First the Saviour to proclaim,
First the Lord of life to name;
Such the graces it supplied—
That dear touch of Jesu's side. Amen.

✓ Motet - - - - - Vittoria

Glorious in heaven are the souls of all Saints, who walked in the way of Christ the Lord Jesus. They loved Him, and followed his footsteps; and as they died for the Saviour, losing life for his sake, now they reign with Him forever.

✓ O Salutaris Hostia, 331 - - - - - Abbe Duguet, 1767

O Saving Victim, opening wide	All praise and thanks to thee ascend

T. Est's Psalms, 1592

✓ Credo - - - - - Kromolicki

Offertory - - - - - Tone IV

The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine; thou hast laid the foundation of the round world, and all that therein is. Righteousness and equity are the habitation of thy seat.

✓ Carol - - - Old English, arr. by Whitehead

This endris night I saw a sight,
A maid in cradle kepe;
And ever she sung and said among,
'Lullay, my child, and slepe.'

My sweetest bird, thus 'tis required,
Though thou be king veray;
But nevertheless I will not cease
To sing, by, by, lullay.'

This lovely lady sat and sung.
And to her child did say:
'My son, my brother, father dear,
Why liest thou thus in hay?'

The child then spake in his talking,
And to his Mother said:
'Yea, I am known as heaven-born king,
In hay though I be laid.'

This endris night I saw a sight,
A star as bright as day;
And ever among a maiden sung:
'Lullay, my child, lullay.'

✓ Sanctus, Benedictus, Agnus Dei - - - Kromolicki

Communio - - - - - Tone I

All the ends of the world: have seen the salvation of our God.

✓ Gloria in Excelsis Deo - - - Kromolicki

✓ Antiphon - - - - - Mode I

I am the Living Bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this Bread, he shall live for ever.

Ps. O praise the Lord, all ye heathen: Praise Him, all ye nations. For his merciful kindness is ever more and more toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth forever. Praise the Lord. Glory be.

✓ Carol - - - - - Traditional, arr. by K. K. Davis

Lullay, thou little tiny Child,	Herod the king, in his raging,
By, by, lullay, lullay;	Charged he hath this day
Lullay, thou little tiny Child,	His men of might in his own sight,
By, by, lullay, lullay.	All young children to slay.

O sisters too, how may we do	Then woe is me, poor Child, for Thee,
For to preserve this day	And ever morn and day
This poor Youngling for whom we sing	For thy parting nor say nor sing
By, by, lullay, lullay.	By, by, lullay, lullay.
